James Scarth Gale, 2021-04-07 Redemption and Regret presents two previously unpublished typescripts of James Scarth Gale a Canadian missionary to Korea for four decades 1888 1927 During his time in Korea Gale developed into the foremost Western scholar of Korean history language and literature completing the first translation of Korean literature into a Western language the first translation of English literature into Korean and the first comprehensive Korean English dictionary In addition to these translations the typescripts entitled Pen Pictures of Old Korea ca 1910 and Old Corea ca 1925 each presented here with introductory essays contain Gale s observations of various cultural artifacts behaviours and practices Gale lived in Korea during a tumultuous and transformative period that witnessed the transition of the country from a hermit suzerain kingdom to an independent empire and finally to a colonial possession of Japan Pen Pictures of Old Korea and Old Corea preserve what Gale viewed as inevitably fated for extinction This realization imbues his writings with a sense of ambivalence towards the passing of traditional Korea owing to the conflict between his profound admiration for pre modern Korean culture and his Western missionary identity which demanded that the country adapt to a modern Christian world

Shakespeare and East Asia Alexa Alice Joubin, 2021-01-26 Structured around modes in which one might encounter Asian themed performances and adaptations Shakespeare and East Asia identifies four themes that distinguish post 1950s East Asian cinemas and theatres from works in other parts of the world Japanese formalistic innovations in sound and spectacle reparative adaptations from China Taiwan and Hong Kong the politics of gender and reception of films and touring productions in South Korea and the UK and multilingual diaspora works in Singapore and the UK These adaptations break new ground in sound and spectacle they serve as a vehicle for artistic and political remediation or in some cases the critique of the myth of reparative interpretations of literature they provide a forum where diasporic artists and audiences can grapple with contemporary issues and through international circulation they are reshaping debates about the relationship between East Asia and Europe Bringing film and theatre studies together this book sheds new light on the two major genres in a comparative context and reveals deep structural and narratological connections among Asian and Anglophone performances These adaptations are products of metacinematic and metatheatrical operations contestations among genres for primacy or experimentations with features of both film and theatre Seeing into the Future Martin van Creveld,2020-06-15 The ability to predict the future is essential to modern life Planning for population growth or changes in weather patterns or forecasting demand for products and managing inventories would be impossible without it But how have people through the ages gone about making predictions What were their underlying assumptions and what methods did they use Have increased computer power and the newest algorithms improved our success in anticipating the future or are we still only as good or as bad as our ancestors bent over their auguries From the ancients watching the flight of birds to the murky activities of Google and Facebook today Seeing into the Future provides vital insight into the past present and of course future of prediction
