Highrise Of Homes:

Highrise of Homes Patricia C. Phillips, James Wines, SITE, Inc, 1982 New York Magazine, 1981-06-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea People in Cities Edward Krupat, 1985-09-13 An analysis of current research and theory about the ways in which cities affect people High Rise Stories Audrey Petty, 2021-01-26 In the gripping first person accounts of High Rise Stories former residents of Chicago's iconic public housing projects describe life in the now demolished high rises These stories of community displacement and poverty in the wake of gentrification give voice to those who have long been ignored but whose hopes and struggles exist firmly at the heart of our national identity Controlling Access in Highrise Buildings William Brill Associates, 1977

Flow Penny Sparke, Patricia Brown, Patricia Lara-Betancourt, Gini Lee, Mark Taylor, 2018-07-12 Flow combines cutting edge scholarship with practitioner perspectives to address the concept of flow and how it connects interiors landscapes and buildings expanding on traditional notions of architectural prominence Contributors explore the transitional and intermediary relationships between inside outside Through a range of case studies authors extend the notion of flow beyond the western industrialised world and embrace a wider geography while engaging with the specificity of climate and place Accompanied by stunning colour illustration and photography Flow brings together historical theoretical and practice based approaches to consider themes of nature mobility continuity and frames Envisioning Architecture Matilda McQuaid, 2002-06-25 The first in a series of books that will showcase works from The Museum of Modern Art's superlative holdings in the fields of architecture and design this text features a range of drawings by great architects such as Frank Lloyd Wright and Alvar Aalto Oz, 1987 Homes and Health Bernard Ineichen, 2003-10-04 This book links where people live with their health The author reviews how housing has influenced health throughout the past hundred and fifty years discusses in detail current issues concerning housing and health and describes attempts at housing particular groups whose health is at risk Inside High-Rise Housing Megan Nethercote, 2022-06-30 EPDF and EPUB available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence Condominium and comparable legal architectures make vertical urban growth possible but do we really understand the social implications of restructuring city land ownership in this way Geographer and architect Megan Nethercote enters the condo tower to explore the hidden social and territorial dynamics of private vertical communities Informed by residents accounts of Australian high rise living this book shows how legal and physical architectures fuse in ways that jeopardize residents experience of home and stigmatize renters As cities sprawl skywards and private renting expands this compelling geographic analysis of property identifies high rise development's overlooked hand in social segregation and urban fragmentation and raises bold questions about the condominium's prospects Bothe Richter Teherani Klaus-Dieter Weiss, 2005-11-25 Impressive in size emotional and visual impact the buildings of Hamburg based architects Bothe Richter Teherani are also remarkable for their attention to finishing detail functionality and financial accountability and have won international recognition BRT's style is provocative and controversial it took the city of Cologne 10 years to come to terms with their glass crane structures predestined to become the heart of the Rhine and Ruhr valleys and BRT's project to build Europe's highest building in the waters of Hamburg harbour is the subject of heated discussion BRT's labyrinthine yet systematic concepts to maximize space in office buildings the futuristic connotations of space shuttles and zeppelins and their treatment of urban and public spaces are documented in this volume The accompanying essays and text contributions investigate the aims of the architects somewhere between pragmatism and vision between fine detail and the greater complexity of urban life The Poorhouse Devereux Bowly, 2012-07-05 Chicago seems an ideal environment for public housing because of the city's relatively young age among major cities and well deserved reputation for technology innovation and architecture Yet The Poorhouse Subsidized Housing in Chicago shows that the city's experience on the whole has been a negative one raising serious questions about the nature of subsidized housing and whether we should have it and if so in what form Bowly a native of the city provides a detailed examination of subsidized housing in the nation's third largest city Now in its second edition The Poorhouse looks at the history of public housing and subsidized housing in Chicago from 1895 to the present day Five new chapters that cover the decline and federal takeover of the Chicago Housing Authority and its more recent transformation which involved the demolition of the CHA family high rise buildings and in some cases their replacement with low rise mixed income housing on the same sites Fifty new photos supplement this edition Certificate of Excellence from the Illinois State Historical Society 2013 Newsweek Raymond Moley, Samuel Thurston Williamson, Malcolm Muir, Rex Smith, Joseph Becker Phillips, 1982 International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home, 2012-10-09 Available online via SciVerse ScienceDirect or in print for a limited time only The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home Seven Volume Set is the first international reference work for housing scholars and professionals that uses studies in economics and finance psychology social policy sociology anthropology geography architecture law and other disciplines to create an international portrait of housing in all its facets from meanings of home at the microscale to impacts on macro economy This comprehensive work is edited by distinguished housing expert Susan J Smith together with Marja Elsinga Ong Seow Eng Lorna Fox O Mahony and Susan Wachter and a multi disciplinary editorial team of 20 world class scholars in all Working at the cutting edge of their subject liaising with an expert editorial advisory board and engaging with policy makers and professionals the editors have worked for almost five years to secure the quality reach relevance and coherence of this work A broad and inclusive table of contents signals or testifies to detailed investigation of historical and theoretical material as well as in depth analysis of current issues This seven volume set contains over 500 entries listed alphabetically but grouped into seven thematic sections including methods and approaches economics and finance environments home and homelessness institutions policy and welfare and well being Housing professionals both academics and practitioners will find The International Encyclopedia of Housing and Home useful for teaching discovery and research needs International in scope engaging with trends in every world region The editorial board and contributors are drawn from a wide constituency collating expertise from academics policy makers professionals and practitioners and from every key center for housing research Every entry stands alone on its merits and is accessed alphabetically yet each is fully cross referenced and attached to one of seven thematic categories whose wholes far exceed the sum of their parts High-Rise

Living in Asian Cities Belinda Yuen,Anthony G.O. Yeh,2011-02-02 This book is intended to fill a knowledge gap in the study of contemporary high rise living While there has been much documentation on the engineering and technological aspects of tall buildings relatively little has been written about the social and livability of high rise Much less is written about Asian cities even though Asia is the current hotbed of high rise development Even though traditional discourse of high rise housing is not always positive new forces are redefining its place in 21st century urbanity Many cities around the world are reembracing high rise in urban agenda under current narrative of sustainable development High rise is fast becoming a priority area in international research agenda The quest is for livable and sustainable high rise development Against the background of current trends globalization urbanization mixed use development and new built taller buildings in inner city areas in both developed and developing countries this book examines the software design economics estate management legal and property rights physical environment planning community development and social dimensions of high rise living Analysis is with the widely acclaimed successful high rise public housing in Hong Kong and Singapore to understand the advantages and worries of high rise living and to distill the key points and lessons in the making of a good highrise living environment Hong Kong and Singapore have been constructing high rise for more than four decades each The majority of their population has moved to live in high rise selecting to live high rise and registering consistently high residential satisfaction The height of apartment buildings in both cities continues to rise The tallest is anticipated to be 70 storey It is the contention of this book that contrary to earlier common negative discourses on public high rise living the high rise environment may yet offer urban residents a satisfying dwelling experience Leading housing academics researchers and practitioners in the two cities have contributed to this book This book presents a timely contribution to our understanding of a widening urban phenomenon that will affect a growing number of the world s population 1974 NASA Authorization

United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Astronautics,1973 1974 NASA Authorization, Hearings Before United States. Congress. House Science and Astronautics,1973 Fire Technology Abstracts ,1977 Hovels to High Rise Anne Power,2021-03-23 Originally published in 1993 this book traces how governments in France Germany Britain Denmark and Ireland became involved in replacing industrial revolution urban slums with mass high rise high density concrete estates As the book considers each country's housing history and traditions and analyses the contrasting structures and systems it finds convergence of problems in the growing tensions of their most disadvantaged communities The book underlines the continuing drift towards deeper polarization an issue which has become ever more important in the multi lingual ethnically diverse urban societies of the 21st Century The book's detailed coverage of the historical political and social changes relating to housing within the various countries make it an important text for students and practitioners concerned with housing urban affairs social policy and administration The Unsheltered Woman Randall

Hinshaw, 2017-09-08 Defining the unsheltered woman and her needs is a complicated task Regardless of the roots of the condition a significant number of women are not being housed as well as they could be Women are not the only victims of an inadequately met housing demand their families suffer as well This volume provides sources of information for understanding which women are ill housed and why their shelter is substandard Birch reviews basic demographic issues and trends in household formation using census information to reveal which groups in the country and in New York City have housing problems The essays then turn to the needs of special groups of women elderly women working class women and professional women married and single Later essays investigate locational and design issues related to women's concerns a model case study in Denver high rise housing in New York City neighborhood housing for the elderly in Manhattan The author has gathered together more than twenty of the top professionals in the field including Susan Cotts Watkins Evelyn S Mann May Engler Roberta R Spohn Olivia Schieffelin Nordberg Barbara Behrens Gers Susan Saegert Elizabeth Mackintosh Gwendolyn Wright Dolores Hayden Jacqueline Leavitt Ronnie Feit Jan Peterson Michael Mostoller Clara Fox Celine G Marcus Jane Margolies Lynda Simmons Judith Edelman Rebecca A Lee and Michael A Stegman The Unsheltered Woman is significant not only for women but also for housing policy in America Until now very little research has focused on gender policy issues as such it should be read by all urban planners policy makers and housing authorities
