Egyptian Legends and Stories

M. V. Seton-Williams,1999 A collection of legends fables songs and prayers from ancient Egyptian texts Leaves from the Garden of Eden ,2010-09-23

In Leaves from the Garden of Eden Howard Schwartz a three time winner of the National Jewish Book Award has gathered together one hundred of the most astonishing and luminous stories from Jewish folk tradition Just as Schwartz s award winning book Tree of Souls collected the essential myths of Jewish tradition Leaves from the Garden of Eden collects one hundred essential Jewish tales As imaginative as the Arabian Nights these stories invoke enchanted worlds demonic realms and mystical experiences The four most popular types of Jewish tales are gathered here fairy tales folktales supernatural tales and mystical tales taking readers on heavenly journeys lifelong quests and descents to the underworld There is a dybbuk lurking in a well a book that comes to life and a world where Lilith the Queen of Demons seduces the unsuspecting Here too are Jewish versions of many of the best known tales including Cinderella Snow White and Rapunzel Schwartz s retelling of one of these stories The Finger inspired Tim Burton s film Corpse Bride Ancient Historiography on War and Empire Timothy Howe,Sabine Müller,Richard Stoneman,2016-11-30

In the ancient Greek speaking world writing about the past meant balancing the reporting of facts with shaping and guiding the political interests and behaviours of the present Ancient Historiography on War and Empire shows the ways in which the literary genre of writing history developed to guide empires through their wars Taking key events from the Achaemenid Persian Athenian Macedonian and Roman empires the 17 essays collected here analyse the way events and the accounts of those events interact Subjects include how Greek historians assign nearly divine honours to the Persian King the role of the tomb cult of Cyrus the Founder in historical narratives of conquest and empire from Herodotus to the Alexander historians warfare and financial innovation in the age of Philip II and his son Alexander the Great the murders of Philip II his last and seventh wife Kleopatra and her guardian Attalos Alexander the Great s combat use of eagle symbolism and divination Plutarch s juxtaposition of character in the Alexander Caesar pairing as a commentary on political legitimacy and military prowess and Roman Imperial historians using historical examples of good and bad rule to make meaningful challenges to current Roman authority In some cases the balance shifts more towards the literary and in others more towards the historical but what all of the essays have in common is both a critical attention to the genre and context of history writing in the ancient world and its focus on war and empire

Omm Sety's Living Egypt

Omm Sety,2008 A special connection with ancient Egypt drew Omm Sety to Egypt where she studied with the great Egyptologists Selim Hassan and Ahmed Fakhry For more than four decades she made her home in the shadow of the Great Pyramid of Giza and in the mudbrick village surrounding the Temple of Sety I at Abydos For her there was no separation between ancient and modern Egypt Pictures on tomb walls illustrated the games children played in the streets in front of her house The texts she translated from the temple walls shed light on the origins of the social customs of her Egyptian neighbors For another four decades this book which deserves to be called Omm Sety's life work remained hidden away Now Nicole B Hansen an Egyptologist who specializes in connections between ancient and modern Egypt brings this work to light in an annotated edition with extensive notes and bibliography illustrated with Omm Sety's own drawings It features a foreword by Kent R Weeks who rediscovered KV5 in the Valley of the Kings and an introduction by Walter A Fairervis the late director of the Hierakonpolis Project For Egyptologists this book includes explanations of texts from the Pyramid Texts to Herodotus as well as ancient Egyptian art For anthropologists it represents the results of a lifetime of unbridled participant observation during which Omm Sety used folk treatments to cure her ills and agreed to serve as a medium for a spirit during a magic ritual For those interested in Omm Sety herself this book provides new insights into her life the people she knew and the places she lived

Prophets, Gods and Kings in Sirat Sayf ibn Dhī Yazan Helen Blatherwick, 2016-05-09 This book is a literary intertextual study of an Egyptian popular epic In this innovative study Helen Blatherwick investigates how various sources including Islamic q al anbiy tales of the prophets Pharaonic Graeco Roman and Coptic Egyptian myths and narratives and recensions of the Alexander Romance function as intertexts within S rat Sayf Blatherwick argues that these intertexts are deployed as narrative devices which are readily recognisable to the story's audience and that they are significant carriers of meaning and theme Crucially these intertexts also interact within S rat Sayf to bring a conceptual continuity to its discussion of kingship and society that stretches from this late medieval epic back to ancient Egyptian narratives
