Preface Only by True Faith Arthur Van Delden, 2008 In the era when the church was undergoing a great Reformation there were three men who are known only to a few in our days but nonetheless three men who were blessed both with godly fear and understanding of Holy Scripture There was a prince a preacher and a professor Through these three men God provided His people with leadership and instruction We who live so many years later still benefit from the labours of these men for it is they who wrote our beloved Catechism In this we see God s covenant faithfulness in that He continues to preserve the faith of the fathers and gives it to the children as an inheritance through the generations This is the first of two volumes that were written to teach adolescents about the Heidelberg Catechism Each Lord s Day is explained and followed by a series of questions to promote reflection and discussion

The Heidelberg Catechism John Williamson Nevin, John Williams Proudfit, 2021-01-05 This volume is a collection of essays on the Heidelberg Catechism by John Nevin a principal representative of the Mercersburg Theology that was birthed in nineteenth century Pennsylvania It also contains a critical response by John Proudfit a more traditionally scholastic Calvinist In these essays Nevin argued that the Heidelberg Catechism is an essential irenic confessional document that encapsulates the Reformed tradition and also builds bridges to Lutheranism and Roman Catholicism According to Nevin the use of the Catechism is vital for shaping the identity of Christians and overcoming the dangers of individualism and subjectivism Nevin s enthusiasm for the Catechism was a function of his understanding of the Christian life as progressive growth in Christlikeness the church as the nurturing body of Christ and the sacraments as conduits of Christ s vivifying personhood These convictions stood in sharp contrast to the non catechetical sensibilities of most nineteenth century American Protestants who emphasized the sufficiency of Scripture alone the church as a gathered community of like minded individuals dramatic conversion experiences and the direct presence of Christ to the individual soul
