The International, 1914 The Miracles of Our Lady Saint Mary Evelyn Underhill, 1905 Our Lady of Emmitsburg, Visionary Culture, and Catholic Identity Jill Krebs, 2015-12-30 This ethnography explores the community of believers in a series of Marian apparitions in rural Emmitsburg, Maryland, asking what it means to call oneself a Catholic and child of Our Lady in this context, what it means to believe in an apparition, and what it means to communicate with divine presence on earth. Believers fashion themselves as devotees of Our Lady in several ways. Through autobiography, they look backward in time to see their lives as leading up to their participation in the prayer group or in some cases moving to Emmitsburg. By observing and telling miracle stories, they adopt an enchanted worldview in which the miraculous becomes everyday. Through relationships with Our Lady, their lives are enriched and even transformed. When they negotiate institutional loyalty and individual autonomy, they affirm their own authority and Catholic identity. Finally, through social media, they expand their devotional networks in ways that shift authority structures and empower individuals. Individuals engage beliefs, practices, and attitudes both arising from and resisting elements of modernity: religious pluralism and religious decline, empowerment and perceived disempowerment, tradition and innovation, and institutional loyalty and perceived disloyalty, to reveal one way of understanding Catholic identity amidst the shifts and flows of modern change. The Life of Henry Morley, LL. D. Henry Shaen Solly, 1898 My Mother in Havana Rebe Huntman, 2025-02-18 A daughter's search for her deceased mother brings her face to face with the gods, ghosts, and saints of Cuba. My Mother in Havana lifts the veil between the living and the dead and makes believers of us all. This story of a mother's absence and a daughter's need is written with a lyricism that filled my heart with beauty while also making it ache for loved ones lost. This is a stunning debut.
