fulfill when he returned home was to tell the other members of his tribe where he had been what he had seen and what he had done That is what the author attempts to do in this book For instance he tells of Dealings with raccoons both tame and wild How to rescue a skunk from a storm drain Home made animal traps What constitutes a successful backwoods fox hunt How kingfishers and sparrow hawks mourn their dead Why bluebirds are scarce Why a killdeer will tease a dog Where to find bluegills in the Ohio River or smelt in the Niagara River A box turtle s prediction of dry weather and rain Living where copperheads live Playing with garter snakes How to find a bee tree The very different lives and habits of hornets brown wasps and mud dauber wasps Sleeping with bedbugs The psychological warfare of the deer fly When to look for snow fleas How to recognize chamomile by its aroma The scarcity of ginseng Trouble with jack in the pulpit Using jimson weed to kill flies The forms and effects of poison ivy Why black raspberries grow in smaller patches than red raspberries Making use of elderberries How Indians used acorns as food Growing black walnut trees from seed There are no pictures in this book Those would greatly increase the size and nbs

Memoirs of a Porcupine Alain Mabanckou, 2012-04-01 All human beings says an African legend have an animal double Some doubles are benign others wicked This legend comes to life in Alain Mabanckou's outlandish surreal and charmingly nonchalant Memoirs of a Porcupine When Kibandi a boy living in a Congolese village reaches the age of 11 his father takes him out into the night and forces him to drink a vile liquid from a jar that has been hidden for years in the earth This is his initiation From now on he and his double a porcupine become accomplices in murder They attack neighbors fellow villagers and people who simply cross their path for reasons so slight that it is virtually impossible to establish connection between the killings As he grows older Kibandi relies on his double to act out his grizzly compulsions until one day even the porcupine balks and turns instead to literary confession Winner of the Prix Renaudot France's equal to the National Book Award Alain Mabanckou is considered one of the most talented writers today He was selected by the French journal Lire as one of fifty writers to watch this coming century And as Peter Carey suggests he positions himself at the margins tapping the tradition founded by Celine Genet and other subversive writers In this superb and striking story Mabanckou brings new power to magical realism and is sure to excite American audiences nationwide
