Contemplative Literature Louis Komjathy, 2015-08-31 An anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer from a wide range of religious traditions This is the first theoretically informed and historically accurate comparative anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer Written by international experts on the respective texts and corresponding traditions Contemplative Literature provides introductions to and primary sources on contemplative practice from various religious traditions The contributors explore classical Daoist apophatic meditation Quaker silent prayer Jewish Kabbalah Southern Buddhist meditation Sufi contemplation Eastern Orthodox prayer Pure Land Buddhist visualization Hindu classical Yoga Dominican Catholic prayer Daoist internal alchemy and modern therapeutic meditation Each introduction to a contemplative text discusses its historical context the associated religious tradition and literature the method of contemplative practice and the text's legacy and influence Volume editor Louis Komjathy opens the work with a thoughtful consideration of interpretive issues in the emerging interdisciplinary field of contemplative studies Readers will gain not only a nuanced understanding of important works of contemplative literature but also resources for understanding contemplative practice and contemplative experience from a comparative and cross cultural perspective We have not seen anything this bold and this global since Friedrich Heiler wrote his classic study on the typology of prayer over eighty years ago Komjathy and his essayists have vastly expanded the scope depth and sophistication of this project here In the process they have struggled with all of the critical questions around religious pluralism tradition and religious authority and have emboldened the comparative project itself Contemplation and comparison it turns out go very well together Jeffrey J Kripal author of Comparing Religions Coming to Terms Teachers and scholars undergraduate and graduate students and general readers interested in contemplative practice will cherish a book like this I'm happy that Louis Komjathy has done this great work It will undoubtedly be hailed as a milestone Ruben L F Habito author of Healing Breath Zen for Christians and Buddhists in a Wounded World

The Eyes of an Autistic Yogi Nathan H. Fox, 2012 The Eyes of an Autistic Yogi details one man's understanding of spirituality and life Even so spirituality is only one of a plethora of aspects of author Nathan Fox's life Aside from his spiritual quest as a Yogi Nathan is a musician writer and husband He also has Asperger's Syndrome a high functioning form of autism Nathan first realized that his perception was skewed as a child and he remained aware and even overwhelmed as he continued to develop It was not until a moment of spiritual awakening on the side of the highway in Indianapolis Indiana that he finally transcended the limitations of his diagnosis for the first time in his life he saw the world for its beauty and simplicity Sometime later as the vision faded Nathan knew he needed the experience again He also knew he must share his insight with the world Nathan reminds us of our own individuality For now we live in a strange world with even stranger people We call this earth and it is our home Remembering our home we do not seem that strange after all
