Lacadie Perdue:

Évangéline : Contes d'Amérique Joseph Yvon Thériault, 2013-05-14T00:00:00-04:00 Extrait Les récits des sociétés modernes sont particuliers Ils doivent se confronter à l'histoire D'abord dans l'Antiquité grecque Aristote distinguait dans Poétique poésie et histoire La poésie fabrique du nouveau pensait-il elle dit ce qui devrait être en fonction de la nécessité ses affirmations sont plus générales de l'ordre de la vraisemblance Au contraire l'histoire s'intéresse à ce qui est fabriqué elle dit ce qui est peu importe la nécessité ses affirmations sont plus précises elle recherche le vrai Aristote préférait la poésie l'histoire il préférait le conteur au savant On a longtemps opposé ces deux ordres de fait Comme la modernité a vu s'imposer le récit historique le conteur doit dorénavant s'appuyer sur l'histoire Aujourd'hui plusieurs voudraient que l'histoire se détache complètement du conteur abolissant pour ainsi dire le récit Mais c'est chose impossible en soi les choses fabriquées n'ont pas de significations sans un conteur sans qu'elles soient inscrites dans une narration Ce qui ne veut pas dire que la vérité historique disparaît du récit Ce qui distingue le récit moderne du récit ancien c'est justement qu'il est dorénavant contraint de s'inscrire à l'aune de l'histoire c'est que poésie et histoire s'entremêlent tout en s'opposant Longfellow a effectué des recherches historiques pour écrire l'idylle d'évangéline et dès sa publication l'œuvre fut au cœur d'une polémique entre poésie et histoire J'ai pleinement voulu assumer cette difficile tension entre poésie et histoire propre au récit moderne J'ai voulu écrire un récit voire trois J'ai voulu conserver le ton du récit Après ces quelques éclaircissements ce livre ne comprend pas de longs passages théoriques comme le voudrait un travail savant J'ai surtout dans l'écriture de ce livre voulu vider des pièges piéges que je crois récurrents dans les sciences sociales contemporaines Nous savons tous aujourd'hui que les sociétés sont des choses construites que les traditions sont inventées Plusieurs en raison de cela concluent que la société est un pieux mensonge un fakelore comme le diront les historiens canadiens qu'il ne reste plus aux sciences sociales que de démasquer l'imposteur et construire le récit Mais le marché ne vise justement pas de construire le récit mais voir comment le récit se construit participe à créer un monde de sens mettre en forme faire société à partir de l'infinie pluralité humaine Il n'existe pas de sociétés sans conteurs et pas d'humanité sans sociétés

Acadiensis, 2008 French Missionaries in Acadia/Nova Scotia, 1654-1755 Matteo Binasco, 2022-10-11 This book investigates and assesses how and to what extent the French Catholic missionaries carried out their evangelical activity amid the natives of Acadia Nova Scotia from the mid-seventeenth century until 1755 the year of the Great Deportation of the Acadians It provides a new understanding of the role played by the French missionaries in the most peripheral and less populated area of Canada during the colonial period The decision to focus on this period is dictated by the need to investigate how and to which extent the French missionaries sought to carry out their activity within a contested territory which was exposed to the pressures coming out of both French and British imperial interests Decoding and Telling the Canadian

Re-exploring Canadian Space Jeanette M. L. den Toonder, Bettina van Hoven, 2012 A variety of productions and representations of Canadian identities are the central theme that runs through this book The different contributions explore imagined spaces by considering Canadian music poetry and novels they engage with political space by addressing various ways in which the people of Canada have made claims to different regions in the distant and recent past and they address lived spaces and their actual and symbolic meanings It is an unusual book as it encompasses the writings by those studying the arts and literature as well as writings by social scientists and it includes both English and French speaking scholars The richness that can be found in this multitude of perspectives and approaches to exploring Canadian space is characteristic of the way in which Canadian Studies is practiced nowadays It is therefore an appropriate volume to celebrate 20 years of Canadian Studies in the Netherlands

Writing Acadia Hans R. Runte, 2023-10-09 The phenomenal development of writing and literary creation among the francophone communities of eastern Canada has gone largely unnoticed and unprobed outside the fragmented land of Acadia Writing Acadia attempts for the first time to observe from a distance the invention of literature in oral Acadia and to interpret assess and order the manifold manifestations of the transition from epic storytelling to writing as a means of nation building Having begun to write modern Acadia has truly rewritten herself into existence an existence now threatened by postmodern unwriting of literature Destined not only for specialists but also and especially for readers with a general interest in literature including students of all levels Writing Acadia presents generous samples of Acadian poetry drama and prose with accompanying English translations

Regards croisés sur l'histoire et la littérature acadiennes Madeleine Frédéric, Serge Jaumain, 2006 Cet ouvrage propose un dialogue original entre historiens et littéraires travers un parcours qui conduit le lecteur de l'iconographie de l'Acadie sa production cinématographique en passant par l'étude de la littérature de la poésie et même de l'opéra acadiens Cette analyse panoramique illustre l'importance la diversité et la richesse des travaux menés aujourd'hui tant au Canada qu'à l'étranger sur la culture acadienne

From Migrant to Acadian N.E.S. Griffiths, 2005 Despite their position between warring French and British empires European settlers in the Maritimes eventually developed from a migrant community into a distinctive Acadian society From Migrant to Acadian is a comprehensive narrative history of how the Acadian community came into being Acadian culture not only survived despite attempts to extinguish it but developed into a complex society with a unique identity and traditions that still exist in present day Nova Scotia and New Brunswick

Histoire de l'Acadie française (Amérique Septentrionale) de 1598 à 1755 Célestin Moreau, 1873 Une colonie féodale en Amérique (L'Acadie, 1604-1710) par M. Rameau M. Rameau, 1877 Observations sur l'histoire de l'Acadie française de M. Moreau, Paris 1873 Azarie Couillard- Després, 1919

New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay, 2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province's literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick

Critical Collaborations Smaro Kamboureli, Christl Verduyn, 2014-05-28 Critical Collaborations Indigeneity Diaspora and Ecology in Canadian Literary Studies is the third volume of essays produced as part of the TransCanada conferences project The essays gathered in Critical Collaborations constitute a call for collaboration and kinship across disciplinary political institutional and community borders They are tied together through a simultaneous call for resistance to Eurocentrism corporatization rationalism and the fantasy of total systems of knowledge and a call for critical collaborations These collaborations seek to forge connections without perceived identity linking concepts and communities without violating the differences that constitute them seeking epistemic kinships while maintaining a willingness to not know In this way they form a critical conversation between seemingly distinct areas and demonstrate fundamental allegiances between diasporic and indigenous scholarship transnational and local knowledges legal and eco critical methodologies Links are forged between Indigenous knowledge and ecological and social justice creative critical reading and ambidextrous epistemologies unmaking the nation through translocalism and unsettling histories of colonial complicity through a poetics of relation Together these essays reveal how the critical methodologies brought to bear on literary studies can both challenge and exceed disciplinary structures presenting new forms of strategic transdisciplinarity that expand the possibilities of Canadian literary studies while also emphasizing humility complicity and the limits of knowledge
