King Fishers Road:

King Fisher Chuck Parsons, Thomas C. Bicknell, 2022-07-15 America's Wild West created an untold number of notorious characters and in southwestern Texas John King Fisher 1855 1884 was foremost among them To friends and foes alike he insisted he be called King Standing over six feet tall a dark and handsome man King often dressed as a frontier dandy A Texas Ranger remembered King as wearing an ornamented Mexican sombrero a black Mexican jacket embroidered with gold a crimson sash and boots with two silver plated ivory handled revolvers swinging from his belt Early in life King fell victim to bad influences After a stint in Huntsville Prison as a teenager he found a home in the tough sun beaten Nueces Strip a lawless land between the Nueces River and the Rio Grande There he gathered a gang of rustlers around him at his ranch on Pendencia Creek For a decade King and his gang raided both sides of the Rio Grande shooting down any who opposed them Newspapers claimed King avoided the penalties prescribed by law by killing potential witnesses in spite of many charges he was never convicted of cattle or horse stealing or murder King's reign ended when he was arrested by Texas Ranger Captain Leander McNelly In no uncertain terms he advised Fisher to change his ways Having emerged victorious in gunfights with outlaws from across the Rio Grande King Fisher chose a life style which would prove to be just as dangerous deputy sheriff of Uvalde County Now he would enforce the law with his badge as well as his six shooter But his hard won respectability would not last On a spring night in 1884 King made the mistake of accompanying the truly notorious gambler and gunfighter Ben Thompson on a tour of San Antonio where several years prior over a gambling dispute Thompson shot down Jack Harris at the latter's saloon and theater the Vaudeville Recklessly King Fisher accompanied Thompson back to the theater to call upon Harris's former partners Warned of their coming assassins were waiting Within minutes of entering the theater when the smoke cleared Fisher was stretched out beside Thompson dead from thirteen gunshot wounds Texas Pistoleers G.R. Williamson, 2010-08-31 The Vaudeville Theater Ambush of 1884 went down in history as one of the most famous gunfights in San Antonio but the killing that night of Ben Thompson and John King Fisher two of the most notorious pistoleers of the day became something of a mystery The two men entered the theatre just before midnight on March 11 and less than an hour later both lay dead shot down in what for all accounts was a true massacre The responsible gunmen never were prosecuted for their crimes and Thompson and Fisher a mere mention of either man's name was enough to put the fear of death in any opponent have been widely ignored since Now historian G R Williamson brings to light the mystery and the myths surrounding these men and their infamous deaths in Texas Pistoleers Catalog of Copyright Entries.
