Cruising the Library Melissa Adler, 2017-04-03 Cruising the Library offers a highly innovative analysis of the history of sexuality and categories of sexual perversion through a critical examination of the Library of Congress and its cataloging practices Taking the publication of Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick s Epistemologies of the Closet as emblematic of the Library s inability to account for sexual difference Melissa Adler embarks upon a detailed critique of how cataloging systems have delimited and proscribed expressions of gender sexuality ethnicity and race in a manner that mirrors psychiatric and sociological attempts to pathologize non normative sexual practices and civil subjects Taking up a parallel analysis Adler utilizes Roderick A Ferguson s Aberrations in Black as another example of how the Library of Congress fails to account for and thereby buries difference She examines the physical space of the Library as one that encourages forms of governmentality as theorized by Michel Foucault while also allowing for its utopian possibilities Finally she offers a brief but highly illuminating history of the Delta Collection Likely established before the turn of the twentieth century and active until its gradual dissolution in the 1960s the Delta Collection was a secret archive within the Library of Congress that housed materials confiscated by the United States Post Office and other federal agencies These were materials deemed too obscene

for public dissemination or general access Adler reveals how the Delta Collection was used to regulate difference and squelch dissent in the McCarthy era while also linking it to evolving understandings of so called perversion in the scientific study of sexual difference Sophisticated engrossing and highly readable Cruising the Library provides us with a critical understanding of library science an alternative view of discourses around the history of sexuality and an analysis of the relationship between governmentality and the cataloging of research and information as well as categories of difference in American culture

Of Minstrelsy and Masks Christine Matzke, Remi Raji, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2006 This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles Ezenwa Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and by so doing introducing different creative patterns He also saw himself as a minstrel as someone who wanted to read express and enact his work before an audience First and foremost however Ezenwa Ohaeto was someone who un masked ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe he influenced the reception of African literary biography His networks and connections were extensive and wide ranging and they are partly reflected in the essays creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume In their various modes and expressions the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa Ohaeto s many talents and achievements As an extension of Ezenwa Ohaeto s legacy they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the un masking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context The book is divided into six sections In Memoriam contains personal tributes by long standing colleagues mentors and friends Poetry and Fiction collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man Section Four comprises two interviews while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa Ohaeto s work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively
