Cogs in the Classroom Factory Deborah M. Herman, Julie M. Schmid, 2003-02-28 Brings together essays by tenure track faculty adjuncts and graduate employees from a variety of disciplines and geographical regions in an analysis of the changing identity of academic labor The essays included suggest alternatives for responding to the ongoing erosion of tenure and academic freedom and reshaping the academic workplace Contributors discuss the impact of today's casualized academic job market on faculty's self perception political action and responses to the changing nature of higher education The essays included in this collection address a number of topics including today's academic labor situation from an educational history perspective the development of an academic worker identity via the build up to a strike the graduate employee union movement unionization as a social justice movement faculty unionization and workplace solidarity the potential culture clash between professional and blue collar unions the faculty's complicity in the creation of a two tiered job system and the othering of adjunct and non tenure track faculty By focusing on the state of the academic job system on their campuses the contributors to this volume suggest some alternatives for responding to the ongoing erosion of tenure and academic freedom in higher education and reshaping the academic workplace Politics and Ideology in Canada Michael Ornstein, Michael Stevenson, 2003-02-18 Winner of the Harold Adams Innis Prize Politics and Ideology in Canada examines a period of crucial historical change in Canada beginning in the mid 1970s when the crisis of the Keynesian welfare state precipitated a transition to a new political order based on the progressive downsizing of state involvement in the economy and society Using class and ideology as key concepts Michael Ornstein and Michael Stevenson examine this transition in terms of the nature of hegemony and hegemonic crisis and the conditions of political order and instability These concepts guide the interpretation of three large surveys of representative samples of the Canadian public and two unique elite surveys conducted between 1975 and 1981 The surveys cover an exceptionally broad spectrum of political issues including social programs civil and economic rights economic policy foreign ownership labour relations and language issues and sovereignty A wide ranging analysis of public and elite attitudes reveals a hegemonic order through the early 1980s built around public support for the institutions of the Canadian welfare state But there was also widespread public alienation from politics Public opinion was quite strongly linked to class but not to party politics Regional variation in political ideology on a broad range of issues was less pronounced than differences between Quebec and English Canada Much deeper ideological divisions separated the elites with a dramatic polarization between corporate and labour respondents State elites fell between these two though generally more favourable to capital The responses of the business elites reveal the ideological roots of the Mulroney years in support for cuts in social programs free trade privatization and deregulation Absent Citizens Michael J.
