Land of Promises Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies,1989 The EKIAP project its recommendations and local Aboriginal people s views Suggests an agenda for change in achieving a path of developement to better meet their needs

Indigenous People and Economic Development Katia Iankova,Azizul Hassan,Rachel L'Abbe,2016-03-22 Indigenous peoples are an intrinsic part of countries like Australia New Zealand Canada Finland USA India Russia and almost all parts of South America and Africa A considerable amount of research has been done during the twentieth century mainly by anthropologists sociologists and linguists in order to describe and document their traditional life style for the protection and safeguarding of their established knowledge skills languages and beliefs These communities are engaging and adapting rapidly to the changing circumstances partly caused by post modernisation and the process of globalization These have led them to aspire to better living standards as well as preserving their uniqueness approaches to environment close proximity to social structures and communities For at least the last two decades patterns of increased economic activity by indigenous peoples in many countries have been viewed to be significantly on the rise Indigenous People and Economic Development reveals some of the characteristics of this economic activity coloured by the unique regard and philosophy of life that indigenous people around the world have The successes difficulties and obstacles to economic development their solutions and innovative practices in business all of these elements based on research findings are discussed in this book and offer an inside view of the dynamics of the indigenous societies which are evolving in a globalised and highly interconnected contemporary world

Land Rights, Ethno-nationality and Sovereignty in History Stanley Engerman,Jacob Metzer,2004-08-02 The complex relationships between ethno nationality rights to land and territorial sovereignty have long fed disputes over territorial control and landed rights between different nations ethnicities and religions These disputes raise a number of interesting issues related to the nature of land regimes and to their economic and political implications The studies drawn together in this key volume explore these and related issues for a broad variety of countries and times They illuminate the diverse causes of ethno national land disputes and the different forms of adjustment and accommodation to the power differences between the contesting groups This is done within a framework outlined by the editors in their analytical overview which offers contours for comparative examinations of such disputes past and present Providing conceptual and factual analyses of comparative nature and wealth of empirical material both historical and contemporary this book will appeal to economic historians economists political scientists sociologists anthropologists and all scholars interested in issues concerning ethno nationality and land rights in historical perspective

Aboriginal Autonomy Herbert Cole Coombs,1994-10-17 After more than two hundred years one of the most important moral issues facing Australian society in the 1990s remains the need for reconciliation with its indigenous people In this selection of essays H C Coombs reflects on the nature of Aboriginal identity and the importance of autonomy for Australiaas Aboriginal people He also suggests strategies by which self determination might be achieved in practice Many of the chapters have been written especially for this volume including one in which Dr Coombs makes a thoughtful and provocative contribution to the Mabo debate linking the High Courtas historic 1992 decision on native title to prospects for Aboriginal autonomy Dr Coombs writes with the conviction that mainstreama Australia stands to gain as much if not more than Aboriginal people from the fulfilment of Aboriginal aspirations It is a personal and passionate plea for a just society from one of white Australia s most influential and eloquent advocates of self determination for its indigenous people Courthouse Architecture, Design and Social Justice Kirsty Duncanson, Emma Henderson, 2021-09-28 This collection interrogates relationships between court architecture and social justice from consultation and design to the impact of material and immaterial forms on court users through the lenses of architecture law socio legal studies criminology anthropology and a former senior federal judge International multidisciplinary collaborations and single author contributions traverse a range of methodological approaches to present new insights into the relationship between architecture design and justice These include praxis photography reflections on process and decolonising practice postcolonial feminist and poststructural analysis and theory from critical legal scholarship political science criminology literature sociology and architecture While the opening contributions reflect on establishing design principles and architectural methodologies for ethical consultation and collaboration with communities historically marginalised and exploited by law the central chapters explore the textures and affects of built forms and the spaces between examining the disjuncture between design intention and use and investigating the impact of architecture and the design of space The collection finishes with contemplations of the very real significance of material presence or absence in courtroom spaces and what this might mean for justice Courthouse Architecture Design and Social Justice provides tools for those engaged in creating and reflecting on ethical design and building use and deepens the dialogue across disciplinary boundaries towards further collaborative work in the field It also exists as a new resource for research and teaching facilitating undergraduate critical thought about the ways in which design enhances and restricts access to justice

Indigenous People and the Pilbara Mining Boom John Taylor, B. Scambary, 2006-01-01 The largest escalation of mining activity in Australian history is currently underway in the Pilbara region of Western Australia Pilbara based transnational resource companies recognise that major social and economic impacts on Indigenous communities in the region are to be expected and that sound relations with these communities and the pursuit of sustainable regional economies involving greater Indigenous participation provide the necessary foundations for a social licence to operate This study examines the dynamics of demand for Indigenous labour in the region and the capacity of local supply to respond A special feature of this study is the inclusion of qualitative data reporting the views of local Indigenous people on the social and economic predicaments that face them      International Law and Indigenous Peoples Joshua Castellino, Niamh Walsh, 2005-03-01 This volume a collection of essays by a variety of scholars in the field of indigenous rights originates from the Irish Centre for Human Rights at the National University of Ireland in Galway It highlights those instances in the work of international organizations where advances have been made concerning indigenous rights It also devotes attention to the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues to the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and to a number of thematic issues in the field The human rights situations facing indigenous peoples in Australia Bangladesh Canada India Kenya Mexico Nicaragua Nigeria and South Africa are dealt with in separate chapters These surveys show a range of reactions to the multiple problems of discrimination or lack of proper responses as far as domestic legislation national implementation of the laws and national compliance with the applicable international standards are concerned      New Directions in Social Impact Assessment Frank Vanclay, Ana Maria Esteves, 2011-01-01 This book should be read by anyone commissioning impact assessments who wants to build their understanding of the more progressive and innovative end of the topic A job well done in the eyes of stakeholders and regulators requires proper social analysis Jon Samuel Head of Social Performance Anglo American The list of authors reads like a who's who in SIA Academics and practitioners are equally represented among the authors The book provides a good mix of broad theoretical concepts and specific practical topics Martin Haeefele Manager Environmental Impact Assessment at Mackenzie Valley Environmental Impact Review Board Yellowknife Northwest Territories Canada This book gives a very broad overview of where Social Impact Assessment is coming from where it is now and where it could go from an impact assessment tool to an impact management tool It provides a realistic insight in both the achievements and the struggles of Social Impact Assessment A recommended read for both those interested in Social Impact Assessment and those in related domains where social issues are gaining increasing importance such as Environmental Assessment and Sustainability Appraisal Rob Verheem Deputy Director Netherlands Commission for Environmental Assessment This important new book outlines current developments in thinking in the field of Social Impact Assessment SIA It advances the theory and practice of SIA and argues that a dramatic shift is required in the way socioeconomic studies and community participation is undertaken The book emphasizes that much more than the act of predicting impacts in a regulatory context SIA needs to be the process of managing the social aspects of development and that there needs to be a holistic and integrated approach to impact assessment It stresses that greater attention needs to be given to ensuring that the goals of development are attained and enhanced This significant addition to the literature will be an invaluable reference for academics consultants and practitioners      Rural Development for Sustainable Social-ecological Systems Claudia Baldwin, Séverine van Bommel, 2023-07-31 This book provides an overview of interdisciplinary approaches that have applied social science to research focused on issues around food agriculture and natural resource management The book demonstrates that those who work in rural sociology either as researchers or practitioners apply community development and participatory techniques to socio environmental interaction The book discusses how the evolving concept of interconnected social and ecological systems SES emerged recognizing the inherent complexity adaptive nature and resilience of such systems This book engages with contemporary theory as well as new cutting edge transdisciplinary research evidenced in case studies from three continents     Settlement Peter Read,2000 This book encompasses the whole history of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Housing     Sustaining Eden Jocelyn Davies,International Institute for Environment and Development,1999 The report focuses on Australian indigenous peoples use and management of terrestrial vertebrates and some marine species     Way of the Earth T.c. Mcluhan,1995-07 This book draws upon both ancient and contemporary sources to examine the significance of the earth from the perspective of six different cultures and how these spiritual traditions have valued perceived and understood the earth At first glance the peoples of aboriginal Australia Japan Greece Africa South America and Native North America couldn t be more different But by taking a closer look the author shows that there are many more similarities than differences all revere mountains as a source of inspiration and holiness all feel a spiritual connection to the soil itself all create art and literature to celebrate their connection to the land and all see themselves as inextricable from the land they call home This unique volume explores how human beings across the planet and across time have felt about the earth and nature and how they have understood it related to it and celebrated it in their literature mythology religion and art It demonstrates that no matter where on the planet we exist and no matter what time period we live we all have a profound connection to the earth from Book Jacket     Australian National Bibliography ,1978

Crosscurrents Katie Glaskin,2017 Law s metaphysics When whiteman came in Mission days A land and sea claim The ethnographic archive In the court Legal submissions and crosscurrents How judgments are made Society and sea on appeal Recognitions s paradox     Social Impact Analysis Laurence R. Goldman,2020-08-20 This book addresses the nature purpose and processes associated with social impact analysis Because resource development projects occur in human as well as ecological environments stakeholders landowners companies and governments are compelled to ensure that the benefits of any project are maximized while the negative risks are minimized Achieving such objectives means implementing programs which monitor and evaluate the ongoing effects of a project on the social and cultural lives of the impacted populace This book aims to provide a teaching and training resource for students social scientists anthropologists sociologists human geographers environmentalists engineers etc and indigenous personnel and operators who are tasked with community affairs programs in those countries where resource development projects are implemented The constituent chapters provide how to guides and frameworks that are generously illustrated with case studies drawn variously from North America and the Asia Pacific region Topics addressed include Legal Frameworks and Compliance Procedures Social Mapping Environmental Reports Social and Economic Impact Studies Social Monitoring Techniques Project Development Statistical Packages and Report Production This book is unique in so far as it seeks to prioritize application over theory Moreover it is the first training resource that is sensitive to non western indigenes need to assimilate and apply skills engendered by Western countries

No Ordinary Judgment Nonie Sharp,1996 Describes how the Meriam people demonstrated the existence of customary land tenure in the Murray Islands to the Australian courts Meriam culture Malo s law relationship to land inheritance of land history includes chronology of the Mabo case 1981 1992 chronology 3 June 1992 to 3 June 1995 on Native title legislation in Australia

Third World in the First Elspeth Young,2013-04-03 European colonisation has marginalised the first peoples in industrialised countries such as Australia and Canada In remote regions still the homes of large Aboriginal Indian and Inuit populations this legacy remains strong Modernisation the boom and bust model of state and private development and the partial and biased assistance provided by the state have eroded many communities through their disregard for socio economic structures and the beliefs which underpin them Third World in the First explores the past present and future of these peoples their treatment by the West and the alternative strategies of development which might be available to them

Social Assessment in Natural Resource Management Institutions Nick Taylor,Marcus Benjamin Lane,2001 This book is the first significant international attempt to outline and analyze how social assessment has been integrated within natural resource management institutions to date In doing so it focuses on contemporary Australian and New Zealand experiences and relates these back to the international context Social Assessment in Natural Resource Management Institutions provides practical guidance for a wide range of planners managers and stakeholders striving for better integration of social issues The lessons derived are equally relevant to national provincial regional and local governance structures international agencies corporations and community based non government organizations

Tourism and Indigenous Peoples Richard Butler,Tom Hinch,2007-11-02 Tourism and Indigenous Peoples is a unique text examining the role of indigenous societies in tourism and how they interact within the tourism nexus Unlike other publications this text focuses on the active role that indigenous peoples take in the industry and uses international case studies and experiences to provide a global context to illustrate best practice and aid comparison First published over ten years ago the editors Butler and Hinch have thoroughly revised and updated the text to bring together a new collection of contributions and case studies from recognised international authors and those with first hand experiences in this area Divided into five main sections the text looks at this topic under the following headings

Involvement Uses case studies to discuss and compare such as campfire programmes in east Africa and the employment of indigenous peoples as guides amongst other cases

Turbulence Host guest relationships conflicts on communities and contrasting strategies and results of tourism in indigenous villages in South Africa

Issues Discusses issues such as authenticity religious beliefs and managing indigenous tourism in a fragile environment

Progress Looks at tourism education tourism and cultural survival and examples of the policy and practice of indigenous tourism

Conclusions Five contributions from indigenous people on North America Australasia and Europe to discuss implications and experiences Each section uses international case studies from for example Australia New Zealand Nepal

Namibia Thailand Saudi Arabia and South America
