Kinshasa Tales Of The Invisible City:

Kinshasa Filip De Boeck, Marie-Françoise Plissart, 2014-03-24 Reading African cities into contemporary theory reprint of a richly illustrated reference work In their internationally acclaimed publication Kinshasa Tales of the Invisible City anthropologist Filip De Boeck and photographer Marie Fran oise Plissart provide a history not only of the physical and visible urban reality that Kinshasa presents today but also of a second invisible city as it exists in the mind and imagination of its inhabitants They bring to light a mirroring reality lurking underneath the surface of the visible world and explore the constant transactions that take place between these two levels in Kinshasa s urban scape With the exhibition that accompanied the release of their Kinshasa book the authors won a Golden Lion at the 11th International Architecture Biennale in Venice 2004 This beautifully illustrated publication is now again made available Based on longstanding field research it provides insight into local social and cultural imaginaries and thus in the imaginative ways in which local urban subjects continue to make sense of their worlds and invent cultural strategies to cope with the breakdown of urban infrastructure

The Road to Knowledge Piet Lombaerde, Marc Muylle, 2010 ADS is currently in its tenth year and preparing to publish its 20th issue This jubilee issue is wholly devoted to the doctorates being awarded to young researchers and professors associated with the Faculty Association of Design Sciences at the University College of Antwerp It comprises a wide range of topics all embedded in the specific study programmes of the various fields associated with the Faculty Association of Design Sciences University College of Antwerp Book Jacket

Phenomenologies of the City Henriette Steiner, Maximilian Sternberg, 2016-03-09 Phenomenologies of the City Studies in the History and Philosophy of Architecture brings architecture and urbanism into dialogue with phenomenology Phenomenology has informed debate about the city from social sciences to cultural studies Within architecture however phenomenological inquiry has been neglecting the question of the city Addressing this lacuna this book suggests that the city presents not only the richest but also the politically most urgent horizon of reference for philosophical reflection on the cultural and ethical dimensions of architecture The contributors to this volume are architects and scholars of urbanism Some have backgrounds in literature history religious studies and art history The book features 16 chapters by younger scholars as well as established thinkers including Peter Carl David Leatherbarrow Alberto P rez Gomez Wendy Pullan and Dalibor Vesely Rather than developing a single theoretical statement the book addresses architecture s relationship with the city in a wide range of historical and contemporary contexts The chapters trace hidden genealogies and explore the ruptures as much as the persistence of recurrent cultural motifs Together these interconnected phenomenologies of the city raise simple but fundamental questions What is the city for how is it ordered and how can it be understood The book does not advocate a return to a naive sense of unity or order Rather it investigates how architecture can generate meaning and forge as well as contest social and cultural representations

Taming the Disorderly City Martin J. Murray, 2017-08-31 In postapartheid Johannesburg tensions of race and class manifest themselves starkly in struggles over rights to the city Real estate developers and the very poor fight for control of space as the municipal administration steps aside almost powerless to shape the direction of change Having ceded control of development to the private sector the Johannesburg city government has all but abandoned residential planning to the unpredictability of market forces This failure to plan for the civic good and the resulting confusion is a perfect example of the entrepreneurial approaches to urban governance that are sweeping much of the Global South as well as the cities of the North Martin J Murray brings together a wide range of urban theory and local knowledge to draw a nuanced portrait of contemporary Johannesburg In Taming the Disorderly City he provides a focused intellectual and political critique of the often ambivalent urban dynamics that have emerged after the end of apartheid Exploring the behaviors of the rich and poor each empowered in their own way as they rebuild a new Johannesburg we see the entrepreneurial city high rises shopping districts and gated communities surrounded by and intermingled with poverty In graceful prose Murray offers a compelling portrait of the everyday lives of the urban poor as seen through the lens of real estate capitalism and revitalization efforts

No Place Like Home in a New City Bettina Ng'weno, 2025 Nairobi named after the cool water that flows through it started as a railway stop and became known as the Green City in the Sun Yet the city has taken shape through a set of anti urban ideologies and practices that insist that some people cannot should not and must not be permanent urban residents and that the city is not their home Based on decades of experience in rapidly changing Nairobi No Place Like Home in the New City traverses rivers cemeteries parks railways housing estates roads and dancehalls to explore how policies of anti urbanism manifest across time and space shaping how people live in Nairobi With deeply personal insights Bettina Ng weno highlights how people contest anti urbanism through their insistence on building life in the city despite it even in the current dynamic of ubiquitous demolition and reconstruction Through quotidian practices and creative resistance long term residents imagine alternatives to displacement create belonging and build new urban futures

Postcolonial African Cities Fassil Demissie, 2013-09-13 The book focuses on contemporary African cities caught in the contradiction of an imperial past and postcolonial present The essays explore the cultural role of colonial architecture and urbanism in the production of meanings in the inscription of power and discipline as well as in the dynamic construction of identities It is in these new dense urban spaces with all their contradictions that urban Africans are reworking their local identities building families and creating autonomous communities made fragile by neo liberal states in a globalizing world The book offers a range of scholarly interpretations of the new forms of urbanity It engages with issues themes and topics including colonial legacies postcolonial intersections cosmopolitan spaces urban reconfigurations and migration which are at the heart of the continuing debate about the trajectory of contemporary African cities The collection discusses contemporary African cities as diverse as Dar Es Salaam Dakar Johannesburg Lagos and Kinshasa offering new insights into the current state of postcolonial African cities This was previously published as a special issue of African Identities City Life from

Jakarta to Dakar AbdouMalik Simone,2010-01-27 By showing how much of what is considered peripheral to urban life is actually critical to it the book opens up new ways for understanding what it is possible to do in cities from now on

Deleuze and the City Helene Frichot,2016-01-27 Defining the lives of a majority of the world's population the question of the city has risen to the fore as one of the most urgent issues of our time uniting concerns across the terrain of climate policies global financing localised struggles and multi disciplinary research Deleuze and the City rests on a conviction that philosophy is crucially important for advancing knowledge on cities and for allowing us to envisage new forms of urban life toward a more sustainable future It gathers some of the most original thinkers and accomplished scholars in contemporary urban studies showing how Deleuze and Guattari's philosophical project is essential for our thinking through the multi scalar uneven and contested landscapes that constitute the city today Case studies range from the laboratory urbanism of an Austrian ski resort and a sustainable Swedish shopping mall to the urbicidal refurbishments of Haifa

The Sacred in the City Liliana Gómez,Walter Van Herck,2012-02-09 This book reflects the way in which the city interacts with the sacred in all its many guises with religion and the human search for meaning in life As the process of urbanization of society is accelerating thus giving an increasing importance to cities and the metropolis it is relevant to investigate the social or cultural cohesion that these urban agglomerations manifest Religion is keenly observed as witnessing a growth crucially impacting cultural and political dynamics as well as determining the emergence of new sacred symbols and their inscription in urban spaces worldwide The sacred has become an important category of a new interpretation of social and cultural transformation processes From a unique broader perspective the volume focuses on the relationship between the city and the sacred Taking a multidisciplinary approach combining the expertise of philosophers historians architects social geographers sociologists and anthropologists it draws a nuanced picture of the different layers of religion of the sacred and its diverse forms within the city with examples from Europe South America and the Caribbean and Africa

African Cities

Professor Garth Myers, 2011-04-14 In this groundbreaking book Garth Myers uses African urban concepts and experiences to speak back to theoretical and practical concerns He argues for a re-visioning a seeing again and a revising of how cities in Africa are discussed and written about in both urban studies and African studies Cities in Africa are still either ignored banished to a different other lesser category of not quite cities or held up as examples of all that can go wrong with urbanism in much of the mainstream and even critical urban literature Myers instead encourages African studies and urban studies scholars across the world to engage with the vibrancy and complexity of African cities with fresh eyes Touching on a diverse range of cities across Africa from Zanzibar to Nairobi Cape Town to Mogadishu Kinshasa to Dakar the book uses the author's own research and a close reading of works by other scholars writers and artists to help illuminate what is happening in and across the region's cities

For the City Yet to Come Abdou Malqalim Simone, 2004-10-07 A study of how colonial and postcolonial legacies manifest in African cities and African urban planning

To be at Home James Williams, Felicitas Hentschke, 2018-09-24 Houses and homes are dynamic spaces within which people work to organize and secure their lives livelihoods and relationships Written by a team of renowned historians and anthropologists and accompanied by original photography by Maurice Weiss To Be at Home House Work and Self in the Modern World compares the ways people in different societies and historical periods strive to make and keep houses and homes under conditions of change upheaval displacement impoverishment and violence These conditions speak to the challenges of life in our modern world The contributors of this volume position the home as a new nodal point between work the self and the world to explore people's creativity agency and labour Houses and homes prove complex and powerful concepts if also often elusive invoking places persons objects emotions values attachments and fantasies This book demonstrates how the relations between houses work and the self have transformed dramatically and unpredictably under conditions of capitalism and modernity and continue to change today

Heterotopia and the City Michiel Dehaene, Lieven De Caeter, 2008-05-15 Heterotopia literally meaning other place is a rich concept in urban design that describes a space that is on the margins of ordered or civil society and one that possesses multiple fragmented or even incompatible meanings The term has had an impact on architectural and urban theory since it was coined by Foucault in the late 1960s but it has remained a source of confusion and debate since Heterotopia and the City seeks to clarify this concept and investigates the heterotopias which exist throughout our contemporary world in museums theme parks malls holiday resorts gated communities wellness hotels and festival markets With theoretical contributions on the concept of heterotopia including a new translation of Foucault's influential 1967 text Of Other Space and essays by well known scholars the book comprises a series of critical case studies from Beaubourg to Bilbao which probe a range of post urban transformations and which redirect the debate on the privatization of public space Wastelands and terrains vagues are studied in detail in a section on urban activism and transgression and the reader gets a glimpse of the extremes of our dualized postcivil condition through case studies on Jakarta Dubai and Kinshasa Heterotopia and the City provides a collective effort to reposition heterotopia as a crucial concept for contemporary urban theory The book will be of interest to all those wishing to understand the city in the emerging postcivil society and post historical era Planners architects cultural theorists urbanists and academics will find this a valuable contribution to current critical argument

The Global Horizon Knut Graw, Joska Samuli Schielke, 2012 Although contemporary migration in and from Africa can be understood as a continuation of earlier forms of interregional and international migration current processes of migration seem to have taken on a new quality This volume argues that one of the main reasons for this is the fact that local worlds are increasingly measured against a set of possibilities whose referents are global not local Due to this globalization of the personal and societal horizons of possibilities in Africa and elsewhere in many contexts migration gains an almost inevitable attraction while at the same time actual migration becomes increasingly restricted Based on detailed ethnographic accounts the contributors to this volume focus on the imaginations expectations and motivations that propel the pursuit of migration Decentering the focus of much of migration studies on the receiving societies the volume foregrounds the subjective aspect of migration and explores the impact which the imagination and practice of migration have on the sociocultural conditions of the various local settings concerned Practicing Sufism

Abdelmajid Hannoum, 2016-07-15 Islam in Africa is deeply connected with Sufism and the history of Islam is in a significant way a history of Sufism Yet even within this continent the practice and role of Sufism varies across the regions This interdisciplinary volume brings together histories and experiences of Sufism in various parts of Africa offering case studies on several countries that include Morocco Algeria Senegal Egypt Sudan Mali and Nigeria It uses a variety of methodologies ranging from the hermeneutical through historiographic to ethnographic in a comprehensive examination of the politics and performance of Sufism in Africa While the politics of Sufism pertains largely to historical and textual analysis to highlight paradigms of sanctity in different geographical areas in Africa the aspect of performance adopts a decidedly ethnographic approach combining history history of art and discourse analysis Together analysis of these two aspects reveals the many faces of Sufism that have remained hitherto hidden Furthering understanding of the African Islamic religious scene as well as contributing to the study of Sufism worldwide this volume is of key interest to students and scholars of Middle Eastern African and Islamic studies Congo Style Ruth Sacks, 2023-07-25 Congo Style presents a postcolonial approach to discussing the visual culture of two now notorious regimes King Leopold II's Congo Colony and the state sites of Mobutu Sese Seko's totalitarian Zaïre Readers are brought into the living remains of sites once made up of ambitious modernist architecture and art in Kinshasa Democratic Republic of the Congo From the total artworks of Art Nouveau to the aggrandizing sites of post independence Kinshasa Congo Style investigates the experiential qualities of man made environments intended to entertain delight seduce and impress In her study of visual culture Ruth Sacks sets out to reinstate the compelling wonder of nationalist architecture from Kinshasa's post independence era such as the Tower of the Exchange 1974 Gamines Tower 1977 and the artworks and exhibitions that accompanied them While exploring post independence nation building this book examines how the underlying ideology of Belgian Art Nouveau a celebrated movement in Belgium led to the dominating early colonial settler buildings of the ABC Hotels circa 1908-13 Congo Style combines Sacks's practice as a visual artist and her academic scholarship to provide an original study of early colonial and independence era modernist sites in their African context A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy, Michael Lambek, 2015-12-14

A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today s world
