High Society Bachelor:

The Age of the Bachelor Howard P. Chudacoff, 2020-12-08 In this engaging new book Howard Chudacoff describes a special and fascinating world the urban bachelor life that took shape in the late nineteenth century when a significant population of single men migrated to American cities Rejecting the restraints and dependence of the nineteenth century family bachelors found sustenance and camaraderie in the boarding houses saloons pool halls cafes clubs and other institutions that arose in response to their increasing numbers Richly illustrated anecdotal and including a unique analysis of The National Police Gazette the most outrageous and popular men s publication of the late nineteenth and the early twentieth century this book is the first to describe a complex subculture that continues to affect the larger meanings of manhood and manliness in American society The figure of the bachelor with its emphasis on pleasure self indulgence and public entertainment was easily converted by the burgeoning consumer culture at the turn of the century into an ambiguously appealing image of masculinity Finding an easy reception in an atmosphere of insecurity about manhood that image has outdistanced the circumstances in which it began to flourish and far outlasted the bachelor culture that produced it Thus the idea of the bachelor has retained its somewhat negative but alluring connotations throughout the rest of the twentieth century Chudacoff s concluding chapter discusses the contemporary singles scene now developing as the number of single people in urban centers is again increasing By seeing bachelorhood as a stage in life for many and a permanent status for some Chudacoff recalls a lifestyle that had a profound impact on society evoking fear disdain repugnance and at the same time a sense of romance excitement and freedom The book contributes to gender history family history urban history and the study of consumer culture and will appeal to anyone curious about American history and anxious to acquire a new view of a sometimes forgotten but still influential aspect of our national past Bachelor Not For Sale Cheryl

Bosom Friends Thomas J. Balcerski,2019-08-02 The friendship of the bachelor politicians James Buchanan 1791 1868 of Pennsylvania and William Rufus King 1786 1853 of Alabama has excited much speculation through the years Why did neither marry Might they have been gay Or was their relationship a nineteenth century version of the modern day bromance In Bosom Friends The Intimate World of James Buchanan and William Rufus King Thomas J Balcerski explores the lives of these two politicians and discovers one of the most significant collaborations in American political history He traces the parallels in the men's personal and professional lives before elected office including their failed romantic courtships and the stories they told about them Unlikely companions from the start they lived together as congressional messmates in a Washington DC boardinghouse and became close confidantes Around the nation's capital the men were mocked for their effeminacy and perhaps their sexuality and they were likened to Siamese twins Over time their intimate friendship blossomed into a significant cross sectional political partnership Balcerski examines Buchanan's and King's contributions to the Jacksonian political agenda manifest destiny and the increasingly divisive debates over slavery while contesting interpretations that the men lacked political principles and deserved blame for the breakdown of the union He closely narrates each man's rise to national prominence as William Rufus King was elected vice president in 1852 and James Buchanan the nation's fifteenth president in 1856 despite the political gossip that circulated about them While exploring a same sex relationship that powerfully shaped national events in the antebellum era Bosom Friends demonstrates that intimate male friendships among politicians were and continue to be an important part of success in American politics
