since the late nineteenth century and the upsurge of Islamic fervor in the street at the grassroots level and what these secular intellectuals can do to reconnect with the masses Using some of the most important Arabic and Islamic poetry prose and fiction to come out of the twentieth century Al Musawi provides context for the complex images of Arab and Islamic culture given by the various social religious and political groups providing the motivations Readers interested in the influence of religion and secularism within modern Islamic Arabic literature will find that the author addresses the presence of Islam and Sufism in ways that secular commentators have been incapable of doing The Anchor Book of Modern Arabic Fiction Denys Johnson-Davies, 2010-03-31 This dazzling anthology features the work of seventy nine outstanding writers from all over the Arab speaking world from Morocco in the west to Iraq in the east Syria in the north to Sudan in the south Edited by Denys Johnson Davies called by Edward Said the leading Arabic to English translator of our time this treasury of Arab voices is diverse in styles and concerns but united by a common language It spans the full history of modern Arabic literature from its roots in western cultural influence at the end of the nineteenth century to the present day flowering of Naguib Mahfouz s literary sons and daughters Among the Egyptian writers who laid the foundation for the Arabic literary renaissance are the great Tawfik al Hakim the short story pioneer Mahmoud Teymour and Yusuf Idris who embraced Egypt s vibrant spoken vernacular An excerpt from the Sudanese writer Tayeb Salih s novel Season of Migration to the North one of the Arab world's finest appears alongside the Libyan writer Ibrahim al Koni's tales of the Tuaregs of North Africa the Iraqi writer Mohamed Khudayir's masterly story Clocks Like Horses and the work of such women writers as Lebanon's Hanan al Conscience of the Nation Richard Jacquemond, 2008 Artfully combining social Shaykh and Morocco s Leila Abouzeid and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary Egyptian authors from the 1952 Revolution to the present day Egypt's writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation At the same time modern Egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the European model As a result each Egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal With these fundamentals in mind Conscience of the Nation examines Egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in Egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader Novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society

Travels of a Genre Mary N. Layoun,2014-07-14 If the modern Western novel is linked to the rise of a literate bourgeoisie with particular social values and narrative expectations to what extent can that history of the novel be anticipated in non Western contexts In this bold insightful work Mary Layoun investigates the development of literary practice in the Greek Arabic and Japanese cultures which initially considered the novel a foreign genre a cultural accoutrement of Western influence Offering a textual and contextual analysis of six novels representing early twentieth century and contemporary literary fiction in these cultures Layoun illuminates the networks of power in which genre migration and its interpretations have been implicated She also examines the social and cultural practice of constructing and maintaining narratives not only within books but outside of them as well In each of the three cultural traditions the literary debates surrounding the adoption and adaption of the modern novel focus on problematic formulations of the modern versus the traditional the Western and foreign versus the indigenous and notions of the modern bourgeois subject versus the precapitalist or precolonial subject Layoun textually situates and analyzes these formulations in the early twentieth century novels of Alexandros Papadiamandis Greece Yahya Haqqi Egypt and Natsume Soseki Japan and in the contemporary novels of Dimitris Hatzis Greece Ghassan Kanafani Palestine and Oe Kenzaburo Japan Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its Rabi'a From Narrative to Myth Rkia Elaroui Cornell, 2019-01-03 Rabi a al Adawiyya is a figure shrouded founding in 1905 in myth Certainly a woman by this name was born in Basra Iraq in the eighth century but her life remains recorded only in legends stories poems and hagiographies The various depictions of her as a deeply spiritual ascetic an existentialist rebel and a romantic lover seem impossible to reconcile and yet Rabi a has transcended these narratives to become a global symbol of both Sufi and modern secular culture In this groundbreaking study Rkia Elaroui Cornell traces the development of these diverse narratives and provides a history of the iconic Rabi a s construction as a Sufi saint Combining medieval and modern sources including evidence never before examined in novel ways Rabi a From Narrative to Myth is the most significant work to emerge on this quintessential figure in Islam for more than seventy years The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Bildungsroman and the Arab Novel Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-09-30 Through a close reading of a corpus of novels featuring young protagonists in their path toward adulthood the book shows how Bildungsroman impacted the formation of the Egyptian narrative On a larger scale the book helps the reader to understand the key role played by the coming of age novel in the definition and perception of modern Arab subjectivity Exploring the role of Bildungsroman in shaping the canonical Egyptian novel the book discusses the case of Zaynab by Muhammad Husayn Haykal 1913 as an example of early Arab Bildungsnarrative It focuses on Latifa Zayyat's masterpiece The Open Door and the novels of the 90es Generation offering a gender based analysis of the Egyptian Bildungsroman It provides insightful readings about the function of the novel in women s re negotiation of social boundaries The study shows how the stories of youth present universal themes such as the thwarted quest for love the struggle for personal fulfilment the desire to achieve a cultural modernity often felt as other than self The book is a journey in the Twentieth Century Egyptian Novel seen through the lens of the transnational form of Bildungsroman It is a key resource to students and academics interested in Arabic literature comparative literature and cultural studies ten again: and other stories Ibrāhīm 'Abd al-Qādir Māzinī, 2006 Ibrahim al Mazini was one of the great humorists and stylists of twentieth century Arabic prose literature Like an Egyptian James Thurber he captured the foibles and triumphs of Cairo's middle classes of the 1930s and 1940s in exceptionally stylish prose This collection gathers in one volume some of al Mazini's best short fiction including two novellas Midu and His Accomplices and Ten Again Midu is an engaging well liked army officer who assisted by almost every other character in the story arranges a faux heist from his uncle s library in order to allow young love to run its course In Ten Again a man awakes to find that he has returned to childhood on the day of his tenth birthday his wife who is being wooed by a most obnoxious suitor is now his mother and his two sons torment him mercilessly at his birthday party In al Mazini s skillful hands the short stories included here illuminate a lively fictional world from a drunken encounter with a parrot to an undertaker s attempt to provide a cadaver with a believer s contented smile An unmarried woman dreams of her unborn daughter who is impatient to be born and a reclusive author who has chosen to disappear from Cairo's literary scene is tracked down to his obvious disgust by an intrepid researcher Rich in insight imagination and humor these stories are a splendid introduction to a major figure in the early generation of Egyptian writers Modern Arabic Short Stories Ronak Husni, Daniel L. Newman, 2012-02-13 The stories collected here are by leading authors of the short story form in the Middle East today In addition to works by writers already wellknown in the West such as Idwar al Kharrat Fu ad al Takarli and Nobel Prize winner

Najib Mahfuz the collection includes stories by key authors whose fame has hitherto been restricted to the Middle East This bilingual reader is ideal for students of Arabic as well as lovers of literature who wish to broaden their appreciation of the work of Middle Eastern writers The collection features stories in the original Arabic accompanied by an English translation and a brief author biography as well as a discussion of context and background Each story is followed by a glossary and discussion of problematic language points Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin al-Musawi, 2017-04-21 This book presents theoretical and methodical cultural concerns in teaching literatures from non American cultures along with issues of cross cultural communication cultural competency and translation Covering topics such as the 1001 Nights Magamat Arabic poetry women's writing classical poetics issues of gender race and class North African concerns language acquisition through literature Arab spring writing women s correspondence issues connected with the so called nahdah revival movement in the 19th century and many others the book provides perspectives and topics that serve in both the planning of new courses and accommodation to already existing programs Fathers and Sons in the Arab Middle East D. Cohen-Mor, 2013-11-07 Drawing on insights from psychology sociology anthropology religion history and literature this book examines early and contemporary writings of male authors from across the Arab world to explore the traditional and evolving nature of father son relationships in Arab families Gender, Nation, and the Arabic Novel Hoda Elsadda, 2012-07-18 A nuanced understanding of literary imaginings of masculinity and femininity in the Egytian novel Gender studies in Arabic literature have become equated with women s writing leaving aside the possibility of a radical rethinking of the Arabic literary canon and Arab cultural history While the woman question in the Arabic novel has received considerable attention the male question has gone largely unnoticed Now Hoda Elsadda bucks that trend Foregrounding voices that have been marginalised alongside canonical works she engages with new directions in the novel tradition Middle Eastern Gothics Karen Grumberg, 2022-12-15 The chapters in this study cover the four major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish and are authored by experts in these literatures who read and engage with these texts in their original languages Their intimate knowledge of the linguistic and cultural contexts of the works they analyse provides readers access to nuances in the texts and ultimately to a more profound understanding of them This is the first cohesive collection addressing the Gothic in the geographic linguistic context of the Middle East region There has been increased interest not only in global iterations of the Gothic but also in Middle Eastern writing particularly when it intersects with the Gothic i e Frankenstein in Baghdad The Introduction of the volume offers a new theorisation of Gothic literature proposing the transnational region as a frame for reading literary texts that cross national and linguistic boundaries Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2023-07-25 Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6 000 years Often invaded conquered and occupied by foreign armies Egypt has never lost its identity The Egyptians of today although they have changed their language once and their religion twice descend mainly from the Egyptians who
