MARATHON JOHN HERBERT,2013-11-08 The young man steps on the cinders and flies around the track He s unaware that one has to learn how to fall before he can fly And when he tumbles anger enters his life and his journey begins It s all about speed The Kid is fast so very very fast And anger is his motivation She says that love is the answer Coaches and friends agree and help him to fulfill his enormous talent But love becomes secondary to the anger that takes control of his spirit both on and off the track And hate is its inseparable companion The runner is all alone And in his time of despair only love stays by his side for support The question is Can love defeat anger hate despair intolerable pain and The Other Maybe For he is the one who is born to run Song of Songs J. Cheryl Exum,2005-01-01 This original commentary foregrounds at every turn the poetic genius of the Song of Songs one of the most elusive texts of the Hebrew Bible J Cheryl Exum locates that genius in the way the Song not only tells but shows its readers that love is strong as death thereby immortalizing love as well as in the way the poet explores the nature of love by a mature sensitivity to how being in love is different for the woman and the man Many long standing conundrums in the interpretation of the book are offered persuasive solutions in Exum s verse by verse exegesis The Old Testament Library provides fresh and authoritative treatments of important aspects of Old Testament study through commentaries and general surveys The contributors are scholars of international standing Around the Campfire Peter, Paul, and Mary (Musical group),1998

Sensing the Future Nancy Perloff,Michelle Kuo,2024-09-24 In the 1960s and 70s collaborations between artists and engineers led to groundbreaking innovations in multisensory performance art that continue to resonate today In 1966 Billy Kliver and Fred Waldhauer engineers at Bell Labs in Murray Hill New Jersey teamed up with artists Robert Rauschenberg and Robert Whitman to form a nonprofit organization Experiments in Art and Technology E A T E A T s debut event 9 Evenings Theatre Engineering integrated art theater and groundbreaking technology in a series of performances at the 69th Regiment Armory in Manhattan Its second major event the Pepsi Pavilion at Expo 70 in Osaka Japan presented a multisensory environment for the first world exposition held in Asia At these events and in the hundreds of collaborations E A T facilitated in between the participants including John Cage Lucinda Childs Deborah Hay Steve Paxton Yvonne Rainer and David Tudor imagined innovative ways for art and science to intersect and enrich society Sensing the Future tells the story of these collaborations between artists and engineers and how they led to new installations and technology based artworks Through the examination of films photographs diagrams and artists records from the E A T archive at the Getty Research Institute this volume provides a new perspective on multimedia art in the 1960s and 70s and highlights the ways E A T pushed the role of the artist beyond the traditional art world Metaphors of Anger, Pride, and Love Zoltán Kövecses,1986-01-01 This study is an attempt to uncover the structure of three emotion concepts anger pride and love The results indicate that the conceptual structure associated with these emotions consists of four parts 1 a system of metaphors 2 a system of metonymies 3 a system of related concepts and 4 a category of cognitive models with a prototypical model in the center This goes against an influential view of the structure of concepts in linguistics psychology anthropology according to which the structure of a concept can be represented by a small number of sense components Emotion Concepts Zoltan Kövecses,2012-12-06 This chapter briefly describes the general goals of the book introduces the most fundamental features of the methodology that is employed to achieve these goals and gives an outline of the structure of the book A more detailed account of the goals and methodology is presented in chapters 2 and 3 respectively What the Book Is About The main objective of this study is to attempt to answer the question How do people understand their emotions As we shall see in the next chapter a large number of scholars have tried to provide answers to this question The interest in the way people understand their emotions has led scholars to the issue of the nature of emotion concepts and emotional meaning Since the notion of understanding involves or presupposes the notions of concept and meaning it was only natural for scholars with an interest in the way people understand their emotions to turn their attention to emotion concepts and the meaning associated with emotion terms So the broader issue has often become more specific For example Davitz in his The Language of Emotion formulated the central question in the following way What does a person mean when he says someone is happy or angry or sad Davitz 1969 1 God at the Improv Anthony J. Petrotta,2020-12-17 Asking if there is humor in any religious text might seem blasphemous to many readers Religious texts are there to instruct us not entertain us Religious texts are serious works not frivolous However if part of being human entails having a sense of humor then it would be more surprising indeed for Scripture not to have humor Humor instructs us as much as it entertains us God at the Improv seeks to show that being religious and being humorous are not opposites but actually work in tandem to enhance and enliven our faith and practice Five-Mountain Morning William Bridges,2005 In his second memoir Five Mountain Morning teacher and writer William Bridges describes a life that has stretched from the Army in postwar Germany to journalism around the world to archaeology on a remote island in the North Atlantic This book follows Under the Heaven Tree a childhood memoir that a critic says did what we all should do not only recall our lost lives and loved ones from oblivion but also see ourselves as links in a long chain of being that reaches dimly backward and brightly forward In Five Mountain Morning Bridges writes about lost loves marriage and children a writer's life travels and encounters with people ranging from a woman who named her cat for a Kentucky Derby winner to actress Marlene Dietrich Bridges is a storyteller and poet whose work has been called both beautifully crafted and never far removed from the daily course of things The Daily Ukulele: Leap Year Edition for
