Kisho Kurokawa Abstract Symbolism:

Kisho Kurokawa Kishō Kurokawa, Aldo Castellano, 1996 Kisho Kurokawa Aldo Castellano, 1997-04 Kisho Kurokawa, Architect and Associates Kishō Kurokawa, 2000 By combining the abstraction of the 20th century with the iconography of history and the cultural identity of topos in a cosmology of culture I am trying to tackle the philosophical challenge of Abstract Symbolism BOOK JACKET Kisho Kurokawa Dennis Sharp, 2002 Known as the Big Eye the Oita Stadium is one of the chosen venues for the next World Cup in 2002 It will be reused for the second stage of the Japan Inter Prefectural Athletic Competition in 2008 after the World Cup continuing to grow in the future to become a large scale all purpose sports park for Oita The whole site covers an area of 225 ha and has several facilities outside the main football stadium These include general fitness training and lodging centres a botanical pool two multipurpose athletic fields two rugby and soccer practise pitches a softball field tennis courts and other game areas The main stadium features an open track for athletic events as well as the football pitch It can also be used year round for public events aided by its retractable roof For soccer matches spectator seats are placed right up to the edge of the pitch to bring them close to the action To change over for track events a retractable seating system was developed The stadium sits elegantly on its site enhanced by the gentle curves of its spherical design The choice of the sphere Kurokawa says is an expression of abstract symbolism This spherical shape also enables the retractable portion to move along its curved surface The use of Teflon membrane panels with 25 percent light permeability obviates the need for artificial lighting during daylight hours In order for the pitch to get proper exposure to sunlight the elliptical roof opening runs along the north south axis A main arch with perpendicular horizontal sub members follows the elliptical shape of the roof opening Between the roof and the spectator seating below the surrounding mountains can be seen from a slender ventilation clearstorey set just below the roof line This slit of space is designed to create a feeling of openness inside the stadium Since the original design an idea emerged for a moving camera to be located on the main beam to deliver special dynamic images for television audiences around the world The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015-02-26 Containing over 6 000 entries from Aalto to Zwinger and written in a clear and concise style this authoritative dictionary covers architectural history in detail from ancient times to the present day It also includes concise biographies of hundreds of architects from history excluding living persons from Sir Francis Bacon and Imhotep to Liang Su ch eng and Francis Inigo Thomas The text is complemented by over 260 beautiful and meticulous line drawings labelled cross sections and diagrams These include precise drawings of typical building features making it easy for readers to identify particular period styles This third edition of The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture has been extensively revised and expanded with over 900 new entries including hundreds of definitions of garden and landscape terms such as Baroque garden floral clock hortus conclusus and Zen garden design Each entry is followed by a mini bibliography with suggestions for further reading The full bibliography to the first edition

previously only available online has also been fully updated and expanded and incorporated into this new edition This is an essential work of reference for anyone with an interest in architectural and garden history With clear descriptions providing in depth analysis it is invaluable for students professional architects art historians and anyone interested in architecture and garden design and provides a fascinating wealth of information for the general reader

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens,Hans Bertens,Douwe Fokkema,1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Culture, Politics and Nationalism an the Age of Globalization Reneo Lukic,Michael Brint,2018-01-18 This title was first published in 2001 Given current movements in global culture technology mobility economic integration and regime transformation what is it that can or does hold a community or political entity together From a variety of perspectives this text examines the cultural politics of nationalism especially in the context of American culture and European politics where it is undergoing the most scrutiny The first part of the volume explores the debates on the politics of national identity that surround global information and consumer distribution systems like the Internet The second part offers a number of case studies of European domestic and foreign policy issues directly affected by arguments about cultural identity that have taken shape in the context of an increasingly global environment Of particular interest in this volume is the tension often felt between France and the USA on the issue of culture politics and nationalism

Kisho Kurokawa Kishō Kurokawa,Dennis Sharp,Catherine Slessor,Tomio Ōhashi,1999 The completion of the first phase of Kuala Lumpur International Airport in 1998 resulted in two 4000 m runways and a 335 000 m² main terminal building The airport can handle 25 million passengers a year By 2020 however the airport will be able to handle 120 000 000 passengers a year It is not surprising that everyone should wonder why Malaysia would need an international airport of that size The reason is the intense strategic competition that has already started Unquestionably the world will have an entirely new high speed transportation system by 2025 at the latest This will be the

HSST Hypersonic Speed Transport which will carry between 300 and 500 passengers at speeds up to Mach 3.5 The HSST will be meaningless for short routes Therefore the required international hub airports will be limited to two in North America one in Central and South America one in Africa two in Europe one in Russia and three in Asia Like China and South Korea Malaysia is very eager to obtain one of the three Asian international hub airports because a country with such an airport and the associated infrastructure is very likely to become a financial information tourism and advanced industrial centre The airport is an integral part of a future linear capital corridor which was also developed by Kurokawa The area surrounding the airport will be used for an experiment in artificially restoring the tropical rain forest Creating such a forest is the most effective method for blocking out noise from the airport This is the basis of the architect's concept for a symbiosis between airport and forest In addition the architect believes that this is effective for expressing the identity of Malaysia as tropical rain forests are the typical vegetation of the country Kurokawa was a key figure of Japanese Metabolism he has played an essential role in this movement not only through projects and buildings but also through theoretical writings Since then he has been one of the leading architects in Japan

Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums Anoma Pieris, 2016-07-14
Here is a lavishly illustrated descriptive survey of 48 leading indigenous cultural centers around the world 35 are from Australia and 13 from North America Japan Europe and Asia The book shows how each is a potentially transformative politically compelling addition to the field of cultural production illustrating how the facilities all built in the last three decades have challenged assumptions about nature culture and built form Using the spatial temporal practice of place making as the starting point the facilities highlighted here are described in terms of collaborations between a number of stake holders and professional consultants The book adopts the format of a descriptive survey with separate chapters devoted to individual case studies A broad introductory chapter which presents the arguments and overview precedes richly illustrated short individual essays on selected projects Each chapter commences with the details of the project including location area cost and consultants followed by a project description and discussion of background design development and reception of the projects Each project is approached as an architectural commission detailing the critical criteria consultants and processes The format is adopted from architectural review essays typically used in awards or journal publications within the profession which are accessible and relevant for both academics and practitioners Considerable attention is given to the process and to the evaluation of the project as a cultural response Each case study has been written with consultation of architects or administrators of the facilities for accuracy Indigenous Cultural Centers and Museums An Illustrated International Survey documents a rich legacy of collaboration across the spatial disciplines combining creative art practice architecture construction landscape design and urban design in the production of unique and culturally significant social institutions This book provides material on hitherto unknown bodies of work of talented architectural practices working collaboratively with culturally different client groups and developing consultative processes that test models for inter cultural engagement Kisho Kurokawa Architects and Associates Kishō Kurokawa, Kisho Kurokawa Architects and Associates, 2001 This volume presents 23 of the architect's most important projects documenting his attempt to challenge the homogenized designs of the Machine Age and explore the concept of symbiotic architecture which is an architecture of regionalism open to dialogue with the rest of the world Digital Humanities in precarious times Mirna Nel, Phil van Schalkwyk, Abiodun Salawu, Gustav Butler, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2024-07-31

In a modern and fast evolving technological world precarity has become more notable Digital transformation has ushered in an era of datafication profoundly impacting societies and individuals in such a way that there are emerging complexities and potential vulnerabilities in our interactions with technology Thus it is crucial that the Humanities subjects focus on human beings their culture and values This book focuses on the challenges and opportunities experienced in the Digital Humanities The main thesis of this book is on Digital Humanities in precarious times while also reporting on topics and research methods in a variety of Humanities subject fields Digital Humanities is a dynamic multidisciplinary interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary field that encompasses a wide array of disciplines methodologies and approaches It represents a fusion of computational methods with humanistic inquiry leveraging technology to explore and analyse various facets of human culture society and history At its core this field's nature allows scholars from diverse backgrounds including literature history linguistics cultural studies and more to collaborate and engage in innovative research projects that transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries All the chapters in this book represent a scholarly discourse and provide original research they are based on different methodologies ranging from an interdisciplinary approach a philosophical desk study case studies qualitative studies and a semi structured survey

Kishō Kurokawa Kishō Kurokawa, Stephen Dobney, 1995 THE MASTER ARCHITECT SERIES is a series of monographs on some of the greatest architects and architectural firms of our time Each monograph will contain 256 pages displaying several hundred color photographs drawings sketches and renderings Although primarily a pictorial essay the books will contain selected projects described in concise detail along with a critique or overview of the firm a resume of the partners and a comprehensive bibliography VAN GOGH MUSEUM ARCHITECTURE. Hans Ibelings, 1999 May 1999 marked the official opening of Japanese architect Kisho Kurokawa's extension to Amsterdam's Van Gogh Museum This book uses photographs by Jannes Linders to provide an extensive documentation of Kurokawa's addition to Rietveld Van Dillen Van Tricht's museum Also detailed is the meticulous renovation of the existing building by Martien Van Goor of Greiner and Van Goor In an introductory essay Hans Ibelings analyzes the design of the museum and its extension and considers this undertaking the first by Kurokawa in the Netherlands within the context of recent major Dutch architecture projects

Cultural Anthropology Jack David Eller, 2020-05-10 Cultural Anthropology Global Forces Local Lives is an exceptionally clear and readable introduction that helps students understand the application of anthropological concepts to the contemporary world and everyday life It provides thorough treatment of key subjects such as colonialism and post

colonialism ethnicity the environment cultural change economic development and globalization This fourth edition has a fresh thematic focus on the future with material relating to planning decision making design and invention hope and waiting More space is devoted to contemporary topics and there is new coverage of subjects ranging from white nationalism right wing populism and natural disasters to surgical training hacker conferences and the gig economy Each chapter contains a rich variety of case studies that have been updated throughout The book includes a number of features to support student learning including A wealth of color images Definitions of key terms and further reading suggestions in the margins Questions for discussion review and boxed summaries at the end of every chapter An extensive glossary bibliography and index Additional resources are provided via a comprehensive companion website This is Not Architecture Kester Rattenbury, 2005-08-04 This is Not Architecture assembles architectural writers of different kinds historians theorists journalists computer game designers technologists film makers and architects to discuss the characteristics cultures limitations and bias of the different kinds of media and to build up an argument as to how this complex culture of representations is constructed 'City of the Future' Mateusz Laszczkowski, 2016-08-01 Astana the capital city of the post Soviet Kazakhstan has often been admired for the design and planning of its futuristic cityscape This anthropological study of the development of the city focuses on every day practices official ideologies and representations alongside the memories and dreams of the city's longstanding residents and recent migrants Critically examining a range of approaches to place and space in anthropology geography and other disciplines the book argues for an understanding of space as inextricably material and imaginary and unceasingly dynamic allowing for a plurality of incompatible pasts and futures materialized in spatial form Designing Emerging Markets Giaime Botti, 2023-05-22 This book offers a unique glance into the process of globalisation of the architectural practice during the last three decades through the lenses of innovative methodologies in architectural history based on quantitative data Focusing on the golden age of globalisation 1990 2019 it investigates the transnational work of more than one thousand architectural firms of different business models from Europe North America and the Asia Pacific in a broad sample of emerging markets Mainland China South East Asia India the Persian Gulf Sub Saharan Africa Russia and Kazakhstan and Latin America In the book different thematic geographies are presented to explore the global scope of the contemporary profession examine significant projects and the structural conditions behind them and reveal the debates that such works generated Understanding the global agency of design firms in emerging markets also becomes a way to study different market conditions modes of production and architectural trends comparatively and to highlight the shifts that occurred in the profession over the last few decades The use of quantitative methodologies produces a novel and updated narrative on contemporary architecture in emerging markets grounded in quantitative data rather than in preassumptions and purely qualitative interpretations Richly illustrated this book is further enhanced by an ample set of maps graphs and tables to visualise data better Ethnographies of the State in Central Asia Madeleine

Reeves, Johan Rasanayagam, Judith Beyer, 2014-01-10 With fresh and provocative insights into the everyday reality of politics in post Soviet Central Asia this volume moves beyond commonplaces about strong and weak states to ask critical questions about how democracy authority and justice are understood in this important region In conversation with current theories of state power the contributions draw on extensive ethnographic research in settings that range from the local to the transnational the mundane to the spectacular to provide a unique perspective on how politics is performed in everyday life
