Lost Among the Birds Neil Hayward, 2016-06-07 Early in 2013 Neil Hayward was at a crossroads He didn't want to open a bakery or whatever else executives do when they quit a lucrative but unfulfilling job He didn't want to think about his failed relationship with the one or his potential for ruining a new relationship with the next one And he almost certainly didn't want to think about turning forty And so instead he went birding Birding was a lifelong passion It was only among the birds that Neil found a calm that had eluded him in the confusing world of humans But this time he also found competition His growing list of species reluctantly catapulted him into a Big Year a race to find the most birds in one year His peregrinations across twenty eight states and six provinces in search of exotic species took him to a hoarfrost covered forest in Massachusetts to find a Fieldfare to Lake Havasu Arizona to see a rare Nutting's Flycatcher and to Vancouver for the Red flanked Bluetail Neil's Big Year was as unplanned as it was accidental It was the perfect distraction to life Neil shocked the birding world by finding 749 species of bird and breaking the long standing Big Year record He also surprised himself During his time among the hummingbirds tanagers and boobies he found a renewed sense of confidence and hope about the world and his place in it

Dobrin, Sean Morey, 2009-04-16 How do supporters of the environmental movement manipulate and promote images of nature to achieve support and sympathy From the Sierra Club's use of Ansel Adams's stark and pristine portraits of the western United States to close ups of plastic bottles and dead fish floating in Rust Belt waterways visual depictions of landscapes and the degradation caused by humans have profoundly shaped popular notions of environmentalism and the environment Despite the rhetorical power of images connected with the environmental movement over the past forty years scholarship in environmental communication has focused almost exclusively on verbal rather than visual rhetoric Ecosee offers a deeper and fuller understanding of the communicative strategies and power of the environmental movement by looking closely at the visual rhetorics involved in photographs paintings television and filmic images video games and other forms of image based media

Four Wings and a Prayer Sue Halpern,2011-03-11 Monarch butterflies abound in Canada We marvel at their beauty and the magic of their metamorphosis Familiar as they are to us these tiny creatures nevertheless harbour many secrets Perhaps the deepest mystery is the monarchs annual migration Each autumn they travel unimaginably long distances something no other butterflies do How do they know when to migrate How unguided by memory do they navigate to their destination in the heart of the threatened Mexican jungle Sue Halpern recounts the mesmerizing story of these mysteries and the race to solve them She describes the discoveries of Canadian biologist Fred Urquhart and his wife who first encouraged amateur lepidopterists to tag butterflies We follow her to Mexico where she searches for butterflies She introduces us to Don Davis an enthusiast who has tagged an estimated 20 000 monarchs since 1985 And though terrified of flying she takes us on a flight with University of Toronto biologist David Gibo as they attempt to predict the flight vectors of butterflies Astonishing fascinating Four Wings and a Prayer like our encounters with these delicate winged creatures is a rare gem More Than Birds Val Shushkewich,2012-11-17 Once people encounter the natural world and become aware of its intricacy fragility beauty and significance they will recognize the need for conservation The fascinating development of natural history studies in North America is portrayed through the life stories of 22 naturalists The 19th century saw early North American naturalists such as Alexander Wilson the Father of American Ornithology John James Audubon and Thomas Nuttall describing and illustrating the spectacular flora and fauna they found in the New World Scientists of the Smithsonian Institution and the Canadian Museum of Nature worked feverishly to describe and catalogue the species that exist on the continent Great nature writers such as Florence Merriam Bailey Cordelia Stanwood Margaret Morse Nice Louise de Kiriline Lawrence and Roger Tory Peterson wrote in depth about the lives and behaviours of birds Early conservationists such as Jack Miner the Father of Conservation created nature preserves Today noted naturalists such as Robert Nero Robert Bateman Kenn Kaufman and David Allen Sibley do everything they can to encourage people to experience nature directly in their lives and to care about its protection and preservation Learning the Birds Susan Fox Rogers,2022-04-15 The thrill of quiet adventure The constant hope of discovery The reminder that the world is filled with wonder When I bird life is bigger more vibrant That is why Susan Fox Rogers is a birder Learning the Birds is the story of how encounters with birds recharged her adventurous spirit When the birds first called Rogers was in a slack season of her life The woods and rivers that enthralled her younger self had lost some of their luster It was the song of a thrush that reawakened Rogers sparking a long held desire to know the birds that accompanied her as she rock climbed and paddled to know the world around her with greater depth Energized by her curiosity she followed the birds as they drew her deeper into her authentic self and ultimately into love In Learning the Birds we join Rogers as she becomes a birder and joins the community of passionate and quirky bird people We meet her birding companions close to home in New York State s Hudson Valley as well as in the desert of Arizona and awash in the midnight sunlight of Alaska Along on the journey are birders and estimable ornithologists of past generations people like Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Florence Merriam Bailey whose writings inspire Rogers s adventures and discoveries A ready knowledgeable and humble friend and explorer Rogers is eager to share what she sees and learns Learning the Birds will remind you of our passionate need for wonder and our connection to the wild creatures with whom we share the land
