Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-08 The Sicilian Blade II: the Teachings of Don Giuseppe Quattrocchi Vito Quattrocchi,2005-07 Learning the art and philosophy of the ancient and mysterious discipline of Sicilian stiletto dueling Maestro Vito Quattrocchi relates the history of his training in rural Sicily in the early 1970 s under the tutelage of his grandfather Don Giuseppe Quattrocchi Between Heaven and Earth Robert A. Orsi,2013-10-31 Between Heaven and Earth explores the relationships men women and children have formed with the Virgin Mary and the saints in twentieth century American Catholic history and reflects more broadly on how people live in the company of sacred figures and how these relationships shape the ties between people on earth In this boldly argued and beautifully written book Robert Orsi also considers how scholars of religion occupy the ground in between belief and analysis faith and scholarship Orsi infuses his analysis with an autobiographical voice steeped in his own Italian American Catholic background from the devotion of his uncle Sal who had cerebral palsy to a crippled saint Margaret of Castello to the bond of his Tuscan grandmother with Saint Gemma Galgani Religion exists not as a medium of making meanings Orsi maintains but as a network of relationships between heaven and earth involving people of all ages as well as the many sacred figures they hold dear Orsi argues that modern academic theorizing about religion has long sanctioned dubious distinctions between good or real religious expression on the one hand and bad or bogus religion on the other which marginalize these everyday relationships with sacred figures This book is a brilliant critical inquiry into the lives that people make for better or worse between heaven and earth and into the ways scholars of religion could better study of these worlds Fabulous New Orleans Lyle Saxon,1928 This book is rather like a Mardi Gras parade a series of impressions Each chapter is like a decorated car which tells a story Some of the stories are brave and courageous others are informative or amusing or bizarre or fantastic or cruel but they are all interlocking stories a pageant of a city I have not attempted to write history in its strict sense although the main events of the French Spanish and American Dominations are outlined and several chapters on the new New Orleans have been added from Introduction Thank You, St. Jude Robert A. Orsi,1996-01-01 The prize winning story of American women's devotion to St Jude the patron saint of hopeless causes Robert Orsi examines St Jude's rise to national popularity beginning in Chicago in 1929 when the daughters and granddaughters of Catholic immigrants called on the saint to help them during the tumultuous years of depression war and changing family lives 14 illustrations Journey Without a Map Donna Caruso, 2008 Even as generations pass the pride of being Italian is in the genes of those who were raised in Italian immigrant families Caruso's Journey Without A Map appropriately begins with pasta cooking instructions and from that point the aroma of tomatoes olives and red wine are never far from the stories she weaves of herself and the impact of her family Whether making connections between her Uncle Nick's nose and her Roman ancestors or detailing the daily rituals of her shepherdess mother on the Italian hillsides Caruso relays the information in broad colourful strokes that are at once both inviting and humorous With her earliest recollections of her family life in New Jersey her father's grocery store her mother's Catholic admonishments the death of Santa Clause the family habits and the ever present smells from the kitchen brings to us her sense of belonging to a rich heritage But Caruso's journal and journey are not all feel good romanticized Italian immigrant experience There are those reflections on her mother's life that are as beautiful and intense as they are revealing the portraits of her extended family members that stand outside the warmth of family love and the tensions that develop when families are separated by geography and dreams And though the wisdom of her father and mother guides her through her growing years it would have to be their remembered love that guides Caruso through her own darkest hours of breast cancer and family break up As generations of North Americans move farther away from their immigrant experience and origins Caruso's Journey Without A Map conveys that in our increasingly homogenized cultural world what may best nourish us in our needs shape us in our identities and be our strength when we are weakest is our family's heritage and love
