our sisters and brothers This book is a biography of Mother Saraswati the great tapasvini Brahmacharini female ascetic whose stage was devoid of even a trace of desires she was the complete renunciate unconditional server and female jewel adorned with all virtues and codes of conduct Although she was a young unmarried girl she became a loving Mother to over 350 children of the initial yagya not to mention thousands of Brahma s children who came later on She nurtured and sustained them with knowledge and yoga decorated them with divine virtues thus making them yogis and yogya worthy This book is a compilation of some experiences by the highly fortunate children of the initial yagya as well as those who emerged in the early years of Godly service who took sustenance from her or came into her contact These experiences have come from various sources some were sent in writing or extracted from personal interviews and others were derived from the archive of Gyan Amrit and The World Renewal Monthly Publications Audio tapes of lectures by Dadis and Dadas Senior Sisters and Brothers who are no longer with us have been transcribed as well Whilst relating their experiences with Mama many brothers and sisters became lost in past memories a few became emotional and shed pearls of love from their eyes Some were so overcome with emotion that they were tongue tied and had to excuse themselves for a few minutes We even met some sisters whose eyes radiated a powerful sparkle when they talked about Mama Every sister or brother said the same thing Mateshwari belonged only to me She loved me the most These sisters and brothers are truly multi million fold fortunate for having practically seen known heard and taken the lap of that Mother Sustainer First Shakti Benefactor of All Mateshwari Once in Pandav Bhawan courtyard Brother Jagdish Chander was having a conversation with resident sisters and brothers of Madhuban and said I am hundred fold fortunate for having personally met Jagadamba Saraswati in my lifetime The one whom people worship as the Goddess of Wisdom what was she like What were her specialities It is very beneficial and indeed the greatest achievement of life to even listen to the experiences of those who have spent part of their life with her No one should miss the opportunity of reading experiences by Senior Sisters and Brothers who have lived and personally heard Mama speak They have seen Mother Saraswati s specialities listened to her lullaby and sweet words been blessed by her drishti experienced coolness in her lap received love and affection and thereby progressed in life Experiences are life s most invaluable treasures According to drama there are many who have been deprived of Mama s sustenance in the sakar corporeal form and so they should attentively listen to and read others experiences of being in her company Along with these motivational words from Brother Jagdish our sources of inspiration have constantly been Respected Dadiji Brother Nirwair and other Senior Brothers and Sisters We offer them our gratitude and appreciation We are grateful to the co operative sisters and brothers incognito and otherwise who have made this book possible And lastly our thanks in million fold to the main sources of inspiration behind this auspicious book our Most Beloved Supreme Father the Most Revered Purest of all Incorporeal Supreme Soul Shiva and Supreme Mother Angelic Brahma Baba Ancient Ocean Crossings Stephen C. Jett,2017-06-06 Paints a compelling picture of impressive pre Columbian cultures and Old World civilizations that contrary to many prevailing notions were not isolated from one another In Ancient Ocean Crossings Reconsidering the Case for Contacts with the Pre Columbian Americas Stephen Jett encourages readers to reevaluate the common belief that there was no significant interchange between the chiefdoms and civilizations of Eurasia and Africa and peoples who occupied the alleged terra incognita beyond the great oceans More than a hundred centuries separate the time that Ice Age hunters are conventionally thought to have crossed a land bridge from Asia into North America and the arrival of Columbus in the Bahamas in 1492 Traditional belief has long held that earth's two hemispheres were essentially cut off from one another as a result of the post Pleistocene meltwater fed rising oceans that covered that bridge The oceans along with arctic climates and daunting terrestrial distances formed impermeable barriers to interhemispheric communication This viewpoint implies that the cultures of the Old World and those of the Americas developed independently Drawing on abundant and concrete evidence to support his theory for significant pre Columbian contacts Jett suggests that many ancient peoples had both the seafaring capabilities and the motives to cross the oceans and in fact did so repeatedly and with great impact His deep and broad work synthesizes information and ideas from archaeology geography linguistics climatology oceanography ethnobotany genetics medicine and the history of navigation and seafaring making an innovative and persuasive multidisciplinary case for a new understanding of human societies and their diffuse but interconnected development
