Lady Trader:

A Lady Trader in the Transvaal Sarah Heckford, 2025-08-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Lady Trader Vivien Allen, 1979

Sarah Heckford Sarah Heckford, 2008-10-03 A Lady Trader in the Transvaal presents the South African adventures of Sarah Heckford a once famous but now forgotten Anglo Irish gentlewoman After trekking to the Transvaal in 1878 this intrepid woman served as governess doctor builder nurse and farmer When her farm failed she broke through the barriers of gender and class to make her fortune as a smous or peddler trading with the Africans and Afrikaners of the remote bush veldt Caught up in the Anglo Boer War of 1879 1880 she survived the hundred day siege of Pretoria only to find the British dishonored and herself financially ruined Women's Concerns Jill Christine Jepson, 2009 In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries women's businesses from small local concerns to financial empires offered women independence supported their families and supplied essential goods and services to their communities and the world They also contributed to much needed legal and social change and set the stage for the female entrepreneurs who would come later All this was accomplished despite immense financial barriers an inequitable legal system and the widely held belief that women had no business in business Women's Concerns explores the lives of twelve women who owned and operated businesses in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries It focuses on the ways they created personal and public identities and managed the contradictions between their entrepreneurial ambitions and deeply entrenched attitudes about women's roles I the Supreme Augusto Roa Bastos, 2019-02-26 I the Supreme imagines a dialogue between the nineteenth century Paraguayan dictator known as Dr Francia and Policarpo Pati o his secretary and only companion The opening pages present a sign that they had found nailed to the wall of a cathedral purportedly written by Dr Francia himself and ordering the execution of all of his servants upon his death This sign is quickly revealed to be a forgery which takes leader and secretary into a larger discussion about the nature of truth In the light of what Your Eminence says even the truth appears to be a lie Their conversation broadens into an epic journey of the mind stretching across the colonial history of their nation filled with surrealist imagery labyrinthine turns and footnotes supplied by a mysterious compiler A towering achievement from a foundational author of modern Latin American literature I the Supreme is a darkly comic deeply moving meditation on power and its abuse and on the role of language in making and unmaking whole worlds Shardheld Paul E.
