of the Golden River John Ruskin, 1903 The King of the Golden River John Ruskin, 1910 The King of the Golden River, by John Ruskin John Ruskin, 1888 The King of the Golden River (Illustrated) John Ruskin, 2019-04-21 The richness of the Treasure Valley high in the mountains of Stiria is lost through the evil of the owners the two elder Black Brothers Hans and Schwartz who in their foolishness mistreat Southwest Wind Esquire who in turn floods their valley washing away their liquid assets and turning their valley into a dead valley of red sand Forced into a trade other than farming Hans and Schwartz become goldsmiths They cruelly melt their younger brother Gluck s prize heirloom a golden mug This action releases the King of the Golden River for Gluck to pour out of the crucible as a finely dressed little golden dwarf The dwarfish king offers a proposition to brothers if someone were to climb up to the source of the Golden River high in the mountains and throw into it at least three drops of holy water it would become for that person only a river of gold That person must do it on his first and only attempt or be overwhelmed by the river to become a black stone The King of the Golden River John

The King of the Golden River John Ruskin, 2015-10-29 The King of the Golden River by John Ruskin The King of the Golden River or The Black Brothers A Legend of Stiria by John Ruskin was originally written in 1841 for the twelve year old Effie Euphemia Gray whom Ruskin later married It was published in book form in 1851 and became an early Victorian classic which sold out three editions In the Advertisement to the First Edition which prefaces it it is called a fairy tale one it might be added that illustrates the triumph of love kindness and goodness over evil however it could also be characterized as a fable a fabricated origin myth and a parable It was illustrated with 22 illustrations by Richard Doyle 1824 83 The richness of the Treasure Valley high in the mountains of Stiria or Styria southeastern Austria is lost through the evil of the owners the two elder Black Brothers Hans and Schwartz who in their foolishness mistreat Southwest Wind Esquire who in turn floods their valley washing away their liquid assets and turning their valley into a dead valley of red sand This personified wind has the power to keep things this way through his influence with other winds that had caused the valley s unique fertility Forced into a trade other than farming Hans and Schwartz become goldsmiths They cruelly melt their younger brother Gluck s prize heirloom a golden mug which consists of the head of a golden bearded man This action releases the King of the Golden River for Gluck to pour out of the crucible as a finely dressed little golden dwarf The Golden River is one of the high mountain cataracts that surround the Treasure Valley Gluck fancies that it would be good if that high majestic river would actually be what it appears in the setting sun a river of gold The dwarfish king disagrees with Gluck but offers a proposition if someone were to climb up to the source of the river and throw into it at least three drops of holy water it would become for that person only a river of gold That person must do it on his first and only attempt or be overwhelmed by the river to become a black stone

The King of the Golden River John Ruskin,2020-03-28 A fairy tale of what happened to two men who tried to get rich in evil ways and of how the fortune they sought came to their younger brother whose kind and loving heart prompted him to right action Widely regarded as a masterpiece of 19th century stories for children In a secluded and mountainous part of Stiria there was in old time a valley of the most surprising and luxuriant fertility It was surrounded on all sides by steep and rocky mountains rising into peaks which were always covered with snow and from which a number of torrents descended in constant cataracts One of these fell westward over the face of a crag so high that when the sun had set to everything else and all below was darkness his beams still shone full upon this waterfall so that it looked like a shower of gold It was therefore called by the people of the neighbourhood the Golden River It was strange that none of these streams fell into the valley itself They all descended on the other side of the mountains and wound away through broad plains and by populous cities But the clouds were drawn so constantly to the snowy hills and rested so softly in the circular hollow that in time of drought and heat when all the country round was burnt up there was still rain in the little valley and its crops were so heavy and its hay so high and its apples so red and its grapes so blue and its wine so rich and its honey so sweet that it was a marvel to every one who beheld it and was commonly called the Treasure Valley
