Popkova, Bruno S. Sergi, 2020-02-22 This book presents advanced research studies on the topic of artificial intelligence as a component of social and economic relations and processes It gathers research papers from the International Research to Practice Conference The 21st Century from the Positions of Modern Science Intellectual Digital and Innovative Aspects May 23 24 2019 Nizhny Novgorod Russia and the International Research to Practice Conference Economics of Pleasure a Science of Enjoying Economic Activities October 3 5 2019 Prague Czech Republic Both conferences were organized by the Autonomous Non Profit Organization Institute of Scientific Communications Volgograd What sets this book apart from other publications on the topic of artificial intelligence is that it approaches AI not as a technological tool but as an economic entity Bringing together papers by representatives of various fields of social and human knowledge it systematically reflects on various economic social and legal aspects of the creation application and development of artificial intelligence Given the multidisciplinary nature of its content the book will appeal to a broad target audience including those engaged in developing AI scientific research institutes and universities and Industry 4.0 enterprises interested in its implementation as well as state regulators for the digital economy Defense

Engagement since 1900 Greg Kennedy, 2020-05-20 There is more to defense than military might and more to the military than a fighting force At a moment of global upheaval domestic turmoil and political uncertainty this timely volume seeks to define and reframe the terms of defense engagement the use of military capabilities to exert soft power influence as opposed to hard power military force Defense Engagement since 1900 is a work of applied military history that brings lessons of the past to bear on current issues In a number of case studies spanning the twentieth century and the globe the authors explore various dimensions of defense engagement Their work which attempts to recast the role of a state's military from wielder of force to employer of power is squarely aimed at tackling the causes of designated security threats and not merely managing their consequences The chapters by scholars and practitioners representing diverse points of view focus primarily on the British experience perhaps the most extensive example of the use of military power in a nonmartial fashion in pursuit of policy goals However the chapters also consider events in the United States Canada Japan the Middle East and Africa Intelligence diplomacy deterrence alliances coalitions and networks all are within the authors scope as they address the need to use a wide range of attributes and capabilities associated with military power in various contemporary conflicts and national security strategies The understanding their work provides will prove critically important to strategic thinkers of our day as democratic states increasingly contend with hybrid subthreshold and Gray Zone warfare Redefining Language

Education Through Critical Language Pedagogy Palacios-Hidalgo, Francisco Javier, Huertas-Abril, Cristina A., 2025-02-20 Critical language pedagogy CLP redefines language education by integrating critical theory and social justice perspectives aiming to foster critical thinking social awareness and empowerment It emerged from the understanding that language and power are intertwined emphasizing the need for teaching that goes beyond linguistic proficiency By applying critical theory CLP challenges power structures social inequities and cultural norms that shape language use encouraging reflective practices and liberatory education It promotes social justice by addressing linguistic inequalities and advocating for inclusivity in language education Further research into CLP may empower learners to critically engage with language in the context of broader societal issues questioning and transforming societal norms Redefining Language Education Through Critical Language Pedagogy explores multiple areas of CLP including theoretical foundations of critical language teaching strategies and guidelines for integrating CLP into the language classroom and practical examples of how to integrate socially and culturally relevant topics in the teaching process to promote CLP It examines various linguistic inequalities offering strategies for inclusive and accessible language education This book covers topics such as higher education social justice and sustainable development and is a useful resource for educators academicians linguists sociologists and researchers
