Islamic Philosophy of Religion J. I. Laliwala, 2005      Words of Ecstasy in Sufism Carl W. Ernst, 1985-06-30. This is the first in-depth study in English of the import and impact of ecstatic utterances (shathiyat) in classical Islamic mysticism. It makes available an important body of mystical aphorisms and reveals not only the significance of these sayings in the Sufi tradition but also explains their controversial impact on Islamic law and society. This study describes the development and interpretation of shathiyat in classical Sufism and analyzes the principal themes and rhetorical styles of these sayings using as a basis the authoritative Commentary on Ecstatic Sayings by Ruzbihan Baqli of Shiraz The special topic of mystical faith and infidelity receives particular emphasis as a type of ecstatic expression that self reflectively meditates on the inadequacy of language to describe mystical experience The social impact of ecstatic sayings is clarified by an analysis of the political causes of Sufi heresy trials Nuri Hallaj and Ayn al Qudat and the later elaboration of Sufi martyrologies This study also examines the attitudes of Islamic legal scholars toward shathiyat and concludes with a comparison of Sufi ecstatic expressions with other types of inspired speech

Takfir in Islamic Thought Hussam S. Timani, 2017-11-08 This book provides an overview of the theological views on takfir in classical and medieval Islamic thought explores the Islamic context of the concept and considers the following questions In what context does the term appear in the Qur'an and adiths the sayings of the Prophet Muhammad In what circumstances did Muslim theologians engage in takfir and what were the social religious theological and political implications on the society How did the meaning of takfir evolve in classical and later Islamic theology and what justifications did prominent medieval Muslim theologians and jurists provide for declaring other Muslims kuffar This book attempts to demonstrate how takfir has evolved throughout the centuries from being a term used to condemn and warn against unacceptable actions to a term used on individuals and communities to strip them of their belief dignity and linkage to the Divine i.e. declaring them unbelievers This book also attempts to shed the light on how the theological discourse on takfir in classical and medieval Islam has made its impact on twentieth and twenty first century groups
