

Milestones: Age 6 Months

Social-Emotional

- Knows familiar people
- Likes to look at self in a mirror
- Laughs

Communication

- Takes turns making sounds with you
- Blows "raspberries" (sticks tongue out and blows)
- Makes squealing noises

Cognitive

(problem solving, learning, thinking)

- Puts things in her mouth to explore them
- Reaches to grab a toy she wants
- Closes lips to show she doesn't want more food

Movement

(physical development)

- Rolls from tummy to back
- Pushes up with straight arms when on tummy
- Leans on hands to support herself when sitting

Things to do at home:

- Use "back and forth" play with your baby. When your baby smiles, you smile; when he makes sounds, you copy them. This helps him learn to be social.
- "Read" to your baby every day by looking at colorful pictures in magazines or books and talk about them. Respond to her when she babbles and "reads" too. For example, if she makes sounds, say "Yes, that's the doggy!"
- Point out new things to your baby and name them. For example, when on a walk, point out cars, trees, and animals.

D'Aoust, Alicia Gill Rossiter, 2021-11-08 Of the approximately 20 million veterans of the U S armed forces less than half utilize the Veteran's Health Administration health care system. That means the majority of veterans are receiving care from nurses and healthcare professionals who may not be trained in treating or caring for patients who have served in the military. This unique book guides nurses and healthcare professionals through the specific set of needs veterans can present including but not limited to PTSD. Topics covered include defining military culture and how to apply that knowledge to provide informed treatment transitioning from service to civilian life and the many challenges expected during re adjustment and re entry recognizing and treating substance use disorders identifying suicidal behaviors and warning signs long term care for elderly veterans and many more topics unique to the healthcare of veterans. Maternal and Child Health Nursing Adele

Pillitteri, 2013-11-25 Adele Pillitteri aims to ensure that today's students have a technical understanding without losing the importance of compassion in their role as a nurse. The text presents pediatrics and maternity as a continuum of knowledge taking a holistic approach and viewing maternity and pediatric content as a family event. The text links theory closely with application that helps students gain a deeper understanding of content and be better prepared to practice in their careers.
