Kitab Bahriye:

Tunisia in the Kitab-i Bahriye by Piri Reis Piri Reis, Svatopluk Soucek, 1976 The Sultan's Fleet Christine Isom-Verhaaren, 2021-12-02 While the Ottoman Empire is most often recognized today as a land power for four centuries the seas of the Eastern Mediterranean were dominated by the Ottoman Navy Yet to date little is known about the seafarers who made up the sultan's fleet the men whose naval mastery ensured that an empire from North Africa to Black Sea expanded and was protected allowing global trading networks to flourish in the face of piracy and the Sublime Porte's wars with the Italian city states and continental European powers In this book Christine Isom Verhaaren provides a history of the major events and engagements of the navy from its origins as the fleets of Anatolian Turkish beyliks to major turning points such as the Battle of Lepanto But the book also puts together a picture of the structure of the Ottoman navy as an institution revealing the personal stories of the North African corsairs and Greek sailors recruited as admirals Rich in detail drawn from a variety of sources the book provides a comprehensive account of the Ottoman Navy the forgotten contingent in the empire's period of supremacy from the 14th century to the 18th century

Geographical Knowledge and Imperial Culture in the Early Modern Ottoman Empire Pinar Emiralioğlu, 2016-12-05 Exploring the reasons for a flurry of geographical works in the Ottoman Empire in the sixteenth century this study analyzes how cartographers travellers astrologers historians and naval captains promoted their vision of the world and the centrality of the Ottoman Empire in it It proposes a new case study for the interconnections among empires in the period demonstrating how the Ottoman Empire shared political cultural economic and even religious conceptual frameworks with contemporary and previous world empires

Medieval Islamic Civilization: A-K, index Josef W. Meri, 2006 Publisher description

The Cambridge History of Turkey: Volume 2, The Ottoman Empire as a World Power, 1453-1603 Suraiya N. Faruqi, Kate Fleet, 2012-11-12 Volume 2 of The Cambridge History of Turkey examines the period from the conquest of Constantinople in 1453 to the accession of Ahmed I in 1603 During this period the Ottoman Empire moved into a new phase of expansion emerging in the sixteenth century as a dominant political player on the world scene With territory stretching around the Mediterranean from the Adriatic Sea to Morocco and from the Caucasus to the Caspian Sea the Ottomans reached the apogee of their military might in a period seen by many later Ottomans and historians as a golden age in which the state was strong the sultan's might unquestionable and intellectual life and the arts flourishing In this volume leading scholars assess the considerable expansion of Ottoman power and effervescence of the Ottoman intellectual and cultural world They also investigate the challenges that faced the Ottoman state particularly in the later period as the empire experienced economic crises revolts and drawn out wars Creating the Mediterranean Tarek Kahlaoui, 2018-01-16 In Creating the Mediterranean Maps and the Islamic Imagination Tarek Kahlaoui treats the subject of the Islamic visual representations of the Mediterranean It tracks the history of the Islamic visualization of the sea from when geography was created by the Islamic state's bureaucrats of the tenth century C E located mainly in the central Islamic lands to the later men of the field specifically the sea captains from the fourteenth to the sixteenth centuries C E located in the western Islamic lands A narrative has emerged from this investigation in which the metamorphosis of the identity of the author or mapmaker seemed to be changing with the rest of the elements that constitute the identity of a map its reader or viewer its style and structure and its textual content Other Routes Tabish Khair, 2006 The collection includes pilgrimage accounts which describe a national circuit as in Lady Nijo's c 1280 or Sei Shonagon's c 990 accounts or move across vast regions to places of learning and pilgrimage or to a particular centre of religious cultural significance the early Chinese travellers to India in the fifth sixth and seventh centuries the Hajj pilgrimage of Ibn Jubayr in the 12th century Blyden's Africanist Christian pilgrimage to the Holy Land in the 19th century These pilgrimage accounts can also taper into other genres for instance while Ibn Battuta b 1304 set out to go to Mecca which he did he ended up travelling across 50 countries and dictating what is undoubtedly a travel book in a narrow generic sense rather than the account of a pilgrimage Other extracts range from the influential medieval travel geography of al Idrisi in the 11th century the global history Trading Territories Jerry Brotton, 2020-06-30 In this generously illustrated book Jerry Brotton documents the dramatic changes in the nature of geographical representation which took place during the sixteenth century explaining how much they convey about the transformation of European culture at the end of the early modern era He examines the age's fascination with maps charts and globes as both texts and artifacts that provided their owners with a promise of gain be it intellectual political or financial From the Middle Ages through most of the sixteenth century Brotton argues mapmakers deliberately exploited the partial often conflicting accounts of geographically distant territories to create imaginary worlds As long as the lands remained inaccessible these maps and globes were politically compelling They bolstered the authority of the imperial patrons who employed the geographers and integrated their creations into ever more grandiose rhetorics of expansion As the century progressed however geographers increasingly owed allegiance to the administrators of vast joint stock companies that sought to exploit faraway lands and required the systematic mapping of commercially strategic territories By the beginning of the seventeenth century maps had begun to serve instead as scientific guides defining objectively valid images of the world Venice and the Islamic World, 828-1797 Institut du Monde Arabe (Paris), 2007-01-01 From 828 when

Venetian merchants carried home from Alexandria the stolen relics of St Mark to the fall of the Venetian Republic to Napoleon in 1797 the visual arts in Venice were dramatically influenced by Islamic art Because of its strategic location on the Mediterranean Venice had long imported objects from the Near East through channels of trade and it flourished during this particular period as a commercial political and diplomatic hub This monumental book examines Venice's rise as the bazaar of Europe and how and why the city absorbed artistic and cultural ideas that originated in the Islamic world Venice and the Islamic World 828 1797 features a wide range of fascinating images and objects including paintings and drawings by familiar Venetian artists such as Bellini Carpaccio and Tiepolo beautiful Persian and Ottoman miniatures and inlaid metalwork ceramics lacquer ware gilded and enameled glass textiles and carpets made in the Serene Republic and the Mamluk Ottoman and Safavid Empires Together these exquisite objects illuminate the ways Islamic art inspired Venetian artists while also highlighting Venice's own views toward its neighboring region Fascinating essays by distinguished scholars and conservators offer new historical and technical insights into this unique artistic relationship between East and West Cultural Translation in Early Modern Europe Peter Burke, R. Po-chia Hsia, 2007-03-29 This groundbreaking 2007 volume gathers an international team of historians to present the practice of translation as part of cultural history Although translation is central to the transmission of ideas the history of translation has generally been neglected by historians who have left it to specialists in literature and language This book seeks to achieve an understanding of the contribution of translation to the spread of information in early modern Europe It focuses on non fiction the translation of books on religion history politics and especially on science or natural philosophy as it was generally known at this time The chapters cover a wide range of languages including Latin Greek Russian Turkish and Chinese The book will appeal to scholars and students of the early modern and later periods to historians of science and of religion as well as to anyone interested in translation studies

1001 Inventions Salim T. S. Al-Hassani, 2012 Modern society owes a tremendous amount to the Muslim world for the many groundbreaking scientific and technological advances that were pioneered during the Golden Age of Muslim civilization between the 7th and 17th centuries Every time you drink coffee eat a three course meal get a whiff of your favorite perfume take shelter in an earthquake resistant structure get a broken bone set or solve an algebra problem it is in part due to the discoveries of Muslim civilization Studies on Ottoman Science and Culture Ekmeleddin İhsanoğlu, 2020-12-29 Studies on Ottoman Science and Culture brings together eleven articles by distinguished historian Ekmeleddin İhsanoğlu The book addresses multiple issues related to the histories of science and culture during the Ottoman era Most of the articles contained in this volume were the first contributions to their respective topics and they continue to provoke discussion and debate amongst academics to this day The first volume of the author's collected papers that appeared in the Variorum Collected Studies 2004 dispelled the negative opinions towards Ottoman science asserted by scholars of the previous generation In this new volume the author continues to explore and develop the paradigm of scientific activities and cultural interactions both within and beyond the Ottoman Empire One of the topics examined is the attitude of Islamic scholars towards revolutionary notions in Western science including Copernican heliocentrism and Darwin's theory of evolution This book will appeal to scholars and students of Ottoman history as well as those interested in the history of science and cultural history CS1098 Great City Maps DK,2016-09-06 Journey back in time and take a walk through the historic streets of the world's greatest cities Great City Maps is the companion title to DK's Great Maps and takes a focused look at over 70 gorgeously illustrated historical maps and plans of cities around the globe Dive into the details of each beautiful map and learn about interesting features with visual tours of the maps highlights such as the Old London Bridge of London in 1572 and the orchards of Brooklyn in 1767 New York Cities are centers of civilization and the way their maps portray them reflects their politics religion and culture See how certain cities and cartographic techniques changed over time More than just a bird's eye view this irresistible book tells the tales behind the cities from the hubs of ancient peoples to modern mega cities and profiles the iconic cartographers and artists who created each map Perfect for history geography and cartography enthusiasts and a stunning gift for armchair explorers of all ages Great City Maps is your window into the world's most fascinating cities An Ottoman Era Town in the Balkans Velika Ivkowska,2020-08-09 An Ottoman Era Town in the Balkans The Case Study of Kavala presents the town of Kavala in Northern Greece as an example of Ottoman urban and residential development covering the long period of Kavala's expansion over five centuries under Ottoman rule Kavala was part of the Ottoman Empire from 1387 to 1912 In the middle of the sixteenth century Ibrahim Pasha grand vizier of Suleiman the Magnificent contributed to the town's prosperity and growth by the construction of an aqueduct The Ottomans also rebuilt and extended the existing Byzantine fortress The book uncovers new findings about Kavala and addresses the key question is there an authentic Ottoman built environment that the town and its architecture share Through the examination of travellers accounts historical maps and archival documents the Ottoman influences on the urban settlement of Kavala are assessed From its original founding by the Ottomans in the late fourteenth century to the nineteenth century when the expansion of tobacco production in the area transformed its prosperity the development of Kavala as an Ottoman era town is explored The book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in Ottoman history and urban history Recent Advances in Environmental Science from the Euro-Mediterranean and Surrounding Regions Amjad Kallel,Mohamed Ksibi,Hamed Ben Dhia,Nabil Khélifi,2017-12-12 This volume includes the papers presented during the 1st Euro Mediterranean Conference for Environmental Integration EMCEI which was held in Sousse Tunisia in November 2017 This conference was jointly organized by the editorial office of the Euro Mediterranean Journal for Environmental Integration in Sfax Tunisia and Springer MENA Publishing Program in Germany It aimed to give a more concrete expression to the Euro Mediterranean integration process by supplementing existing North South programs and agreements with a new multilateral scientific forum that emphasizes in particular the vulnerability and proactive remediation of the Euro Mediterranean region from an environmental point of view This volume gives a general and brief overview on current research focusing on emerging environmental issues and challenges and its applications to a variety of problems in the Euro Mediterranean zone and surrounding regions It contains over five hundred and eighty carefully refereed short contributions to the conference Topics covered include 1 innovative approaches and methods for environmental sustainability 2 environmental risk assessment bioremediation ecotoxicology and environmental safety 3 water resources assessment planning protection and management 4 environmental engineering and management 5 natural resources characterization assessment management and valorization 6 intelligent techniques in renewable energy biomass wind waste solar 7 sustainable management of marine environment and coastal areas 8 remote sensing and GIS for geo environmental investigations 9 environmental impacts of geo natural hazards earthquakes landslides volcanic and marine hazards and 10 the environmental health science natural and social impacts on Human health Presenting a wide range of topics and new results this edited volume will appeal to anyone working in the subject area including researchers and students interested to learn more about new advances in environmental research initiatives in view of the ever growing environmental degradation in the Euro Mediterranean region which has turned environmental and resource protection into an increasingly important issue hampering sustainable development and social welfare

Interfaith Relationships and Perceptions of the Other in the Medieval Mediterranean
Sarah Davis-Secord, Belen Vicens, Robin Vose, 2021-12-16 This book is a collaborative contribution that expands our understanding of how interfaith relations both real and imagined developed across medieval Iberia and the Mediterranean The volume pays homage to the late Olivia Remie Constable's scholarship and presents innovative thought provoking interdisciplinary investigations of cross cultural exchange ranging widely across time and geography Divided into two parts Perceptions of the Other and Interfaith relations this volume features scholars engaging with church art literature historiography scientific treatises and polemics in order to study how the religious Other was depicted to serve different purposes and audiences There are also microhistories that examine the experiences of individual families classes and communities as they interacted with one another in their own specific contexts Several of these studies draw their source material from church and state archives as well as jurisprudential texts and span the centuries from the late medieval to early modern periods

Archivum Ottomanicum, 1992 The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World Francis Robinson, 1996 Islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world's population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the West of what Islam really is Francis Robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of Muslim culture As well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone's minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning Islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the Middle East Bosnia and the Gulf Throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between Islam and the West from the first Latin translations of the Quran to the fatwa on Salman Rushdie This elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the Western impression of Islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art Francis Robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works Atlas of the Islamic World Since 1500 Cambridge 1982 and The Cambridge Encyclopedia of India 1989 Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today's Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today's Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization
