New Thought and Religious Science insights into the mystics pointers on treatment and analysis of our fears and insecurities Founder of the worldwide Religious Science movement formulator of the Science of Mind philosophy and author of metaphysical bestsellers Dr Holmes continually sought to simplify his teaching and get people to use it In these pages he speaks directly to you in a one on one tutorial The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship Chinese Asianism, 1894-1945 Craig A. Smith,2022-03-07 Chinese Asianism examines Chinese intellectual discussions of East Asian solidarity analyzing them in connection with Chinese nationalism and Sino Japanese relations Beginning with texts written after the first Sino Japanese War of 1894 and concluding with Wang Jingwei s failed government in World War II Craig Smith engages with a period in which the Chinese empire had crumbled and intellectuals were struggling to adapt to imperialism new and hegemonic forms of government and radically different epistemes He considers a wide range of writings that show the depth of the pre war discourse on Asianism and the influence it had on the rise of nationalism in China Asianism was a call for Asian unity Smith finds but advocates of a united and connected Asia based on racial or civilizational commonalities also utilized the packaging of Asia for their own agendas to the extent that efforts towards international regionalism spurred the construction of Chinese nationalism Asianism shaped Chinese ideas of nation and region often by translating and interpreting Japanese perspectives and leaving behind a legacy in the concepts and terms that persist in the twenty first century As China plays a central role in regional East Asian development Asianism is once again of great importance today
