Wayne Gordon,2010-10-26 An expert in the law once asked Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life and his question initiated a very interesting conversation The Law says to love your neighbor as yourself Jesus pointed out so the next logical question is Who is my neighbor Rather than offering the lawyer an exhaustive list of neighbors and non neighbors Jesus told a story a story we know as the Parable of the Good Samaritan Out of that famous parable Dr Wayne Gordon draws more than 40 characteristics of the man who was beaten robbed and left for dead on the road to Jericho the character Jesus created to show Christians how to recognize their neighbors Dr Gordon brings that character vividly to life in Who Is My Neighbor and helps readers use Jesus parable as a reference point for their interactions in their community and the world And as readers catch Jesus vision of neighborliness they will also find practical suggestions for meeting needs and changing the lives of those around them that is their neighbors

Pressing Toward the Mark E. Hammond Oglesby,2007-06-01 E Hammond Oglesby offers a new method of moral discourse that can speak to ongoing critical issues in the black community such as the AIDS pandemic an absence of young adult participation in many black churches and a continuing battle against racism In Pressing Toward the Mark he demonstrates that ordinary people of faith become ethical not by chance but by choice He also helps readers understand the importance of Christian ethics in light of the deep spiritual and cultural roots of the black church in America Through stories theological reflection and case studies meant to encourage small group discussion Oglesby builds a case that Christian ethics begins in the rhythmic flux of the black religious experience with a love of freedom because no child of God can be fully Christian without being free Galatians 5:1
