The Lamb's War Jan de Hartog ,1979 The Emergence of Quaker Writing T. Corns,D. Loewenstein,2018-05-11

Among the radical sects which flourished during the tumultuous years of the English Revolution the early Quakers were particularly aware of the power of the written word to promote their prophetic visions and unorthodox beliefs This collection of new essays by literary scholars and historians looks at the diversity of seventeenth century Quaker writing examining its rhetoric its polemical strategies its purposeful use of the print medium and the heroism and vehemence of its world vision

Quakerism: The Basics Margery Post Abbott,Carl Abbott,2020-12-14 Quakerism The Basics is an accessible and engaging introduction to the history and diverse approaches and ideas associated with the Religious Society of Friends This small religion incorporates a wide geographic spread and varied beliefs that range from evangelical Christians to non theists Topics covered include Quaker values in action The first generations of Quakerism Quakerism in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Belief and activism Worship and practice Quakerism around the world The future of Quakerism With helpful features including suggested readings timelines a glossary and a guide to Quakers in fiction this book is an ideal starting point for students and scholars approaching Quakerism for the first time as well as those interested in deepening their understanding Bulletin ,1917 The Fearless Benjamin Lay Marcus Rediker,2017-09-05 The Fearless Benjamin

Lay chronicles the transatlantic life and times of a singular and astonishing man a Quaker dwarf who became one of the first ever to demand the total unconditional emancipation of all enslaved Africans around the world He performed public guerrilla theatre to shame slave masters insisting that human bondage violated the fundamental principles of Christianity He wrote a fiery controversial book against bondage that Benjamin Franklin published in 1738 He lived in a cave made his own clothes refused to consume anything produced by slave labour championed animal rights and embraced vegetarianism He acted on his ideals to create a new practical revolutionary way of life The Bulletin Missouri. James,2004-09-01 Prisons constitute one of the most controversial and contested sites in a democratic society The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the industrialized world with over 2 million people in jails prisons and detention centers with over three thousand on death row it is also one of the few developed countries that continues to deploy the death penalty International Human Rights Organizations such as Amnesty International have also noted the scores of political prisoners in U S detention This anthology examines a class of intellectuals whose analyses of U S society politics culture and social justice are rarely referenced in conventional political speech or academic discourse Yet this body of outlawed public intellectuals offers some of the most incisive analyses of our society and shared humanity Here former and current U S political prisoners and activists writers from the civil rights black power women s gay lesbian American Indian Puerto Rican Independence and anti war movements share varying progressive critiques and theories on radical democracy and revolutionary struggle This rarely referenced resistance literature reflects the growing public interest in incarceration sites intellectual and political dissent for social justice and the possibilities of democratic transformations Such anthologies also spark new discussions and debates about reading for as Barbara Harlow notes Reading prison writing must demand a correspondingly activist counterapproach to that of passivity aesthetic gratification and the pleasures of consumption that are traditionally sanctioned by the academic disciplining of literature Barbara Harlow 1 1 Barbara Harlow Barred Women Writing and Political Detention New England Wesleyan University Press 1992 Royalties are reserved for educational initiatives on human rights and U S incarceration Agricultural Situation ,1947-05 Fighting the Lamb's War Philip Berrigan,Fred A.
