Land Of Unlikeneb Explorations Into Reconciliation:

Reconciliation(s) Joanna R. Quinn, 2009-04-01 Reconciliation s considers the definition of the concept of reconciliation itself focusing on the definitional dialogue that arises from the attempts to situate reconciliation within a theoretical and analytical framework Contributing authors champion competing definitions but all agree that it plays an important role in building relationships of trust and cohesion The essays in this book also consider the nature and utility of reconciliation in a number of contexts evaluating both its function and efficacy Reconciliation in Global Context Björn

Krondorfer, 2018-10-29 A transdisciplinary approach to reconciliation practices and policies by an international team of scholars and scholar practitioners When we open the newspaper watch and listen to the news or follow social media we are inundated with reports on old and fresh conflict zones around the world Less apparent perhaps are the many attempts at bringing former adversaries together Reconciliation in Global Context argues for the merit of reconciliation and for the need of global conversations around this topic The contributing scholars and scholar practitioners who hail from the United States South Africa Ireland Israel Zimbabwe Germany Palestine Belgium Bosnia and Herzegovina Serbia Switzerland and the Netherlands describe and analyze examples of reconciliatory practices in different national and political environments Drawing on direct experiences with reconciliation efforts from facilitating psychosocial intergroup workshops to critically evaluating official policies they also reflect on the personal motivations that guide them in this field of engagement Arranged along an arc that spans from cases describing and interpreting actual processes with groups in conflict to cases in which the conceptual merits and constraints of reconciliation are brought to the fore the chapters ask hard questions but also argue for a relational approach to reconciliatory practices For in the end what is important is to embrace a spirit of reconciliation that avoids self interested action and instead advances other directed care This is simply the finest collection of essays on reconciliation processes working at the grassroots and mid levels of societies I have ever seen It takes up important issues and moves the discussion forward in each instance Robert J Schreiter author of Constructing Local Theologies

Reconciling Mission Kirsteen Kim, 2005 Contributed papers presented at various seminars National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe s development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies

Reconciliation Ernst M Conradie, 2013-11-01 This volume is the first in a series of publications on the interface between ecumenical theology and social transformation in the South African context It focuses on the significance but also the contested nature of reconciliation as one expression of a guiding moral vision for South Africa It includes a leading essay by Ernst Conradie and responses to the theme by Mary Burton Fanie du Toit Sarah St Leger Hills Demaine Solomons and Vuyani Vellem The Land of Unlikeness David Stevens,2004 This book arises out of the author s experience of living in Northern Ireland Which has undergone some level of political violence during the whole of his adult life It is about Northern Ireland But also about all the many other societies either e Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice Hugo Van der Merwe,Victoria Baxter,Audrey R. Chapman,2009 In Assessing the Impact of Transitional Justice fourteen leading researchers study seventy countries that have suffered from autocratic rule genocide and protracted internal conflict

Societies in Transition Martin Leiner,Maria Palme,Peggy Stoeckner,Benoît Bourguine,Francois Dermange,Dennis Doyle,Matthias Gockel,Makoto Mizutani,Arie Nadler,David Tombs,2014-07-16 The second volume of the trans disciplinary series Research in Peace and Reconciliation looks at ways of dealing with the past in Sub Saharan Africa in recent decades and highlights the variety of peaceful strategies and processes It asks to what extent this variety fosters the development of alternative methods for the transformation of violent conflict The contributions focus on different African countries and regions as Chad Nigeria Rwanda Uganda Namibia Zimbabwe and South Africa They take into account the influence of particular cultural contexts on processes of reconciliation In doing so they emphasize the importance of religions rites and tribal customs as well as the complex legacy of colonialism They also look at the presentation of the topic in Western media Many thanks go to the Ernst Abbe Foundation Jena for its generous support of the publication Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira,2016-05-20 Religio political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent silenced or co opted mainstream churches Reconciliation and Religio political Non conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance ZCA Churches in Manicaland CiM and Grace to Heal GtH this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture religio political non conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems Liberal Quaker Reconciliation

Theology: A Constructive Approach Christy Randazzo,2020-02-17 This work brings the fields of Christian theologies of atonement and reconciliation and Liberal Quaker theology into dialogue and lays the foundation for developing an original Liberal Quaker reconciliation theology This dialogue focuses specifically on the metaphorical language employed to describe the relationship of interdependence between humans and God which both traditions hold as integral to their conceptions of human and divine existence It focuses on these areas the sin of human division and exclusion atonement and reunification of humans and God as a response to sin and the metaphors Liberal Quaker use to describe this interdependent relationship specifically the metaphor of Light This unique approach develops an original model of reconciliatory interdependence between humans and God that is rooted in both Christological and Universalist Liberal Quaker metaphorical and theological categories and utilizes the Liberal Quaker language of God as interdependent Light towards a new theology The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution Lee Marsden, 2016-03-23 A comprehensive overview of the latest research in religion and conflict resolution this collection of twenty three essays brings together leading scholars in the field examining the contribution religious actors have made and are making towards peace and resolving The Ashgate Research Companion to Religion and Conflict Resolution is primarily aimed at readerships with special interest in conflict resolution international security and religion and international relations and will also serve as a valuable resource for policy makers and conflict resolution practitioners The collection comprises five thematic sections each with chapters on vital and mainly contemporary topics in the field of religion and conflict resolution The principal themes include We Will Seek Peace and Pursue It Neil Paynter, 2015-09-04 A book of readings reflections and prayers about the bombs and bullets and landmines we drop into the heart of other people's lives and the many good folk working for peace and reconciliation at home and abroad It can be used for personal and group reflection or in worship While several of the contributors are from various grassroots organisations and communities many are members associates or friends of the Iona Community which from its beginning has been engaged in work for peace and reconciliation Irish Religious Conflict in Comparative Perspective John Wolffe, 2014-05-27 By setting the Irish religious conflict in a wide comparative perspective this book offers fresh insights into the causes of religious conflicts and potential means of resolving them The collection mounts a challenge to views of Irish exceptionalism and points to significant historical and contemporary commonalities across the Western world

Ecumenics from the Rim John D'Arcy May, 2007 John D'Arcy May's achievements motivate these essays on ecumenics Amid today's scepticism about the ecumenical movement's relevance the authors demonstrate the necessity of working together for the betterment of all This book deepens our understanding of how theology peace and reconciliation studies and interfaith dialogue critically cooperate for the flourishing of earth's life The perspective of church unity amid ecclesial division is broadened to embrace interfaith and intercultural issues ecumenics becomes visible as the intellectual paradigm of our times A Place for Reconciliation? Brandon Hamber, Grainne Kelly, 2005 Domestic Policy Discourse in the US and the UK in the 'New World Order' Lori Maguire, 2010-08-11 With the end of the Cold War many commentators expected a renewed emphasis on domestic policy as a result of this major change in foreign policy Until the attacks of 11 September 2001 this is exactly what happened The new world order in domestic terms celebrated the triumph of capitalism and free markets At this time Milton Friedman's economic ideas were all the rage and Keynes completely out of fashion The economic problems of the 1970s in combination with the manifest failure of communist economies had largely discredited the traditional notion of the Left and party rhetoric reflected this Both the Democrats and Labour had begun in the 1980s faced with the success of Reagan and Thatcher a process of redefinition people talked of New Democrats and New Labour During the campaign of 1992 Clinton insisted on the need for a modern mainstream agenda and used key terms often associated with conservatism like expansion of opportunity choice responsibility and reinventing government Labour especially after Tony Blair became leader in 1994 followed the same path Both the Conservatives and the Republicans had pushed to the right in the late 1970s and continued this trend in the following years Although their electoral fortunes varied they increasingly found themselves divided between moderate and more rightwing members In Britain this division focused on Europe while in the US it usually concerned social and ethical questions By 2010 the Conservatives had attained some cohesion under David Cameron but the Republicans were openly feuding This book's originality lies in its scope in its comparative aspect and its inclusion of first person accounts as well as scholarly studies In particular the book includes one of the first major analyses of the health care debate from Clinton's failed attempt to the conclusion of Obama's successful one Highly up to date and topical it also discusses discourse related to the recent economic crisis the so called Climategate scandal the UK elections of 2010 the gay rights debates in the US Islamophobia and the Arizona immigration law

Considering Grace Gladys Ganiel, Jamie Yohanis, 2019-09-29 Considering Grace records the deeply moving stories of 120 ordinary people's experiences of the Troubles exploring how faith shaped their responses to violence and its aftermath Presbyterian ministers victims members of the security forces those affected by loyalist paramilitarism ex combatants emergency responders and health care workers peacemakers politicians people who left Presbyterianism and critical friends of the Presbyterian tradition provide insights on wider human experiences of anger pain healing and forgiveness The first book to capture such a full range of experiences of the Troubles of people from a Protestant background it also includes the perspectives of women and people from border counties and features leading public figures such as former Deputy First Minister Seamus Mallon of the SDLP Jeffrey Donaldson of the DUP Garda Commissioner Drew Harris and former Victims Commissioner Bertha McDougall Considering Grace contributes to the process of dealing with the past by pointing towards the need for a gracious remembering that acknowledges suffering is self critical about the past and creates space for lament but also for the future

The Cross of Nails Oliver Schuegraf, 2013-01-07 The story of The Community of the Cross of Nails born from the bombing of Coventry Cathedral in 1940 Today it works in 40 countries to build peace heal the wounds of history and enable people to grow together in hope This illustrated guide tells its remarkable story from the beginning reflecting on the meaning of reconciliation today Religious Leaders and Conflict Transformation Nukhet A.

Sandal, 2017-02-16 Religious dimension of contemporary conflicts and the rise of faith based movements worldwide require policymakers to identify the channels through which religious leaders can play a constructive role While religious fundamentalisms are in the news every day we do not hear about the potential and actual role of religious actors in creating a peaceful and just society Countering this trend Sandal draws attention to how religious actors helped prepare the ground for stabilizing political initiatives ranging from abolition of apartheid South Africa to the signing of the Lome Peace Agreement Sierra Leone Taking Northern Ireland as a basis and using declarations and speeches of more than forty years this book builds a new perspective that recognizes the religious actors agency showing how religious actors can have an impact on public opinion and policymaking in today s world

The Oxford Handbook of Religion in Modern Ireland

,2024-01-15 What does religion mean to modern Ireland and what is its recent social and political history The Oxford Handbook of Religion in Modern Ireland provides in depth analysis of the relationships between religion society politics and everyday life on the island of Ireland from 1800 to the twenty first century Taking a chronological and all island approach it explores the complex and changing role of religion both before and after partition The handbook s thirty two chapters address long standing historical and political debates about religion identity and politics including religion s contributions to division and violence They also offer perspectives on how religion interacts with education the media law gender and sexuality science literature and memory Whilst providing insight into how everyday religious practices have intersected with the institutional structures of Catholicism and Protestantism the book also examines the island s increasing religious diversity including the rise of those with no religion Written by leading scholars in the field and emerging researchers with new perspectives this is an authoritative and up to date volume that offers a wide ranging and comprehensive survey of the enduring significance of religion on the island
