Land In Her Own Name:

Land in Her Own Name H. Elaine Lindgren, 1991 Land is often known by the names of past owners Emma's Land Gina's quarter and the Ingeborg Land are reminders of the many women who homesteaded across North Dakota in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Land in Her Own Name records these homesteaders experiences as revealed in interviews with surviving homesteaders and their families and friends land records letters and diaries These women's fascinating accounts tell of locating a claim erecting a shelter and living on the prairie Their ethnic backgrounds include Yankee Scandinavian German and German Russian as well as African American Jewish and Lebanese Some were barely twenty one while others had reached their sixties A few lived on their land for life and never borrowed a cent against it others sold or rented the land to start a small business or to provide money for education New Jersey Equity Reports

Choices Jennifer L. Solotaroff, Aphichoke Kotikula, Tara Lonnberg, Snigdha Ali, Ferdous Jahan, 2019-06-06 Women have experienced significant changes in various spheres of their lives during the last decades as Bangladesh made economic progress Yet women's economic engagement and empowerment are subdued as they cannot make sufficient choices for themselves This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the economic developments in gender equality in Bangladesh Through examining women's participation in the labour force ownership and control of household assets use and control of financial assets and opportunities for entrepreneurship the authors have made concrete recommendations to overcome challenges that lie ahead for women's economic empowerment This book is an important contribution to the knowledge on interventions required by the policy makers and broader stakeholders towards narrowing gender gaps Fahmida Khatun PhD Executive Director Centre for Policy Dialogue CPD Bangladesh The women's story is central to Bangladesh's economic and social transformation There is an urgent need to deepen researched understanding of the multidimensional pathways of women's economic empowerment and extent of real progress made Voices to Choices is an important contribution to this story Surely the journey of women's economic empowerment remains a long and challenging one Realizing the full benefits of new opportunities is often hampered by both new and entrenched insecurities The task is as much one of empowering women's agency as of dismantling barriers The responsibility is as much women's as society's Hossain Zillur Rahman PhD Executive Chairman Power and Participation Research Centre PPRC This book provides critical insights and is timely as it outlines how girls and women in Bangladesh have gained more opportunities in labor force participation control over household and financial assets as well as greater prospects for entrepreneurship The findings will greatly contribute to future policy and planning for government and key stakeholders working to advance women's economic empowerment in the country Sabina Faiz Rashid PhD Dean and Professor BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health BRAC University
