Immovable is a collection of works by this great Greek poet Kostis Palamas was born on 13th January in Patras Greece Palamas was educated in Mesolonghi in Western Greece before beginning his career as a journalist in the 1880 s During his career he published many poetry collections and became one of the most important literary figures Greece greatly influencing the political and intellectual climate of his time      Tropical Town; and Other Poems Salomon De La Selva, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1918 edition Excerpt THE GIRL THAT WAS WISE central American Folk song What would you do if I were poor Tell me what would you do I d keep a tiny grocery store Where all the folk would buy Because my balance weights were true My sugar measure high But that would take a lot of money And what if we had none In all the woods I d gather honey And sell it in the town With little twigs of cinnamon So sweet and thick and brown Then come and I will marry you For money none have I I merely said what I would do But I don t think I ll try I do not think I ll try TROPICAL RAIN The rain in Nicaragua it is a witch they say She puts the world into her bag and blows the skies away And so in every home the little children gather Run up like little animals and kneel beside the mother So frightened by the thunder that they can hardly pray Sweet Jem you that stilled the storm in Galilee Pity the homeless now and the travellers by sea Pity the Utile birds that have no nest that are forlorn Pity the butterfly pity the honey bee Pity the roses that are so helpless and the un sheltered corn And pity me Then when the rain is over and the children s prayer is said Oh joy of swaying palm trees with the rainbows overhead And the streets swollen like rivers and the wet earth s smell And all the ants with sudden wings filling the heart with wonder And afar the tempest vanishing with a stifled thunder
 In a glare of lurid radiance from the gaping mouth of Hell THE HAUNTED HOUSE OF LEON burned By American Filibusters 1860 Shattered walls The rain has eaten The earthquakes shaken The swift storms beaten No one owns them No one would care To mend them and roof them And live there They say that house Was burned down By the Yankee      Half an Hour &
 Other Poems Constantine Cavafy, 2008 Poetry Gay and Lesbian Studies Translated from the Greek by George Economou C P Cavafy lived simultaneously in two worlds and refused to choose between them in terms of language ethnicity society culture or history His poetry continues to inspire new translations because the Alexandrian writer who reveled in ambiguity and undecidability was a master of double meaning George Economou can capture this unique artistic and moral tension since he too has retained many double identities he is both Greek and American he knows both Greek and English he is a poet and painter scholar and translator teacher and editor student of both ancient and modern literature Drawing on his own dualities Economou fashions a series of intricate translations that keep all the double binds of the Greek original alive Readers will feel compelled to return to them often Vassilis Lambropoulos C P Cavafy Professor of Modern Greek University of Michigan
