Land And The:

Wealth, Land, and Property in Angola Mariana P. Candido, 2022-09-29 Exploring the multifaceted history of dispossession consumption and inequality in West Central Africa Mariana P Candido presents a bold revisionist history of Angola from the sixteenth century until the Berlin Conference of 1884 5 Synthesising disparate strands of scholarship including the histories of slavery land tenure and gender in West Central Africa Candido makes a significant contribution to ongoing historical debates She demonstrates how ideas about dominion and land rights eventually came to inform the appropriation and enslavement of free people and their labour By centring the experiences of West Central Africans and especially African women this book challenges dominant historical narratives and shows that securing property was a gendered process Drawing attention to how archives obscure African forms of knowledge and normalize conquest Candido interrogates simplistic interpretations of ownership and pushes for the decolonization of African history

New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L. James, 2017-09-27 What will the final state of the redeemed look like Throughout the history of the church conceptions of the final state have tended to minimize the promise of the new heavens and new earth In contrast to the historical dominance of spiritual heavenly non temporal conceptions of the final state the last two decades have witnessed a rise in conceptions that include the redemption of material earthly and temporal reality These new creation conceptions have included proposals regarding the fulfillment of Old Testament land promises In New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L James argues that in recent new creation conceptions of the final state there is a logical inconsistency between the use of Old Testament texts to inform a renewed earth and the exclusion of the territory of Israel from that renewed earth By examining a select group of new creationists James shows that the exclusion of the territorial restoration of Israel in a new creation conception fails to appreciate the role of the particular territory in Old Testament prophetic texts and results in an inconsistent new creationism

All life forms on earth are complementary to each other the existence and survival of one depend on the existence of another and vice versa However no life forms are more dependent on others than human beings Humans very survival is conditioned by the existence of the natural environment and the living things within it One aspect of this interaction is the central and inescapable role played by human culture in defining the human nature relationship This book emphasises that environmental conservation is a matter of moral and cultural ethics It stresses the fact that existing environmental conservation methods need to accommodate traditional environmental knowledge and practices of different indigenous
