Lachlan Macquarie:

Lachlan Macquarie John Ritchie, 1986 A biography of Lachlan Macquarie governor of the colony of New South Wales from 1810 to 1821 The Governors of New South Wales 1788-2010 David Clune, 2009 This book contains biographical accounts of all 37 Governors of New South Wales from Arthur Phillip in 1788 to Marie Bashir Highlights of the book include John Hunter's amazing sea voyages the erratic career of the devious and foul tempered William Bligh the highly public clashes of Sir Hercules Robinson nicknamed the Crisis maker with Governments and Parliament the Boy's Own Naval career of the swashbuckling Sir Harry Rawson the extraordinary double life of Lord Beauchamp and the dramatic events surrounding Sir Philip Game's dismissal of Jack Lang Leading historians such as Brian Fletcher JM Bennett Geoffrey Bolton Graham Freudenberg Anne Twomey Chris Cunneen Ian Hancock Evan Williams and Rodney Cavalier tell of both extraordinary lives and the political and constitutional crises many had to face Governor Macquarie Derek Parker, 2011-04-05 The first new biography of Lachlan Macquarie in decades this book draws on a wealth of sources both in Australia and overseas to paint a picture of the man and his times It must be seen as one of the great ironies of Australian history that as far as the British Government was concerned he failed in his duty as Governor of New South Wales as was clearly documented to official minds in the official report compiled by Commissioner John Bigge This report concluded that while Governor Macquarie had certainly supervised the building in New South Wales of some good roads and some handsome buildings if at far too high a cost to the British taxpayers under his government the colony had ceased to be what it was required to be a place with a reputation for cruelty and hopelessness so terrifying that the very threat of being banished there would strike terror into the heart of any prospective malefactor Macquarie had in fact had a vision shared by few others that New Holland had the potential to become one of the greatest and most flourishing colonies belonging to the British Empire and became determined to do his part in steering the fledgling community in that direction Settler Colonialism and (Re)conciliation Penelope Edmonds, 2016-04-08 This book examines the performative life reconciliation and its discontents in settler societies It explores the refoundings of the settler state and reimaginings of its alternatives as well as the way the past is mobilized and reworked in the name of social transformation within a new global paradigm of reconciliation and the age of apology Historical Records of New South Wales: Bligh and Macquarie, 1809-1811 New South Wales, 1901 , Historical Records of New South Wales: Bligh and Macquarie, 1809, 1810, 1811 , 1901 The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations Bronwyn Carlson, Terri Farrelly, 2023-06-30 The Palgrave Handbook on Rethinking Colonial Commemorations explores global efforts particularly from Indigenous and Black communities to dismantle colonial commemorations monuments and memorials Across the world many Indigenous and Black communities have taken action to remove rectify and or re imagine colonial commemorations These efforts have had the support of some non Indigenous and white community members but very often they have faced fierce opposition In spite of this many have succeeded and this work aims to acknowledge and honour these efforts As a current and much debated issue this book will present fresh findings and analyses of recent and historical events including RhodesMustFall Anzac Day protests and the transferral of confederate monuments to museums Comprising of chapters written by Indigenous Black and non Indigenous authors from a wide variety of locations backgrounds and purposes this topical volume is a timely and important contribution to the fields of memory studies Indigenous Studies and cultural heritage
