Hegels Transcendental Induction Suny Series In Hegelian Studies:

Hegel's Transcendental Induction Peter Simpson, 1998-01-01 Hegel's Transcendental Induction challenges the orthodox account of Hegelian phenomenology as a hyper rationalism arguing that Hegel's insistence on the primacy of experience in the development of scientific knowledge amounts to a kind of empiricism or inductive epistemology While the inductive element does not exclude an emphasis on deductive demonstration as well Hegel's phenomenological description of knowledge demonstrates why knowing becomes scientific only to the extent that it recognizes its dependence on experience Simpson's argument closely parallels Hegel's own in the Phenomenology of Spirit highlighting those sections like Hegel's analysis of mastery and slavery that contribute to the argument that knowing is both vulnerable and responsive to the way in which experience resists our attempts to make sense of things Simpson's argument connects his account of Hegelian phenomenology with traditional accounts of induction and with a number of other commentators The central thesis about the inductive development of the Phenomenology is worked out with care This thesis allows the author to present fresh and often compelling re readings of such often commented on themes as the natural consciousness desire slavery morality and forgiveness Since Hegel himself does not describe his method in terms of induction this book suggests a truly interesting shift of perspective on the Phenomenology Daniel Berthold Bond Bard College

Bibliografisch Repertorium Van de Wijsbegeerte ,1998      Review of religious research ,1987      Hegel's Transcendental Induction Peter Alan Simpson,1993      The Philosopher's Index ,1988      Hegel's Phenomenology of Self-Consciousness Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,Leo Rauch,David Sherman,1999-01-01 Presents a new translation with commentary of chapter IV Self Consciousness of Hegel s Phenomenology of Spirit      Hegel's Grand Synthesis Daniel Berthold-Bond,1989-07-03 This book offers the first genuinely systematic treatment of Hegel s eschatology in the literature It is an investigation into Hegel s project to demonstrate the ultimate unity of thought and being consciousness and reality self and world The author traces the project through Hegel s epistemology metaphysics and philosophy of history The grand synthesis creates a basic tension an ambivalence that reaches its most acute formulation in Hegel s eschatological language of a final completion or fulfillment of history This conflicts with his dialectic and Heraclitian metaphysics of becoming Berthold Bond concludes that a substantially new approach to Hegel s eschatology is needed      Who's Who in Science and Engineering 2008-2009 Who's Who Marquis,Marquis Who's Who,2007-12      Hegel's Hermeneutics Paul Redding,1996 An advance on recent revisionist thinking about Hegelian philosophy this book interprets Hegel s achievement as part of a revolutionary modernization of ancient philosophical thought initiated by Kant      Hegel's Transcendental Ontology Giorgi Lebanidze,2018-12-14 Hegel s Transcendental Ontology argues that Hegel presents the kernel of his metaphysics in the Doctrine of the Concept the final part of his Science of Logic The Concept has three moments universality a process through which conceptual content of empirical determinations is formed particularity a holistic system of inferentially interrelated determinations comprising the totality of conceptual content and individuality the totality of objects conditioned by the shared system of empirical determinations that comprise the particular moment The book details these three moments as well as the specific schema of their relation to one another One of its aims is to offer a resolution to the recent debate between Kantian and traditional metaphysics based readings of Hegel that has been dominating Hegel scholarship The author claims that Hegel walked a narrow path between Scylla of offering just another version of the traditional kind of metaphysics and Charybdis of abstaining from making any substantive claims about the nature of reality and focusing exclusively on the analysis of the faculty of understanding Hegel left behind traditional approaches to the problems of metaphysics and through a radical reformulation of the relationship between thought and being proposed a new kind of metaphysics that is Kantian through and through      The Secret of Hegel James Hutchison Stirling,1865      Hegel's Dialectic of Desire and Recognition Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel,John O'Neill,1996-01-01 This book presents three generations of German French and Anglo American thinking on the Hegelian narrative of desire recognition and alienation in life labor and language a narrative that has been subject to extensive commentary in philosophy literature psychoanalysis and feminist thought The texts focus on a central topos in Western thought the story of self consciousness awakened in nature and in history John O'Neill argues that current postmodern rejections of the Hegelian Marxist narrative demand an understanding of the texts included here Without Hegel and Marx in our toolbox he argues we will flounder in a world marked by the split between postmodern indifference and premodern passion The book makes a strong selection from the history of Hegelian Marxist debate hermeneutical and critical theory and Freudian Lacanian and feminist commentary on the dialectic of desire and recognition on the levels of social psychology and political economy Included are articles by Karl Marx G W F Hegel Alexandre Kojve Jean Hyppolite Jean Paul Sarte Georg Lukacs J rgen Habermas Hans Georg Gadamer Howard Adelman Shlomo Avineri Jessica Benjamin Edward S Casey and J Melvin Woody Henry S Harris George Armstrong Kelly Ludwig Siep Judith N Shklar and Henry Sussman The texts and commentaries show how the Hegelian Marxist narrative of desire recognition and alienation is a contested story one in which class race and gender issues are drawn into a historical romance that is being rewritten in contemporary cultural politics      The Secret of Hegel James Hutchison Stirling, 1865
