Kinski My Best Fiend:

The Technique of Film and Video Editing Ken Dancyger, 2014-07-23 First published in 2011 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Companion to Werner Herzog Brad Prager, 2012-05-21 A Companion to Werner Herzog showcases over two dozen original scholarly essays examining nearly five decades of filmmaking by one of the most acclaimed and innovative figures in world cinema First collection in twenty years dedicated to examining Herzog s expansive career Features essays by international scholars and Herzog specialists Addresses a broad spectrum of the director s films from his earliest works such as Signs of Life and Fata Morgana to such recent films as The Bad Lieutenant and Encounters at the End of the World Offers creative innovative approaches guided by film history art history and philosophy Includes a comprehensive filmography that also features a list of the director s acting appearances and opera productions Explores the director s engagement with music and the arts his self stylization as a global filmmaker his Bavarian origins and even his love hate relationship with the actor Klaus Kinski Secret Sharers Anthony Fothergill, 2006 This is the first book length account of Joseph Conrad s reception in Germany a virtually unresearched area of Conrad studies It demonstrates that Conrad was read and used by his German readers as a cosmopolitan literary and moral voice against the prevailing nationalism of Germany in the dark times of the 1930s and 1940s when their own voices were being silenced Challenging the longstanding assumption that Germany remained largely indifferent to his works this book demonstrates that particularly after the translation of the complete fiction commencing in the 1920s Conrad s works achieved near cult status in Germany On the basis of diaries and letters contemporary reviews and essays unpublished archival material as well as novels and films the author illuminates the range and importance of Conrad s presence as a powerful liberating imagination within twentieth century German culture Championed by Thomas Mann lauded by Hermann Hesse and decried as Conrad the Jew by the Nazis Conrad has remained an influential presence in post war German culture The study offers a completely fresh perspective on Conrad s works and speaks eloquently for the importance of recognizing the way trans national literary cultural relations have helped to shape European cultural history Self-Projection Linda Haverty Rugg, 2014-03-01 In 1957 a decade before Roland Barthes announced the death of the author Fran ois Truffaut called for a new era in which films would resemble the person who made them and be even more personal than an autobiographical novel More than five decades on it seems that Barthes has won the argument when it comes to most film critics The cinematic author we are told has been dead for a long time Yet Linda Haverty Rugg contends not only that the art cinema auteur never died but that the films of some of the most important auteurs are intensely if complexly related to the lives and self images of their directors Self Projection explores how nondocumentary narrative art films create alternative forms of collaborative self representation and selfhood The book examines the work of celebrated directors who plant autobiographical traces in their films including Truffaut Bergman Fellini Tarkovsky Herzog Allen Almod var and von Trier It is not simply that these directors and many others like them make autobiographical references or occasionally appear in their films but that they tie their films to their life stories and communicate that link to their audiences Projecting a new kind of selfhood these directors encourage identifications between themselves and their work even as they disavow such connections And because of the collaborative and technological nature of filmmaking the director's self projection involves actors audience and the machines and institution of the cinema as well Lively and accessible Self Projection sheds new light on the films of these iconic directors and on art cinema in general ultimately showing how film can transform not only the autobiographical act but what it means to have a self
