Arnold McMillin, 2021-06-15 This book first published in 2000 features analyses about and by some of the most important Russian writers of the 1980s a period of great changes in the cultural life of Russia when the controls of Soviet communism gave way to a wide diversity of unfettered writing A variety of critical approaches matches the diversity of Russian writers considered here The book features David Bethea's theoretical discussion of the work of the outstanding critic and scholar Iurii Lotman and a fascinating extending interview with leading poet Olga Sedakova Several writers and works receive their first scholarly analyses in English such as Sasha Sokolov's complex postmodern novel Between Dog and Wolf Elena Shvarts's poetry and Zinovii Zinik's work Aleksandr Zinov'ev's prose is subjected to a searching formal analysis The book contains an essay on the literary environment of the Moscow poet Mikhail Aizenberg and a highly controversial article that reviews Russian writing as an extension of imperialism Writers who for various reasons fell into opprobrium during the 1980s include the Soviet village writers and the late Andrei Siniavskii Abram Tertz A survey of urban prose in the late 1980s looks into an uncertain future while playwright Viktor Slavkin represents the best of contemporary Russian drama The Poetry and Poetics of Olga Sedakova

Stephanie Sandler, Maria Khotimsky, Margarita Krimmel, Oleg Novikov, 2019-02-12 Olga Sedakova stands out among contemporary Russian poets for the integrity erudition intellectual force and moral courage of her writing After years of flourishing quietly in the late Soviet underground she has increasingly brought her considered voice into public debates to speak out for freedom of belief and for those who have been treated unjustly This volume the first collection of scholarly essays to treat her work in English assesses her contributions as a poet and as a thinker presenting far reaching accounts of broad themes and patterns of thought across her writings as well as close readings of individual texts Essayists from Russia Ukraine Germany Italy and the United States show how Sedakova has contributed to ongoing aesthetic and cultural debates Like Sedakova's own work the volume affirms the capacity of words to convey meaning and to change our understanding of life itself The volume also includes dozens of elegant new translations of Sedakova's poems

Internationalist Aesthetics Edward Tyerman, 2021-12-07 Winner 2022 AATSEEL Best Book in Literary Studies American Association of Teachers of Slavic and European Languages Honorable Mention 2022 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies Modern Language Association Following the failure of communist revolutions in Europe in the 1920s the Soviet Union turned its attention to fostering anticolonial uprisings in Asia China divided politically between rival military factions and dominated economically by imperial powers emerged as the Comintern's prime target At the same time a host of prominent figures in Soviet literature film and theater traveled to China met with Chinese students in Moscow and placed contemporary China on the new Soviet stage They sought to reimagine the relationship with China in the terms of socialist internationalism and in the process determine how internationalism was supposed to look and feel in practice Internationalist Aesthetics offers a groundbreaking account of the crucial role that China played in the early Soviet cultural imagination Edward Tyerman tracks how China became the key site for Soviet debates over how the political project of socialist internationalism should be mediated represented and produced The central figure in this story the avant garde writer Sergei Tretiakov journeyed to Beijing in the 1920s and experimented with innovative documentary forms in an attempt to foster a new sense of connection between Chinese and Soviet citizens Reading across genres and media from reportage and biography to ballet and documentary film Tyerman shows how Soviet culture sought an aesthetics that could foster a sense of internationalist community He reveals both the aspirations and the limitations of this project illuminating a crucial chapter in Sino Russian relations Grounded in extensive sources in Russian and Chinese this cultural history bridges Slavic and East Asian studies and offers new insight into the transnational dynamics that shaped socialist aesthetics and politics in both countries consciousness as a colonial power shaped its artistic cultural and national identity as a heterogenous multi ethnic empire It also explores the extent to which cultural practitioners participated in the discursive matrices that advanced Russia s colonial machinery on the one hand and critiqued and challenged it on the other especially in territories that were themselves on the fault lines between the east and the west
