Shakespeare and the World of "Slings & Arrows" Gary Kuchar, 2024-10-15 Slings Arrows starring Susan Coyne Paul Gross Don McKellar and Mark McKinney as members of the New Burbage Theatre Festival was heralded by television critics as one of the best shows ever produced and one of the finest depictions of life in classical theatre Shakespeare scholars however have been ambivalent about the series at times even hostile In Shakespeare and the World of Slings Arrows Gary Kuchar situates the three season series in its cultural and intellectual contexts More than a roman clef about Canada's Stratford Festival he shows it is a privileged window onto major debates within Shakespeare studies and a drama that raises vital questions about the role of the arts in society Kuchar reads the television show ever fluctuating between faith and doubt in the power of drama as an allegory of Peter Brook's widely renowned account of modern theatre The Empty Space mirroring Brook's distinction between holy theatre a quasi sacred vocation and deadly theatre a momentary entertainment Combining contextualized interpretations of the series with subtle formalist readings Kuchar explains how Slings Arrows participates in a broader recuperation of humanist approaches to Shakespeare in contemporary scholarship The result is a demonstration of how and why Shakespeare continues to provide not just entertainment but equipment for living
