The Fortune Hunter Suzy Spencer, 2015-10-17 The New York Times bestselling true crime author reveals the full story of murder and deception behind the Lifetime movie Secrets of a Gold Digger Killer Texas millionaire Steven Beard Jr fell hard for Celeste Martinez a waitress less than half his age She served the seventy year old widow his nightly cocktail along with sexual favors at a country club in Austin After they married Steven gave her cars homes jewelry and designer clothes But Celeste wanted more Claiming she had depression Celeste checked into a psychiatric facility where she met and seduced fellow patient Tracey Tarlton Celeste soon convinced Tracey that the only way they could be together would be to kill Steve One early morning in October Steve awoke to a shotgun blast to his gut Tracey was arrested but refused to implicate Celeste until she learned the truth about her lover In a sordid trial that featured the antics of famed Texas defense attorney Dick DeGuerin the depths of Celeste's lies were revealed in a tale of lust betrayal and regret This new edition of The Fortune Hunter has been updated throughout A brilliantly crafted and endlessly compelling true crime thriller Spencer is among the best of the best Edgar Award winning author Burl Barer

Merry's Museum and Parley's Magazine, 1854      Hall & Co.'s Chicago City Directory and Business Advertiser for ..., 1845      Ante Bellum Houses of the Bluegrass Clay Lancaster, 2014-07-15 The ante bellum homes of Lexington and Fayette County Kentucky are both more numerous and more distinctive in design than those of many communities of similar age Founded in 1775 Lexington by the turn of the century had become the chief cultural center north of New Orleans and west of the Alleghenies During the eight decades between the Revolution and the Civil War Fayette County was the focus of converging streams of immigration and a phenomenal amount of building activity took place in Lexington and the surrounding area Although local builders followed the trends of national architecture they were not primarily concerned with correctness and developed a provincial style which was distinguished by originality and a high level of craftsmanship In Ante Bellum Houses of the Bluegrass Clay Lancaster seeks to define the indigenous character of Fayette County building which he concludes is of unusually distinguished quality A second aim is the presentation of authentic data as a guide for intelligent restoration of existing old buildings many of which have been defaced by unnecessary changes and inappropriate additions He traces the development of house building in this restricted area from the first crude log cabins through frame stone and early brick residences to the substantial homes built by wealthy landowners and merchants in the mid nineteenth century The text is supplemented by 200 line drawings which present the essential features of each building free from the later alterations and decay which would be recorded by the camera These illustrations have been compiled on the basis of intensive research from old photographs maps drawings and other records An album of halftone illustrations many of which are reproductions of old photographs of buildings which have been altered or demolished supplements these illustrations

Breaking the Silence Diane Chamberlain, 2009-12-01 Laura Brandon's promise to her dying father was simple to visit an elderly woman she'd never heard of before A woman who remembers nothing except the distant past Visiting Sarah Tolley seemed a small enough sacrifice to make But Laura's promise results in another death Her husband's And after their five year old daughter Emma witnesses her father's suicide Emma refuses to talk about it to talk at all Frantic and guilt ridden Laura contacts the only person who may be able to help A man she's met only once six years before A man who doesn't know he's Emma's real father Guided only by a child's silence and an old woman's fading memories the two unravel a tale of love and despair of bravery and unspeakable evil A tale that's shrouded in silence and that unbelievably links them all
