The Politics of Traumatic Literature Önder Çakırtaş, Şahin Kızıldaş, Antolin C. Trinidad, 2018-10-29 This book is a collection of essays offering an inside view into the inner analysis of traumatic literary studies wherein language is used as a medium of expression so as to interpret man psyche and memory By making literature the partner of a dialogue with psychology in order to better comprehend the psyche it serves to alter the way of understanding the literary phenomenon Featuring relevant coverage on topics such as literary production psychology in literature identity and traumatic studies this book provides in depth analysis that is suitable for academicians students professionals and researchers interested in discovering more about the relationship between psychology and literature and their effects on thinking

Merleau-Ponty Patricia M. Locke, Rachel McCann, 2016-01-25 Phenomenology has played a decisive role in the emergence of the discourse of place now indispensable to many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and the contribution of Merleau Ponty s thought to architectural theory and practice is well established Merleau Ponty Space Place Architecture is a vibrant collection of original essays by twelve eminent philosophers who mine Merleau Ponty s work to consider how we live and create as profoundly spatial beings The resulting collection is essential to philosophers and creative artists as well as those concerned with the pressing ethical issues of our time Each contributor presents a different facet of space place or architecture These essays carve paths from Merleau Ponty to other thinkers such as Irigaray Deleuze Ettinger and Piaget As the first collection devoted specifically to developing Merleau Ponty s contribution to our understanding of place and architecture this book will speak to philosophers interested in the problem of space architectural theorists and a wide range of others in the arts and design community Contributors Nancy Barta Smith Edward S Casey Helen Fielding Lisa Guenther Galen A Johnson Randall Johnson D R Koukal Suzanne Cataldi Laba Patricia M Locke Glen Mazis Rachel McCann David Morris and Dorothea Olkowski

Phenomenological Perspectives on Shame William S. Hamrick, 2024-10-12 This book utilizes Maurice Merleau Ponty s fascinating philosophy of embodiment to cast further light on the incredibly rich and complex phenomenon of shame The philosopher himself made only scattered references to shame but both his early phenomenology and his later phenomenological ontology do provide unique illumination of the phenomenon The book demonstrates how Merleau Ponty s work is relevant to those of certain other thinkers in the analytic tradition

Hopkins and Heidegger Brian Willems, 2011-10-27 Hopkins and Heidegger is a new exploration of Gerard Manley Hopkins poetics through the work of Martin Heidegger More radically Brian Willems argues that the work of Hopkins does no less than propose solutions to a number of hitherto unresolved questions regarding Heidegger's later writings vitalizing the concepts of both writers beyond their local contexts Willems examines a number of cross sections between the poetry and thought of Hopkins and the philosophy of Heidegger While neither writer ever directly addressed the other's work Hopkins died the year Heidegger was born 1899 and Heidegger never turns his thoughts on poetry to the Victorians a number of similarities between the two have been noted but never fleshed out Willems readings of these cross sections are centred on Hopkins concepts of inscape and instress and around Heidegger's reading of both appropriation Ereignis and the fourfold das Geviert This study will be of interest to scholars and postgraduates in both Victorian literature and Continental philosophy Citizens and borderwork in contemporary Europe Chris Rumford, 2013-10-31 The extent to which ordinary people can construct shift and dismantle borders is seriously neglected in the existing literature The book explores the ability of citizens to participate in the making of borders and the empowerment that can result from this bordering and debordering activity Borderwork is the name given to the ways in which ordinary people can make and unmake borders Borderwork is no longer only the business of nation states it is also the business of citizens and indeed non citizens This study of borderwork extends the recent interest in forms of bordering which do not necessarily occur at the state's external borders However the changing nature of borders cannot be reduced to a shift from the edges to the interior of a polity To date little research has been conducted on the role of ordinary people in envisioning constructing maintaining shifting and erasing borders creating borders which facilitate mobility for some while creating barriers to mobility for others appropriating the political resources which bordering offers contesting the legitimacy of or undermining the borders imposed by others This book makes an original contribution to the literature and stands to set the agenda for a new dimension of border studies This book was published as a special issue of Space and Polity Facing the Other Nigel Zimmermann, 2016-03-31 What is the significance of the body What might phenomenology contribute to a theological account of the body And what is gained by prolonging the overlooked dialogue between St John Paul II and Emmanuel Levinas Nigel Zimmermann answers these questions through the agreements and the tensions between two of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century John Paul II the Polish pope philosopher and theologian and Emmanuel Levinas the French Jewish philosopher of Lithuanian heritage were provocative thinkers who courageously faced and challenged the assumptions of their age Both held the human person in high regard and did their thinking with constant reference to God and to theological language Zimmermann does not shirk from the challenges of each thinker and does not hide their differences However he shows how they bequeath a legacy regarding the body that we would overlook at significant ethical peril We are called Zimmermann argues to face the other In this moment God refuses a banal marginalisation and our call to responsibility for the other person is issued in their disarming vulnerability In the body philosophy theology and ethics converge to call us to glory even in the paradox of lowly suffering Lived Religion - Conceptual, Empirical and Practical-Theological Approaches Heinz Streib, 2008-03-31 Lived religion signifies a shift of focus in order to attend to the religiosity of individuals and groups as embedded in the contexts of life worlds. It suggests fresh attention to the body to perception to experience to everyday life and to biography. The essays in this collection gravitate around the concept of lived religion honoring the contributions of Hans G nter Heimbrock in which he suggests this conceptual framework for understanding practical theology and religious education and for designing empirical research in theology. The contributions embrace a broad spectrum and include empirical studies exegetical and historical investigations contributions on practical theology as well as on the theory and practice of religious education inviting further reflection and discussion about lived religion. Curriculum and the Life Erratic Leslie B.

Nissen, 2013-10-30 Curriculum and the Life Erratic The Geographic Cure lays bare the untold damage done to children who are forced to endure the toxic combination of fermented parenting as author Leslie Nissen has termed it and frequent family moves at the hands of alcoholic parents who perpetually seek the elusive Geographic Cure. While such parents deceive themselves that in the next new place sobriety will prevail their children know better. Alcoholics who chronically uproot their families for a fresh start usually carry along every reason to drink. For the school age children of such cure seeking alcoholics the torment of life with a volatile unpredictable and chronically intoxicated parent is intensified by the anguish of being the new kid who changes schools at the whim of the parent. Highly mobile children bearing an alarmingly long list of prior schools may be part of a group which Nissen calls Geographic Cure Children whose chances of finding help are nearly non-existent despite their acute need for care. The dilemma of this unique subset of Children of Alcoholics is examined via autobiographical psychoanalytic and fictional lenses. Nissen also recounts her own urge to hit the road when diagnosed with cancer and explores the Geographic Cure writ large observing how the current testing frenzy and clamor for cures for low test scores dominate educational policy. Could teachers panic about accountability cause them to resent new students who appear at their classroom doors mid year. Is education encumbered because at the hands of policy makers educators are working the Life Erratic. The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd, 2014-04-28 We live in an age of global capitalism and terror. In a climate of consumption and fear the unknown Other is regarded as a threat to our safety a client to assist or a competitor to be overcome in the struggle for scarce resources. And yet the Christian Scriptures explicitly summon us to welcome strangers to care for the widow and the orphan and to build relationships with those distant from us. But how in this world of hostility and commodification do we practice hospitality. In The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd engages deeply with the influential thought of French thinkers Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and argues that a true vision of hospitality is ultimately found not in postmodern philosophies but in the Christian narrative. The book offers a compelling Trinitarian account of the God of hospitality a God of communion who makes room for otherness who overcomes the hostility of the world through Jesus' life, death and resurrection and who through the work of the Spirit is forming a new community the Church a people of welcome. Guilt and Shame Jenny Chamarette, 2010 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects Praying to a French God Kenneth Jason Wardley, 2016-04-08 As a phenomenologist Lacoste is concerned with investigating the human aptitude for experience as a theologian Lacoste is interested in humanity's potential for a relationship with the divine what he terms the liturgical relationship Beginning from the proposition that prayer is a theme that occurs throughout Lacoste's writing and using this proposition as a heuristic through which to view interpret and critique his thought this book examines Lacoste's place amid both the recent theological turn in French thought and the post war emergence of la nouvelle thologie Drawing upon unpublished and out of print material previously only available in French Romanian or German the book will be of interest to scholars of philosophy phenomenology and theology Giving Beyond the Gift Elliot R. Wolfson, 2014-02-03 This book explores the co dependency of monotheism and idolatry by examining the thought of several prominent twentieth century Jewish philosophers Cohen Buber Rosenzweig and Levinas While all of these thinkers were keenly aware of the pitfalls of scriptural theism to differing degrees they each succumbed to the temptation to personify transcendence even as they tried either to circumvent or to restrain it by apophatically purging kataphatic descriptions of the deity Derrida and Wyschogrod by contrast carried the project of denegation one step further embarking on a path that culminated in the aporetic suspension of belief and the consequent removal of all images from God a move that seriously compromises the viability of devotional piety The inquiry into apophasis transcendence and immanence in these Jewish thinkers is symptomatic of a larger question Recent attempts to harness the apophatic tradition to construct a viable postmodern negative theology a religion without religion are not radical enough Not only are these philosophies of transcendence guilty of a turn to theology that defies the phenomenological presupposition of an immanent phenomenality but they fall short on their own terms inasmuch as they persist in employing metaphorical language that personalizes transcendence and thereby runs the risk of undermining the irreducible alterity and invisibility attributed to the transcendent other The logic of apophasis if permitted to run its course fully would exceed the need to posit some form of transcendence that is not ultimately a facet of immanence Apophatic theologies accordingly must be supplanted by a more far reaching apophasis that surpasses the theolatrous impulse lying coiled at the crux of theism an apophasis of apophasis based on accepting an absolute nothingness to be distinguished from the nothingness of an absolute that does not signify the unknowable One but rather the manifold that is the pleromatic abyss at being's core Hence the much celebrated metaphor of the gift must give way to the more neutral and less theologically charged notion of an unconditional givenness in which the distinction between giver and given collapses To think givenness in its most elemental phenomenological sense is to allow the apparent to appear as given without presuming a causal agency that would turn that given into a gift American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly , 2005 Intertwinings Michael Staudigl, Barbara Weber, Karel Novotný, 2024-12-17 This anthology offers a comprehensive introduction to the contemporary phenomenologist James R Mensch exploring his oeuvre and thought Mensch's extensive body of work spans several decades often concretely engaging with three intersecting conditions of dialogue Alterity Intersubjectivity and Embodiment By intertwining these concepts Mensch exposes the ever threatening soliloquy of modern reason calling upon us to deconstruct the conflation of human freedom with sovereignty that figures at the core of Western political thought and practice The contributors to this book pick up these themes and explore the fragility and potentiality of our conceptions of discourse dialogue and the political Moreover and in applying Mensch's idea of a post foundational phenomenology this anthology honors Mensch's expansive work which spans key thinkers such as Husserl Levinas Merleau Ponty and Pato ka and delves into subjects ranging from perception and time to ethics and ecology The volume is meant for students and researchers and explores these three interwoven conditions in various ways Phenomenological Inquiry ,2007 Ethics, Politics, and Democracy Jose V. Ciprut, 2008 Examines change in the normative underpinnings of both ancient and modern practices of political governance public duties and personal responsibilities The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Bibliographie de la philosophie International Institute of Philosophy, 2004
