Catholic Prayer Book for Mothers Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle, 2017-04-12 A Glimpse Into the Future If a woman could ever get a glimpse at what her world would be when she becomes a mother she would be presented with the reality that her innermost desires and life plans would be altered or put on hold because she would be inundated with the care of others If she was also allowed to glimpse the unending joy she would receive as a mother there would be no pause to consider no hesitation as she embraced the whole package knowing in her heart that her children will become her life's desires From Catholic Prayer Book for Mothers You'll find Original and traditional prayers and inspiration for mothers of all ages A wonderful gift for mothers and grandmothers The perfect baptismal gift from the parish to a new mom

Mothers in the Fatherland Claudia Koonz, 2013-05-07 From extensive research including a remarkable interview with the unrepentant chief of Hitler's Women's Bureau this book traces the roles played by women as followers victims and resisters in the rise of Nazism Originally publishing in 1987 it is an important contribution to the understanding of women's status culpability resistance and victimisation at all levels of German society and a record of astonishing ironies and paradoxical morality of compromise and courage of submission and survival

Mothering a Bodied Curriculum Stephanie Springgay, Debra Freedman, 2012-02-10 This collection considers how embodiment mothering and curriculum theory are related to practices in education that silence conceal and limit gendered raced and sexual maternal bodies Advancing a new understanding of the maternal body it argues for a bodied curriculum a practice that attends to the relational social and ethical implications of being with other bodies differently and to the different knowledges such bodily encounters produce Contributors argue that the prevailing silence about the maternal body in educational scholarship reinforces the binary split between domestic and public spaces family life and work one's own children and others children and women's roles as mothers or others Providing an interdisciplinary perspective in which postmodern ideas about the body interact with those of learning and teaching

Mothering a Bodied Curriculum brings theory and practice together into an ever evolving conversation

Catholics in the Movies Colleen McDannell, 2008 Catholicism was all over movie screens in 2004 Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ was at the center of a media firestorm for months A priest was a crucial character in the Academy Award winning Million Dollar Baby Everyone it seemed was talking about how religious stories should be represented marketed and received Catholic characters spaces and rituals have been stock features in popular films since the silent era An intensely visual religion with a well defined ritual and authority system Catholicism lends itself to the drama and pageantry of film Moviegoers watch as Catholic visionaries interact with the supernatural priests counsel their flocks reformers fight for social justice and bishops wield authoritarian power Rather than being marginal to American popular culture Catholic people places and rituals are all central to the world of the movie Catholics in the Movies begins with an introductory essay that orients readers to the ways that films appear in culture and describes the broad trends that can be seen in the movies hundred year history of representing Catholics Each chapter is written by a noted scholar of American religion who concentrates on one movie that engages important historical artistic and religious issues and then places the film within American cultural and social history discusses the film as an expression of Catholic concerns of the period and relates the film to others of its genre Tracing the story of American Catholic history through popular films Catholics in the Movies should be a valuable resource for anyone interested in American Catholicism and religion and film

Mothers Who Deliver Jocelyn Fenton Stitt, Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2010-09-01 New directions in thinking about

mothering Our Friend Faustina Michele Faehnle, Emily Jaminet, 2024-04-30 In this joy filled anthology Michele Faehnle and Emily Jaminet the writing team behind Divine Mercy for Moms present modern women's testimonies to the powerful witness and intercession of St Faustina Kowalska 1905-1938 in their busy lives The View from the Border John Kotre, 2017-07-28 In this unique psychological study John Kotre provides some startling answers to the questions Catholics are now asking about those who abandon the church those who remain in it and those who attempt to create a new church within the church A detailed examination of the borderline between membership and ex membership in the Catholic Church as perceived by young adults reared within the Catholic educational system the book provides an impressive substantive contribution to understanding not only of the modern church but of organizational change in general Kotre himself a product of the Catholic educational system positions himself amid the tension and ambiguity between those who consider themselves in and those who consider themselves out of the Catholic Church He designed a systematic questionnaire covering four hundred variables about each subject's beliefs values perceptions of parents and reasons for being an insider or an outsider Using this questionnaire he individually interviewed one hundred graduates of Catholic colleges The surprising results of this important research show that in spite of sixteen years of formal Catholic education the attitudes of both the ins and the outs are not influenced by their Catholic upbringing so much as by their primary group relationships Recent research has shown that adult Americans are leaving their childhood faiths at ever increasing rates and that the Catholic Church is suffering the greatest losses Kotre's book offers an insightful psychological perspective on this dramatic movement It is a must read for professional psychologists and sociologists theologians and people interested in the psychology and sociology of religion

Mothering, Time, and Antimaternalism Mary Trigg, 2023-02-24 The book aims to broaden understanding of the diverse positions and meanings of motherhood by investigating understudied and marginalized mothers rural itinerant African American and Irish Catholic American between 1920 and 1960 Fuelled by anxieties around feminism a perception of men's loss of status and masculinity racial tensions and fears about immigration antimaternalism discourse blamed mothers for a wide range of social ills in the first half of the 20th Century Mothering Time and Antimaternalism considers the ideas practices and depictions of antimaternalism and the ways that mothers responded Religion class race ethnicity gender and immigration status are all analysed as factors shaping maternal experience The book develops the historical context of American motherhood between 1920 and 1960 examining how changing ideas scientific motherhood time efficiency devaluation of domesticity racial and religious bias influenced the construction and experiences of motherhood This is a fascinating and important book suitable for students and scholars in history gender studies cultural studies and sociology
