Himes, John A. Williams, 2008 A revealing collection of correspondence between Chester Himes and John A Williams two prominent twentieth century African American novelists Chester Himes and John A Williams met in 1961 as Himes was on the cusp of transcontinental celebrity and Williams sixteen years his junior was just beginning his writing career Both men would go on to receive international acclaim for their work including Himes's Harlem detective novels featuring Grave Digger Jones and Coffin Ed Johnson and Williams's major novels The Man Who Cried I Am Captain Blackman and Clifford's Blues Dear Chester Dear John is a landmark collection of correspondence between these two friends presenting nearly three decades worth of letters about their lives and loves their professional and personal challenges and their reflections on society in the United States and abroad Prepared by John A Williams and his wife Lori Williams this collection contains rare and personal glimpses into the lives of Williams and Himes between 1962 and 1987 As the writers find increasing professional success and recognition they share candid assessments of each others work and also discuss the numerous pitfalls they faced as African American writers in the publishing world The letters offer a window into Himes's and Williams's personalities as the elder writer reveals his notoriously difficult and suspicious streak and Williams betrays both immense affection and frustration in dealing with his old friend Despite several rifts in their relationship Williams's concern for Himes's failing health ensured that the two kept in touch until Himes's death Dear Chester Dear John is a heartfelt and informative collection that allows readers to step behind the scenes of a lifelong friendship between two important literary figures. Students and teachers of African American literature will enjoy this one-of-a-kind volume.

To Redeem the Soul of America Adam Fairclough, 2001 To Redeem the Soul of America looks beyond the towering figure of Martin Luther King Jr to disclose the full workings of the organization that supported him. As Adam Fairclough reveals the dynamics within the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, he shows how Julian Bond, Jesse Jackson, Wyatt Walker, Andrew Young, and others also played a hand in the triumphs of Selma and Birmingham and the frustrations of Albany and Chicago. Joining a charismatic leader with an inspired group of activists, the SCLC built a bridge from the black proletariat to the white liberal elite and then finally to the halls of Congress and the White House.

BOOK JACKET

Re-Membering and Surviving Shirley A. James Hanshaw, 2020-10-01 The first book-length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath, this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture. It focuses on four novels: Captain Blackman (1972) by John A. Williams, Tragic Magic (1978) by Wesley Brown, Coming Home (1971) by George Davis, and De Mojo Blues (1985) by A. R. Flowers. Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought. The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory. He is engaged therefore in re-membering, a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival. The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero's empathy with and compassion for the so-called enemy, a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature.

Martin Luther King Jr., Heroism, and African American Literature Trudier Harris, 2014-11-15 Defiance of the law uses of indirection moral lapses and bad habits are as much a part of the folk transmitted biography of King as they are a part of writers' depictions of him in literary texts Harris first demonstrates that during the Black Arts Movement of the 1960s when writers such as Nikki Giovanni Sonia Sanchez and LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka were rising stars in African American poetry King's philosophy of nonviolence was out of step with prevailing notions of militancy Black Power and their literature reflected that division In the quieter times of the 1970s and 1980s and into the twenty first century however treatments of King and his philosophy in African American literature changed Writers who initially rejected him and nonviolence became ardent admirers and boosters particularly in the years following his assassination By the 1980s many writers skeptical about King had reevaluated him and began to address him as a fallen hero
