Mosquito by Gayl Jones, 2022-03-08. From the highly acclaimed author of Corregidora and The Healing, a rare and unforgettable journey set along the US-Mexico border about identity, immigration, and the new underground railroad. Jones's great achievement is to reckon with both history and interiority and to collapse the boundary between them. Anna Wiener, The New Yorker. First discovered and edited by Toni Morrison. Gayl Jones has been described as one of the great literary writers of the 20th century. In Mosquito, she examines the US-Mexico border crisis through the eyes of Sojourner, Nadine, Jane, Johnson, an African American truck driver known as Mosquito. Her journey begins after discovering a stowaway who nearly gives birth in the back of her truck, sparking her accidental and yet growing involvement in the new underground railroad, a sanctuary movement for Mexican immigrants. As Mosquito's understanding of the immigrants' need to forge new lives and identities deepens, so too does Mosquito's romance with Ray, a gentle revolutionary philosopher and perhaps a priest. Along the road, Mosquito introduces us to Delgadina, a Chicana bartender who fries cactus, writes haunting stories, and studies to become a detective; Monkey Bread, a childhood pal who is improbably assistant to a blonde star in Hollywood; Maria, the stowaway who names her baby; Journal, a misspelled tribute to her unwitting benefactor Sojourner; and many more.

Heart Shots by Mary Zeiss Stange, 2018-03-28. A heart shot is what every big game hunter hopes for. Editor Mary Zeiss Stange explains in the introduction to Heart Shots that perfect shot placement, whether of bullet or arrow, which ensures a quick, humane kill. A heart shot is also what the best hunting writing has always aimed for: that certain image or theme or turn of phrase that strikes to the core of our flesh and blood, humanity piercing the tissue-thin membrane between life and death. Hunting and writing about it have not commonly been thought of as women's work, but today women are hunting and writing about it in unprecedented numbers. This collection of stories by 46 hunters who happen to be female shows us that in fact some women have always hunted, and some have written dazzling accounts of their experiences. What you'll find in Heart Shots is nature and basics and to express in narrative, image, and metaphor the complex meaning of being predator. Such impulses are ageless and genderless. There are differences in the way women go about hunting and telling its story Some are subtle and some are startling In this marvelous collection a full range of writers from hard edged realists to contemplative naturalists express the complex thought and emotion that constitute hunting with intelligence and insight These women are aware of the fact that they are doing something distinctly out of the ordinary And this is a book distinctly out of the ordinary as well to be enjoyed pondered and savored by women and men alike all who appreciate a good story well told Stories and essays written by Mary Jobe Akeley Kim Barnes Nellie Bennett Durga Bernhard Courtney Borden and many more
