Lancaster At War 3:

Legion of the Lancasters Martin W. Bowman,2023-01-05 S the had already decided to use his nose armament against the 4 mot four engined bomber He looked out and focused on a black shape of the Britisher Small bluish exhaust flames made it easier to keep the target in sight Four engines twin tail were recorded almost subconsciously No sudden movement that might attract their attention Calm now Guns armed Night sight switched on Everything OK Now he could see that it was a Lancaster crossing gently from starboard to port He applied a little more power and approached cautiously Now he was exactly behind him at about 100 metres range The rear turret was clearly recognisable Br nies kept silent Pauke Pauke Kettledrums Kettledrums S the announced with a cry Br nies immediately transmitted Ich beruhe Then they closed in rapidly for the kill One can almost smell the flak taste the cordite and experience the nervous twitch before jumping out of one s skin to the sound of exploding shells and detonating bombs in this pulsating and highly intriguing selection of never before told stories recalled largely by members of the revered Lancaster crews of RAF Bomber Command From this bomber s introduction into service in 1942 with the famous if flawed raid on Augsburg on 17 April that year to the attacks on the Tirpitz in 1944 each chapter is a tribute to the spirit of those who flew the Lanc in anger and gained the respect of their enemies   The Job To Be Done Clint L. Coffey,2023-01-12 A unique blend of historical narrative and personal memoir this is the powerful true story of seven young men including the author s father who served in Bomber Command in World War Two Based on a pilot s logbook and years of research this beautifully crafted historical exploration follows the young airmen through training and then vividly relates their experiences in almost sixty combat operations against targets in Germany and France The story of their lives after returning home including the burdens they carried with them is told with empathy and compassion The Job To Be Done is a compelling combination of original WW2 records and historical fact with thoughtful analysis and insights Using unique maps photographs logbook pages and interviews and anecdotes it crafts a deeply personal story that will resonate with fans of both military history and memoir The Job To Be Done is a heartfelt tribute and a uniquely rewarding reading experience   The Lancaster at War Various,1996   British Regiments 1914-1918 Brigadier E. A. James,2012-09-06 One of the most used and most useful works of reference on the Great War ever published In this marvellous volume is listed every cavalry and Yeomanry regiment every battalion of every infantry regiment Regular Territorial or other that existed during the Great War In every case the location of the unit on 4 August 1914 is given or the date and place of its formation if raised after the outbreak of war Its initial disposition subsequent moves changes in subordination and final disposal or location on 11 November 1918 are all recorded Thus in a masterly and concise form we have the war service record of 31 regular and 17 reserve cavalry regiments 57 Yeomanry regiments and their second and third line counterparts and nearly 1 750 infantry battalions Several appendices contain a mine of information a table of the infantry regiments showing the number of the different types of battalions each had regular reserve extra reserve territorial
