Land Concentration And Rural Poverty:

Land Concentration and Rural Poverty Keith B. Griffin, 1976 Monograph on the distribution of land ownership and farm size and the relationship to income distribution and rural area poverty in some developing countries includes seven case studies emphasising the role of agrarian reform the agrarian structure ILO mentioned income distribution and land redistribution the role of agricultural policy development policy etc References and statistical tables      The Political Economy of Rural Poverty Mohamad Riad El Ghonemy, 1990 With the use of wide ranging case studies the author clearly illustrates the impact of schemes intended to re allocate land in developing countries Concluding that land reform can play a major part in stimulating rural economies this book explores the extent to which such policies can successfully reduce poverty and increase agricultural growth      Rural Poverty in Developing Countries Mr. Mahmood Hasan Khan, 2001-03-14 Reviews causes of poverty in rural areas and presents a policy framework for reducing rural poverty including through land reform public works programs access to credit physical and social infrastructure subsidies and transfer of technology Identifies key elements for drafting a policy to reduce rural poverty      The Political Economy of Rural Poverty M. Riad El-Ghonemy, 2006-05-10 With the use of wide ranging case studies the author clearly illustrates the impact of schemes intended to re allocate land in developing countries Concluding that land reform can play a major part in stimulating rural economies this book explores the extent to which such policies can successfully reduce poverty and increase agricultural growth      Policy for Land Lynton Keith Caldwell, Kristin Sharon Shrader-Frechette, 1993 In this book two leading scholars a political scientist and an ethical philosopher outline a new national policy for land use and provide the legal political and ethical justifications for their proposed policies      African Food Systems in Crisis Rebecca Huss-Ashmore, Solomon H Katz, 2019-07-19 Originally published in 1991 Commissioned by the Task Force on African Famine of the American Anthropological Association this the second part of a project examining the causes of food system failure in Africa and the effects of attempts to remedy the situation It evaluates the often retrogressive results of foreign aid to African nations and offers an anthropological perspective on how to reverse this trend The contributors emphasize integrating all development programs with the regional customs and traditions already in place that have thus far allowed its people to cope with food and water shortages In the past various strategies have failed due to misunderstandings and incorrect assumptions concerning gender roles food consumption habits social relations kinship networks land use and government function New understanding of the culture must be complemented with multifaceted programs incorporating education a concern for grass roots opinion and control attention to production and consumption patterns and various forms of broad spectrum integrated development The uniqueness research is recommended for all who are concerned about worldwide malnutrition and those who understand the need to recognize local traditions as resources that must be included in any successful development program      Developmental Problems and Policies in India B. Satyanarayan, 2000      African Food Systems in Crisis:

Contending with change Rebecca Huss-Ashmore, Solomon H. Katz, 1989 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      A Survey of Agricultural Economics Literature Lee R. Martin, 1977      Land Reform in Developing Countries Michael Lipton, 2009-06-24 Redistributing land rights is a tricky subject and one that easily becomes controversial as recent experience has shown This new book calmly examines the strengths and weaknesses of different forms of land redistribution      The Struggle for Economic Development Michael P. Todaro, 1983 Compilation of articles on economic and social development in developing countries covers underdevelopment development theories poverty population basic needs employment choice of technology income distribution education urbanization rural development economic development strategies incl Industrialization trade import substitution etc reviews role of multinational enterprises North South dialogue development planning etc Bibliography      World Hunger And The World Economy Keith Griffin, 1987-07-14 Written in a style that makes it accessible to everyone interested in development studies not just to economists the focus of this collection of essays is on hunger poverty and inequality Much of the content of the book is based on the author s first hand experience in for example Ethiopia and China and his views on foreign aid and the debt crisis will make controversial and provocative reading      The Crisis of Rural Poverty and Hunger Mohamad Riad El Ghonemy, 2007 No further information has been provided for this title      Resources, Values and Development Amartya Kumar Sen, Amartya Sen, 1997 Resources Values and Development contains many of Amartya Sen s path breaking contributions to development economics including papers on resource allocation in nonwage systems shadow pricing employment policy welfare economics poverty assessment gender based inequality and hunger and famines      Economic and social survey of Asia and the Pacific, 2008, 2008      International Journal of Afro-Asian Studies , 2011-02-11      Water Resources and Inter-Riparian Relations in the Nile Basin Okbazghi Yohannes, 2009-01-01 Human demand for water resources is rising at an alarming rate in response to rapid population growth rival development requirements and the depletion of ecological resources In this book Okbazghi Yohannes examines the various facets of the competition for water resources among the ten Nile River Basin countries as they compete to harness the river s resources for purposes of irrigation based agriculture and hydropower based industrialization Through a careful investigation of the rival states strategies to capture greater shares of water resources Yohannes assesses the lasting impact on the watershed ecology in the basin and on the hydrological demand of the river itself He proposes the formation of a radically different water regime to address the looming demographic crisis the stark regional food insecurity and the region s collapsing hydro ecology This book shows how the effort to construct a regional water regime cannot be separated from the necessity to construct an ecologically sustainable internal water regime in each co basin state particularly in terms of ecological resources conservation and ecosystem services protection      The Small Farmer and the Problem of Access A. T. M. Shamsul Huda, 1983      Agriculture and the State in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia Stephen Wegren, 2010-11-23 Winner 1999 Edward A Hewett Book Prize from AAASS A comprehensive original and innovative analysis of the social economic and political factors affecting contemporary Russian reform the book is organized around the central question of the role of the state and its effect on the course of Russian agrarian reform In the wake of the collapse of the USSR contemporary conventional wisdom holds the Russian state is weak Stephen Wegren feels that the traditional approach to the weak strong state suffers from measurement and circular logic problems believing that the Russian state thought weaker than in its Soviet past is still relatively stronger than other actors The state's strength allows it to intervene in the rural sector in ways that other power contender cannot Specifically as a measure of state intervention Wegren analyzes how the state has influenced urban rural relations rural rural relations and the nonstate private agricultural sector Several dilemmas arose that have complicated successful agrarian reform as a result of the nature of state interventions how reform policies were defined and the incentives that arose from state sponsored policies During contemporary Russian agrarian reform urban rural differences have widened marked by a deterioration in rural standards of living and increased alienation of rural political groups from urban alliances At the same time within the rural sector reform failed to reverse rural egalitarianism In addition the nature of state interventions has undermined attempts to create a vibrant productive private rural sector based on private farming Wegren's research is based upon extensive field work interviews archival documents and published and unpublished source material conducted over a six year period and he demonstrates the link between agrarian reform and the success of overall reform in Russia This learned and often controversial volume will interest political scientists policy makers and scholars and students of contemporary Russia
