Reflecting with God Abigail Johnson, 2004-03-01 Untangling the day to day issues in our multifaceted lives can seem daunting Time to sit quietly and reflect is rare If we are fortunate we have good friends or close family members with whom to talk things through and find clarity but many times we feel isolated and lonely As people of faith we add another layer to our reflections when we wonder where God fits into our lives In a broad sense theological reflection happens any time that we wonder about God our faith our beliefs and our values In this book however Abigail Johnson offers a structured process for engaging in theological reflection by looking at a situation or event through a series of questions These questions are designed to help individuals and small groups think through situations with the eyes of faith Johnson provides detailed instructions for group facilitators making this book a valuable resource for any theological reflection leader She demonstrates how theological reflection will enrich the faith life of the individual and increase group members sense of belonging to God and to the whole people of God She also shows how small groups engaging in theological reflection affects the ongoing life of a congregation particularly in the community s worship and the members practice of spiritual disciplines

To Serve and Protect Judith A. Kowalski, 1992 Personal stories that offer glimpses into how the Christian faith of law enforcement officers affect their daily work The officers and spouses who were interviewed talk about how the spiritual dimension of their work is intimately entwined with the concrete situations they encounter every day and how their tasks as law enforcement officers can be seen as ministry

Scattering Seed in Teaching Brian G. Pickerd, 2016-02-02 Jesus calls each of us to live in a way that gives the Father glory shares his love with everyone around us and reflects the life of Jesus He invites us to scatter seed Scattering seed can be a challenge though especially in our public lives our professional lives and volunteer lives Those of us called to teach in some way feel the challenge deeply We seek to share knowledge experiences and life lessons with a broad and varied group of people and do it in a way that shares Christ's love. Often life curriculum challenges and student chemistry threaten to derail our best laid plans. When this happens it's easy to be distracted from our purpose or even to forget that our life calling is the same as our calling to teach. Scattering Seed in Teaching is about returning to that call or perhaps connecting with it for the first time. It shares stories, interviews, and observations of teachers and students learning about scattering seed. It connects with biblical reminders and encourages us as teachers to reflect on and remember that underlying our professional call to teach is our life call; they are one and the same to scatter seed. The Teacher's Calling Gloria Durka, 2002 Affirms the role of teachers as ministers of personal and social transformation and helps readers celebrate the mystery and wonders of a teacher's calling. Meditations for Teachers Stephen Kaufmann, 2011 Lessons From The Classroom Alton Royer Ph.D., 2023-08-31 While working with students, their parents, and with colleagues, I noticed God is always at work. In many casual conversations, I was encouraged by the number of colleagues that stated their dependence on God for guidance. These short devotions are intended as an encouragement to educators beginning their school day to draw attention to the activities of the Holy Spirit in their life and work activities. It is my prayer the reader will identify with many of these devotions and be reminded of the Holy Spirit's activity in their lives. Truth Is Fallen in the Street Jay Jusino, 2018-06-05 Parents send their children to school and students attend school with the expectation that they will receive knowledge and that this knowledge will be the key to unlocking their future potential. The Bible teaches clearly that it is the fear of the Lord that is the beginning of knowledge. Prov 1:7 As such, acknowledgement of God is fundamental to any and all knowledge-based pedagogy. To teach academic subjects apart from Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, 1 Co 2:3 is to fundamentally disconnect the world we all see and live in from the One it was created by and for. In this work, the Christian teacher in the public setting is challenged to re-examine his/her fundamental pedagogical approach in light of the premise of Proverbs 1:7 and Colossians 2:3. Christians as Teachers Geoffrey Beech, 2015-12-04 How does teaching Christianly differ from other forms of teaching? How might a Christian teach in a biblical way some commonplace set of facts from a mandated secular curriculum? This book considers what a biblical approach to teaching may involve as it emerges from a biblically grounded life and what that might look like in the classroom. Rather than speaking of integration of faith and learning, it starts from a foundation of Christ, the Truth and Lord of all, and moves to the development of a framework for classroom practice that includes a need to try to see things from God's perspective. All truly Christian education is seen therefore as a profoundly biblical pursuit leading to the revelation of God. To do this, the book explores the underlying theology and principles out of which our education should flow. These principles then allow us to examine such areas as the consideration of a Christian way to teach subjects such as geography and mathematics or even what might be distinctive about the way a Christian teacher may do something as mundane as picking up a pencil. Education Through Christian Eyes Deborah Stephens

Davis,2021-04-12 Teacher are your tired overwhelmed discouraged or frustrated You are not alone You have a very real God who has called you to a very difficult task He wants you to find rest strength encouragement and peace in Him He is waiting to revive and renew you to fulfill His purpose This book is based on the Gospel of John and is designed to help you see the spiritual value of what you are doing Go Ye and Teach Kendall Albright,2011-07
