Gilbert, Catherine R. Gilbert, 2015-11-19 Persuasively tells the savage partisan war in the Carolina backcountry during the Southern Campaign of the American Revolution Military Review Following their defeat at Saratoga in New York in 1777 the British decided to implement a southern strategy against the American insurgents a plan to roll up the rebellious colonies from Georgia through the Carolinas to Virginia Untrained Patriot militiamen occasionally stiffened by contingents of the Continental Line were pitted against Britain's Cherokee and Creek allies and Loyalist militia and British regulars led by Gen Cornwallis and his two ablest subordinates Patrick Ferguson and the ruthless Banastre Bloody Ban Tarleton In October 1780 the Loyalist militia was virtually destroyed at King's Mountain Other defeats at Blackstock's Farm and Cowpens and a pyrrhic victory at Guilford Courthouse gutted the British southern army and drove Cornwallis north to encirclement and surrender at Yorktown This study uses battlefield terrain analysis and the words of the officers and common soldiers from pension records and little known interviews to bring to life the crucial role of one militia regiment the Second Spartans of South Carolina that fought in virtually every action of the vicious backcountry war that decided the fate of America Or as one private in the Second Spartans said expressing admiration for his colonel a few Brave Men stood true for the cause of liberty A serious book for those with a serious interest in the southern campaigns of the Revolutionary War Many thanks to the Gilberts for shedding new light on the role of the Second Spartan Regiment War in History      Thomas Hill Green and the Development of Liberal-Democratic Thought I. M. Greengarten,1981-12-15 Thomas Hill Green 1836 1882 was a leading British philosopher and political figure and founder of the school of British Idealism which displaced the philosophy of Bentham and John Stuart Mill as the dominant tradition in British universities from 1880 into the twentieth century Greengarten presents a detailed analysis of Green s thought including his theories of political obligation property self realization and human nature and developed the necessary tools for an analysis of Green s work and the tradition of liberal democratic thought He finds in Green a view of human nature and human potentialities which is in striking contract to the views of earlier liberal thinkers and remarkably similar to that of Marx despite Green s clear and often passionate defence of capitalism and market freedom His concept of human nature is of a divided self contradictory nature his theory of the true good is of a good that is to be shared a common good that is not attainable through the selfish pursuit of private goods his vision of the good society foresees the elimination of poverty and the establishment of a classless society wherein all members would have equal opportunity to develop and realize their potential This book offers a fresh perspective on Green and raises issues of importance in the field of social and political theory      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ,1883      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ... George Peabody Library,1887
