Rosenberg, 2008-10-01 In this fascinating interdisciplinary book Shawn W. Rosenberg challenges two basic assumptions that orient much contemporary social scientific thinking Offering theory and empirical research he rejects the classic liberal view that people share a basic common sense or rationality At the same time he questions the view of contemporary social theory that meaning is simply an intersubjective or cultural product Through in depth interviews Rosenberg explores the underlying logic of cognition Rather than discovering a common sense or rationality he finds that people reason in fundamentally different ways and these differences affect the kind of understandings they craft and the evaluations they make As a result people actively reconstruct culturally prevalent meanings and norms in their own subjective terms Rosenberg provides a comprehensive description of three types of socio political reasoning and the full text of three exemplary interviews Rosenberg's findings help explain such puzzling social phenomena as why people do not learn even when it is to their advantage to do so or why they fail to adapt to changed social conditions even when they have clear information and motivation The author argues that this kind of failure is commonplace and discusses examples ranging from the crisis of modernity to the classroom performance of university students Building on the ideas of Jean Piaget George Herbert Mead and Jurgen Habermas Rosenberg offers a new orienting vision structural pragmatics to account for these social phenomena and his own research in cognition In the concluding chapter he discusses the implications of his work for the study of social cognition political behavior and democratic theory DIV DIV The Book of Kisses William Cane,1993-01-15 Here are more than 600 of the most passionate romantic outlandish and wonderful classic and contemporary quotations on the intimate art of kissing The author of The Art of Kissing delivers quotes from such luminaries as Bette Davis Errol Flynn Kim Basinger Burt Reynolds Ingrid Bergman Kevin Costner Marilyn Monroe and William Shakespeare Line drawings Завдання для самостійної роботи з англійської мови за професійним спрямуванням.
