Lakeland Today:

Carlton and Point Breeze Hollis Ricci-Canham, Avis A. Townsend, 2006-08-07 With 200 unforgettable images Carlton and Point Breeze recounts the history of a community that developed along the shore of Lake Ontario in 1803 The first settlers hunted and fished for a living just as Native Americans had for centuries At Point Breeze Oak Orchard Harbor became a shipbuilding center The Bridges and Waterport developed as fishing villages And Ashwood Kenyonville Kuckville and Kent grew into large farms with crops and cattle that were shipped to faraway markets Times change and today the waterfronts recreational appeal lures thousands of visitors But ancient Native American burial grounds still exist here and arrowheads and flint appear each spring when gardens are tilled and farmland gives way to golf courses Superior Customer Value Art Weinstein, D. Hank Ellison, 2012-02-24 A customer centric culture provides focus and direction for the organization ensuring that exceptional value will be offered to customers this in turn results in enhanced market performance Unfortunately caught up in the daily economic and competitive pressures of running complex and fast changing businesses managers may lose sight of custo Model Villages Tim Dunn, 2017-11-15 Part of the story of the seaside holiday and a fascinating sidelight on British social history the model village richly deserves its history written here by Britain's foremost village expert and advocate Handbook of Frauds, Scams, and Swindles Serge Matulich, David M. Currie, 2017-07-27 It has been said that scammers and swindlers often display characteristics commonly attributed to good leadership These include setting a vision communicating it clearly and motivating others to follow their lead But when these skills are used by unconscionable people to satisfy greed how can the average person recognize that foul play is afoot The War Power After 200 Years United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Special Subcommittee on War Powers, 1989 Struggle for Power the Longest School Strike Leon Bock Kavunedus, Dr, Leon Bock, 2011 Two people participating in the same events yet on opposite sides give an engrossing view of a struggle which engulfed a large community in northern Westchester County in New York State It became the longest teachers strike in New York State's history Even though they are personal memoirs both authors try to give as full a picture of the personalities institutions and issues driving the struggle as each experienced it The narrative is in two parts side by side and event by event Both are impressionistic accounts that do not claim to be objective Dr Leon Bock's account is the viewpoint of a leader of a major institution the Lakeland School District In representing the district he had the heavy responsibility to merge the interests of students and parents faculty the taxpaying community and the Board of Education Mr Thomas Kavunedus a faculty member served as a negotiator for the Lakeland Federation of Teachers He saw his responsibilities as extending to the promotion of learning and teaching environment which would foster excellence The contract with the school district which Mr Kavunedus had participated in promulgating years earlier was a major step in raising teachers out of the dark ages of coffee in the boiler room and hopefully greater professionalism Both authors disagree with one another on many of the issues Most of these issues bedevil our schools today

Yet there is enough civility to recognize that partisanship need not be so all engulfing that it demonizes the other side and its objectives No narrative of such a complex event can be totally accurate and objective The authors try to focus on the interpersonal relationships rather than serve as a textbook history of this series of complex events There is no intention to discredit or malign any of the personalities in the narrative rather they are presented as the writers experienced them under conditions of stress

Keep Your Head to the Sky Grey Gundaker,1998 The concept of African American home ground knits together diverse aspects of the American landscape from elite suburbs and tower apartments to the old homeplaces of the countryside to the tabletop array of family photos beside the bed of a housebound elder This fascinating volume focuses on ways African Americans have invested actual and symbolic landscapes with significance gained the means to acquire property and brought new insight to the interpretation of contemporary historical and archaeological sites Keep Your Head to the Sky demonstrates how visions of home past and present have helped to shape African Americans sense of place often under extremely hostile conditions

Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Cajetan E. Ebuziem,2011 Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Towards an Emerging Model and Method for the Church in Africa arises out of reflection on experience and practice The volume reflects on the author s own cultural context religious heritage and pastoral functioning In addition it considers the author s personal experiences in relation to the common experiences of others within the author s cultural and religious traditions and places these experiences and the voices they represent into mutually critical correlation Thus commonalities and dissonances in them emerge leading to insights where to go from there in providing ministry to the People of God in the local church context and still within the framework of one universal church This book presents a contextual model of local theology that begins its reflection with the Igbo cultural context The Igbo or Nigerian or African Church can have a pattern of ministry with a model and a method that are consistent with the peoples values To accomplish this goal a local cultural value must be explored and brought into the scene Since the Igbo society is the heart of Christianity and Catholicism in Africa the author relies on Igboland as his situational context The exploration of the indigenous Igbo value of collaboration will be an advantage in ministering to the rest of the African people who have cultural resemblances to Igbos The African Church has to learn from the Igbo values of umunna bu ike Umunna is the basic Igbo unit and possibly the most powerful missionary force in Igboland and potentially an Igbo gift to the Church in Nigeria and Africa and even beyond
