Processes of displacement where people's place attachments are violently torn asunder are also considered. Ranging from oral history to forensic anthropology from folklore studies to cultural geographies and beyond the chapters in this Handbook reveal multiple and often unexpected facets of the fascinating relationship between place and memory from the individual to the collective. This is a multi and intra disciplinary collection of the latest most influential approaches to the interwoven and dynamic issues of place and memory. It will be of great use to researchers and academics working across Geography Tourism Heritage Anthropology Memory Studies and Archaeology.

Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge Micaela di Leonardo, 2023-09-01. Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge brings feminist anthropology up to date highlighting the theoretical sophistication that characterizes recent research. Twelve essays by outstanding scholars written with the volume's concerns specifically in mind range across the broadest anthropological terrain assessing and contributing to feminist work on biological anthropology primate studies global economy new reproductive technologies ethno linguistics race and gender and more. The editor's introduction not only sets two decades of feminist anthropological work in the multiple contexts of changes in anthropological theory and practice political and economic developments and larger intellectual shifts but also lays out the central insights feminist anthropology has to offer us in the postmodern era. The profound issues raised by the authors resonate with the basic interests of any discipline concerned with gender that is all of the social sciences and humanities. Gender at the Crossroads of Knowledge brings feminist anthropology up to date highlighting the theoretical sophistication that characterizes recent research. Getting to Grips with BIM James Harty, Tahar Kouider, Graham Paterson, 2015-12-14. With the UK government's 2016 BIM threshold approaching support for small organisations on interpreting filtering and applying BIM protocols and standards is urgently required. Many small UK construction industry supply chain firms are uncertain about what Level 2 BIM involves and are unsure about taking first steps towards having BIM capability. As digitisation increasingly impacts on work practices Getting to Grips with BIM offers an insight into an industry in change supplemented by practical guidance on managing the transition towards more widespread and integrated use of digital tools to manage the design construction and whole life use of buildings. The Teaching American History Project, Film & Video Finder, 1997 Chinese

Cooperative-Harmonious Democracy Zongchao Peng, Ben Ma, Taoxiong Liu, 2016-12-01. After several decades of reform and opening up China has come to a critical period of transformation and development. How to improve the development strategies to effectively promote China's democratic politics has once again attracted the world's attention. This book compares the commons and differences between western and Chinese theories and practices of democracy model and proposes a new democracy model for China's political reform cooperative harmonious democracy. Absorbing the core values of democracy this model draws on Chinese traditional harmony and cooperation and people oriented thought as well as modern cooperative game theory More importantly it adopts the new model to analyse some present practice cases in China involving intra party democracy electoral democracy and deliberative democracy This book is a valuable theoretical innovation and a significant achievement in promoting the interdisciplinary research of political science and public management It strategically reflects on how to promote the development of cooperative harmonious democracy from the perspective of high level design The policy suggestions it proposed will be a valuable reference for policy makers
